VICTORY LOAN FOR WAR PURPOSES ONLY

It is reported in Ottawa that the total cash proceeds of the Victory Loan will be used for war purposes. Added to corresponding it in percentages, Canada's total expenditures, including total aid to Britain, for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1942, will be ordinary expenditures 18% and war expenditures 82%, with 5% of the money coming from taxation and 46% from Victory Loan, War Savings Certificates, etc. Moreover, it is felt for the man-in-the-street to know that Canada is financing both her ordinary and wartime revenue up to 79% as she goes along in this war.

NEW TAXES POURING INTO TREASURY

Though past estimates have been conservative, yet it is intimated in usually well-informed circles in the capital that the total new revenues from taxes will yield about $20,000,000 in the year; motion picture taxes of 20% of receipts will supply at least $8,000,000 with the additional impositions on sporting events, concerts etc., bound to double this amount; personal income taxes will bring in another $75,000,000 and the increase in the excess profits tax from 12 to 22 per cent will produce $80,000,000, deducting the amounts that will be given to the provinces in compensation for leaving their income taxation fields; the national defence tax is certain to return about $30,000,000; the Gas Tax will involve a minimum sum of $25,000,000; railways tickets and other minor taxes will bring another $10,000,000. In other owrds, these new or increased old taxation schedules promise to produce monies or levies far in excess of all mast speculations or estimations.

STRIKES WILL NOT IMPERIL CANADA'S WAR EFFORT

There is every reason to believe that strikes will not imperil Canada's war industry as may have happened in other countries. Under the Industrial Disputes Act, a strike is illegal twithout resort to conciliation though when findings are made and enquiries completed the acceptance is not mandatory. In any case, there is no official inclination to permit interference in war industries by strikes.

WAR AND POLITICS ARE NOT MIXING IN OTTAWA

Notwithstanding all reports of supposed political intrigues or activities in Ottawa right now in face of the war emergency, yet well-informed circles insist that politics has gone out of the window on the national scene where war matters are concerned, with the importance or significance of certain political manoeuvres being exaggerated statements or misleading information. Furthermore, it is now pointed out that there will be no drastic Cabinet reorganization, no plans to enliven political activities though the Liberal Party has named a new band of the national organization in the person of Senator A. K. Hugessen and the Conservative Party has unanimously approved of the acting leadership of the Hon. R. B. Hanson, no national government or similar change of composition, and other moves. At least, no political changes are contemplated at the present time.

WHEAT TALKS ARE PLANNED

An announcement has been made in the capital that an International Wheat Conference may take place in Washington. This meeting is expected to be held this summer and it is presumed that not only Cabinet Ministers and advisers will discuss the whole world wheat problem but officials and experts may undertake a careful and complete examination of the entire question. Though the plan originated in the United States and it was backed immediately by Canada, yet representatives may sit in from Argentina and Australia.

RED CROSS TO JOIN OTHER APPEALS

The Red Cross, which stayed out of other charity drives in the past, has now decided to participate in the future. The Canadian War Services Fund, in which the Red Cross refused to participate, brought in a sum of $6,751,000 in the recent campaign. The total receipts from wartime appeals reported by charitable organizations totalled $20,450,000. In view of the huge sums involved and the numerous appeals, the Government has decided to amend the war charities regulations so that provision may be made for far greater control by the officials over the activities of all such organizations.

THE ROBIN MOOR

By Wm. MacDONALD, North Sydney

The State Department at Washington has confirmed the report that the United States freighter Robin Moor was sunk in the South Atlantic on May 21st. by torpedoes fired from a German submarine.

At time of writing complete details about the incident are not available and what reaction America will take is not definitely known, but there is every indication that stern action is contemplated. The German government has not officially admitted the sinking of the American ship, but Nazi spokesmen have asserted that there was nothing unusual about the incident and that Germany would sink every American ship carrying contraband to Britain.

The sinking of the Robin Moor has caused some concern in America. It is authoritatively reported that the ship did not carry any cargo that could be termed as contraband under international law and that the identity of the ship was fully understood by the U-boat commander.

This ruthless attack upon the ship of a neutral nation, which the New York Herald Tribune termed a "flagrant act of piracy and murder," is not without precedent as far as Germany is concerned, but it is the first time that an American ship has been attacked in such a manner during the present war. This belligerent act on the part of Germany appears to be a direct challenge to President Roosevelt's insistence upon America's right to freedom of the seas.

Germany can not even justify her action by claiming her right to blockade Britain, because the Robin Moor did not carry materials of war and it was sunk in mid-ocean, outside the war zones defined by President Roosevelt under the Neutrality Act of 1939. This attack upon American shipping on the high seas is none other than an act of war against the United States on the part of Germany.

What course America will follow in preventing the repetition of such an incident is not yet known, but it may be assured that neither the present administration nor the American public will tolerate such acts of aggression, and as a consequence the government will take stern action against Germany. No man in American public life has found greater pleasure in telling the dictators off than has Secretary of State Cordell Hull and it may be assured that no words in the English language can be too vehement to express his contempt of this barbaric act when he sends his protest to Berlin.

It has been the traditional policy of the United States to insist upon the freedom of the seas. In recent weeks American statesmen have stressed this right and warned that any infringement upon this freedom would be considered as aggressive. Nothing could serve as a greater infringement upon America's right to freedom of the seas than the sinking of the Robin Moor.

In the past when the security of American ships plowing the commercial seaways of the world was threatened America defended them by armed force. In the early stages of the last war American ships were armed against attack, but when even this precaution failed to cope with the German U-boats the United States entered the war. If Germany again persists in sinking American shipping it seems that a declaration of war by the United States would be the only feasible answer.

What Germany's motives were in sinking the Robin Moor is not easily understood. It seems certain that Germany does not want to provoke America into declaring war on the Axis at this time. Perhaps the most likely answer is that Germany thought the incident would intimidate America and prevent her from sending supplies to Great Britain.

If this suggestion is true it is certain that Hitler has again misjudged his man.

The Sleep Talker

Marshal Petain is in a sort of squirrel cage. There is little left for him to do but go about making speeches to the populace. The real business of France is being conducted by the Nazis and their more trusted French agents.

The marshal's latest address is a model of the depths to which the spirit of defeatism can fall. Of the people who have been pushed around and whose country has been cruelly carved and bled, their ostensible leader asks that they "must put an end to the demanding spirit." On the eve of the collaboration" agreement with Hitler, Petain called upon them to follow him and to keep on trusting in national honor. Then he handed their country entirely over to its lone-standing enemy.

Last week this tired old man, with a pessimistic outlook and lifelong distrust in democracy, called a meeting to formulate the labor code for the "New France." It was to be based upon the promise that the interests and conditions of all were equal, that in the new state everything would be harmonized, and hence opposition within or from any group would not be tolerated. In the new state, he said, he wants all "to forget their origins, their past, discards and . . . to produce a professional organization worthy of the new France."

But the working and living conditions in the Nazified France are powerful opponents of the marshal's propaganda. They illustrate the barrenness and unreality of the marshal's thinking. The majority of the people are reported to be paying scant if any attention to his appeals for co-operation. The information that has come out of France will be rescued. An editorial in this week's N. Y. Nation says: "Every kind of measure has been placed on the French public in the hope of forcing it to acquiesce in, of not welcome, the policy of accepting a niche in the 'New Order.' But neither hunger nor the peculiarly cruel form of blackmail which employs the two million French prisoners in Germany as hostages has moved French opinion to abandon hope of a final democratic victory . . ."

NEW PRICES FOR LIME FOR FARMS

A new low price of $1.40 ton for lime on farm cars for the summer months has been announced by Hon. John A. McDonald, minister of Agriculture, as a result of a readjustment that has been made in the lime policy of the department, with the object of effecting a better distribution of lime sales throughout the year, and encouraging lime sales in the summer months when such sales have generally been light.

The new summer price of $1.40 ton will be in effect for the period from June 15 to October 5, and will apply to all orders placed through the department of agriculture or at recognized quarries, and will, of course, apply only to lime purchased for agricultural purposes. The price of $1.40 is a reduction from the price of $1.50 which is the general price at which lime has been sold to farmers under the policy of reduced lime rates inaugurated by the department at the beginning of the war.

The new schedule of rates as now arranged will be as follows:

June 15 to October 5, $1.40 ton
October 6 to April 15, $1.50 ton; and from April 16 to June 15, $1.60.

Records of sales under the lime policy for the last year show that orders for only two carloads of lime were received during last summer, while there were orders for 62 carloads during the fall and winter period, and 118 cars during the spring period from April 15 to June 15. Had the spring been an early one by in filling orders. It has therefore been considered advisable to make the above re-adjustments in price as inducement to promote a greater movement of lime more during the summer and fall seasons.

Certain quarries have also found it difficult to grind limestone in winter or early spring when the rock is wet. Another factor is the labor situation which is becoming more acute. Lime crusher operators find difficulty in getting men, even at higher wages, and the spreading of orders more evenly over the year would help this situation.

The co-operation of agricultural societies throughout the province is urged in helping to promote the movement of lime under the new arrangement.

Pronounced results have already come from the operation of the lime policy, over 30,000 tons of lime and marl having been moved during 1940.

PRODUCTION OF BUTTER INCREASING

A further increase in production of creamery butter in the province has been recorded during the month of May, according to the monthly report of the provincial dairy superintendent. The total for the month was 606,596 lbs. compared with 532,862 lbs. for May, 1940, an increase of 13.9. This brings the total production for the first five months of this year to 2,161,000 lbs., which is an increase of 6.5 percent. over the same period of 1940. The present price for butter wholesale in Halifax is 32½ cents compared with 24 cents for the same period last year.

COMMENCE T.B. TEST IN KINGS

Announcement is made that the staff of the veterinary directorate general for Canada will commence the second general test for T.B. in cattle in Kings county at once, and farmers in that county are urged to co-operate in facilitating the making of the test, which is being made following the completion of the necessary petitions on the part of the farmers.

General tests have been completed in the counties of Yarmouth, Colchester, Cumberland, Hants, Antigonish and Pictou, and petitions are now in process of being signed for a general test in Inverness county, under the auspices of the county farmers' association.

50 COMMUNITIES IN GARDEN BRIGADE

Approximately 50 communities in the rural parts of the province have now completed formation of companies in Nova Scotia's garden brigade, with a total of nearly 1000 members. This movement is under the auspices of the Nova Scotia department of agriculture and the women's institutes, as a means of promoting greater production of home grown vegetables.

SHORT COURSES FOR YOUNG WOMEN

Following the completion of the first of the summer series of rural short courses from young women in homecraft, under direction of the Nova Scotia department of agriculture, at Upper Canard, dates for further proposed courses are now announced as follows: Meteghan, June 16 to 28; Scotch Village, Hants, County, June 16 to 27; Cheboque, July 2 to 15; Barrington Passage, July 2 to 15; Brooklyn, Queen's County, July 18 to 30. These courses are open to young women 16 to 30 years of age, under the youth training plan, conducted jointly by the Nova Scotia department of agriculture and the dominion department of labour.

EGG AND POULTRY GRADING COURSE

Twenty-two young men and women are now undergoing training in a three weeks' course in egg and poultry grading at the agricultural college, Truro, under the auspices of the provincial and dominion departments of agriculture and dominion dept. of labour under the youth training plan. Instruction is in the hands of dominion and provincial poultry officials, and is designed chiefly to provide trained egg graders for registered egg stations throughout the province.

Fellow Citizens! We Are Fighting For Our Lives!

Tragedy thunders through the world. The Battle of the Atlantic rages. The battle of Britain may break at any hour in wildest fury. All Continental Europe lies under the heel of the Barbarian. Britain alone stands martialling every man for desperate resistance. Every gun every tank every ship, every plane that can be gathered from the four corners of the earth is desperately needed.

Britain's battle is our battle.. We are in equal peril.

Guns and equipment are pouring from Canada's factories. Your dollar helps to speed the stream of shells and guns and planes.

Your country asks you to lend your savings for the common need.

What is your answer? There can be but one. We will turn our dollars into steel. Side by side with Britain we will take up Hitler's challenge till every stain of his corroding fingers is sponged or blasted from the earth.

The danger is imminent. The response must be immediate and emphatic. The Government of Nova Scotia confidently appeals to every citizen to BUY VICTORY BONDS to the limit of his ability.

Suggests Some Young Blood

To the Editor

Sir: Realizing that those at Ottawa, to whom we have entrusted the handling of our protection from the modern tyrant, are honest, patriotic and hard-working, I am not one inclined to think I could do better than they in such a new and big job. Therefore, I deplore the tendency to captious criticism of the efforts of these gentlemen. There is one criticism, however, which I would voice. I believe three should be some "young blood" in the cabinet. In support of this view, let us picture a scene in England, shortly before the Aug. 4, 1914, declaration of war. A quiet game of bridge is in progress. One of the players is handed a message. He quietly turns to a friend (then a young man) saying, "Max, play this hand out for me, please." He leaves the room and within a matter of minutes out from the admiralty flashes an order to the British fleet in all quarters of the world, "Mobilize."

The first lord of the admiralty, the young man who had handed over his bridge hand was Winston Churchill, then in his 30's and the man who played out the hand, was the now Lord Beaverbrook. The former, on his own responsibility, had ordered mobilization of the fleet, and who, today, would fail to applaud that action? I submit that had the first lord been, as I, 60 years of age, he would have said, "By Jove, this means mobilization. I haven't the constitutional authority. I must call a cabinet meeting. The boys are week-ending. I must telegraph them to arrange a meeting for next week, etc." The shareholders of a trust company expect their general manager to be cautious. The management of an all-out war is a different think. We citizens, faced with the defence of liberties forced from previous tyrants by our forefathers, want the kind of action at times which requires the prodding of us 60-year olds by youth. Let us have one or two on the bridge who are in their thirties.

NOTE AND COMMENT

A man has been jailed for stealing two lawnmowers. If he had been a respectable citizen, he would merely have borrowed them.

The biggest chance Lindbergh has ever taken was not when he flew the ocean but when he picked Hitler to win.

An M. P. claims that the grain business is a racket. But perhaps says an exchange, he shouldn't judge it by the roar that it makes on a busy day.

An American isolationist is a man who thinks that his country's national bird should be an ostrich, not an eagle.

"Every family in France," says a Vichy official, "should keep rabbits." As reminders, perhaps, of Vichy officials.

"Liberal rainfalls" are reported from the West, and a Conservative paper is about to remark that Liberals claim credit for far too much.

In the air between Rhodes and Syria, the Huns are said to be maintaining a shuttle service. That, is in addition to the scuttle service on the sea.

The worl's biggest insurance premium is that 40 billion dollars the United States is going to spend to protect mankind against Hitler.

Italian laborers have always had a great reputation for their powers with a shovel. That makes it curious that in this war they have been unable to dig themselves in.

"Darlan Gives Hitler Six Bases," is the heading in a daily paper. What kind of double baseball is that treacherous man playing, anyway?

There is little hope that Hitler will hear a voice from Heaven and experience a change of heart on the road to Syria Damascus.

There's an announcement of a second death ray that can kill rabbits. It might be useful against Italians.

A double effort is being made this week to put the Victory Loan over in Richmond County. We hope that Isle Madame will do its full share to accomplish this and thus fall into line with other parts of Cape Breton Island.

Syria, to which the war now threatens to spread, has slightly larger area that our three maritime provinces combined. Its population is under three millions; somewhat less than that of Ontario and Quebec.

Now that the Victory Loan torch is making a triumphal progress through the country, it's up to some post to be a torch singer.

People who advocate an interprovincial conference claim it would clear the air. But so does a thunder storm.

THE ARCHBISHOP OF QUEBEC ADVOCATES ABSTINENCE

Cardinal Villeneuve, Archbishop of Quebec, recently forwarded to the Social Service Council a Poster on which, printed in large type, are the words:

VICTORY or ALCOHOL
WHY SPEND EVERY YEAR
$200,000,000,
FOR DRINK
BECOME A MEMBER OF A TEMPERENCE SOCIETY

In making acknowledgement of receipt of the poster the Social Service Council wrote:

"Canada is greatly indebted to your Eminence for your magnificent work in behalf of better conditions in our land."

The Archbishop had in April in an address at the Empire and Canadian Clubs in Toronto said he hoped "for the sake of the country and the Empire, all folk realize that abstinence will powerfully aid us to win the war."

ADDRESS DELIVERED BY HON. A. S. MacMILLAN, Premier of Nova Scotia, at the Launching of the Victory Loan Campaign at Halifax

I regard it a duty as well as a privilege to address your Organization on this opening day of the Victory Loan Campaign.

May I compliment you on the preparatory work you have already done. The perfecting of an organization which has for its objective the raising of the largest amount of money ever attempted at one time in the history of this Province,—$18,000,000 in the Province and $8,000,000 in Halifax. A GIGANTIC TASK BUT ONE IN WHICH I HAVE EVERY CONFIDENCE YOU WILL BE SUCCESSFUL.

FIRST—Because no greater cause ever presented itself in the history of mankind;

SECOND—because the necessity is almost beyond comprehension, as life or death depends on your success of the campaign throughout Canada;

THIRD—Because your Organization is giving the best that is in them to this noble cause. For the past three weeks you have been working night and day;

FOURTH—Because the citizens of this Province realising the life and death struggle that is taking place will, I believe, open their hearts as well as their pockets to you as never before.

This is Churchill Day! The Prime Minister of Great Britain has said 'Give us the tools and we will win the war."

Without the equipment and tools the war cannot be won. If Canada is to furnish equipment and tools, Canada must have the money with which to secure them.

Four vital parts of our offensive and defensive forces are Navy, including merchantmen, Army and Airforce, and MONEY. Without money the others are useless and the three great arms of our fighting services cannot function.

Hitler has said "Canada is the richest prize in the British Empire." That means that he intends that you and I shall be his slaves. Shall we? We assuredly will be if he can get his ships through to our shores and can battle our defenses. The president of the United States speaks of our own Province, Nova Scotia, as in the front line. What did the President have in mind? The meaning is quite clear to me. If Hitler's forces succeed in crossing the Atlantic this province will have to bear the first shock. This being the case our job is to furnish the equipment to prevent the enemy from setting foot on Canadian soil. If our boys are willing to stand in the breach, to risk their lives and die if necessary to safeguard all we hold dear, shall we fail them? Shall we fail to furnish the money to provide the sinews of war and thereby sacrifice our boys in vain? Let us remember that the eyes of the world are on Canada today and on Nova Scotia as part of Canada. We should bear in mind that we are not asked to GIVE. We are asked to invest in VICTORY BONDS. No safer investment is possible today. If Victory Bonds become valueless, our money is valueless. You believe in Insurance. You insure your property and your life on which you pay your premiums. What better insurance can you obtain today than Victory Bonds. By purchasing these Bonds you are insuring your way of living, your economic existence, your freedom to worship, your homes, your liberties and all you hold dear. On this kind of insurance you will not pay a premium—instead, you will receive interest on your investment, and in addition, you will assist in winning the war and avert the awful tragedy that is hanging over us.

The effectiveness of the war depends on what we all do. I am speaking to Nova Scotians whose loyalty and proud devotion to the throne of Great Britain have never been questioned but more than loyalty is at stake. There must be no wavering in this cause.

G. N. Spinney, the National Chairman, has said—"Canada takes second place to no Country in the World in meeting her obligations." I say, "Nova Scotia take second place to no Province in Canada in meeting her Victory Loan obligations."

Now then CANVASSERS, as you set forth today, echo the words of Mr. Churchill: "What is our Aim? I can answer in one word 'VICTORY'. "Victory at all costs, in spite of all terror, Victory, however long or "hard the road may be; for without Victory there is no survival."

CHURCHILL IS OUR LEADER. As I said before, he asks us for the tools. We shall say to him:

LEAD ON CHURCHILL, we'll find the tools.
If we neglect then we're the fools.
No cost too great, no price too high
Fight on Churchill, we'll do or die.

LEAD ON CHURCHILL, the world shall see,
That Britain aims to set men free.
The world looks on with anxious face,
Fight on, and save the human race.

LEAD ON CHURCHILL, our prayer shall be
God's will on earth done, men shall be free.
Men shall be free not heed the cost,
Fight on Churchill, or freedom's lost.

Lead on 'till freedmo's flag again,
Shall proudly wave on earth's domain.
LEAD ON CHURCHILL till earth's oppressed,
Shall rise once more and call you blest.

WHAT THE WAR MEANS

To the Editor.

Sir: This is my war! It is being fought so that I shall be assured of religious, social, economic and political freedom. Soldiers, sailors and airmen of the Commonwealth and her Allies have given up their comforts and security to fight for me so that I may be kept from the lash of Nazi despots and the terror of their rule. Merchant seamen risk their lives on the cargo ships that ply the oceans, carrying munitions to the widespread battlefronts. They do it so that I may live safely. Civilians in Great Britain undergo pitiless air raids in this total war. They bear all the horror and anguish of bombing so that I may have the opportunity to build up a better Canada, a better Commonwealth, a better world where justice to all, freedom for all and integrity by all shall be vital, dynamic things, bringing peace and goodwill among men. This is my war! It is being fought for me. The least, the very least, that I can do is to show that I am grateful to those who are offering their lives for me. I must not—I shall not fail them. I pledge myself to stand by them to the end. I pledge my help, my money, my life, to those who are defending me.

A FINE TOURIST EDITION

"Prince Edward Island, the England of Canada" is the title of the finest tourist edition that has come to our office for a long time. It was printed in the office of the Maritime Advocate and Busy East and is just what might be expected from that well equipped printing establishment. Mr. C. C. Avard is the enterprising president of the The Busy East Press Limited, of Sackville, N. B. which is responsible for several other beautiful tourist editions during the past several years. The covers are printed in natural colors from kodachrome films supplied by C. Sewell, photographer of Charlottetown and Smith, photographer, of Sackville, N. B. An edition of 41,000 of this beautiful work of art was printed and should go a long way in attracting many tourists to the Garden of the Gulf.

HITLER'S START—AND FINISH

To the Editor.

Sir: Hitler has now apparently abandoned his silly claim that the Germans are a superior race, and therefore destined to give law and order to the rest of the world. He now says that this is a war between the "Haves" and the "Have Nots." For years, the German people have been trying to get a fairer share of the national income, and it was because they were about to achieve this, through their unions, that their exploiters, using Hitler, and the press, their money, and the soldiers, smashed their unions. Hitler is the world's No. 1 scab. It was because the German people were robbed at home that there were so many "Have Nots" there.

Every civilized country in the world uses paper scrip for money. While this scrip is based upon gold, its volume can be restricted, and then monopolized and the men who control the medium of exchange control all trade, and all men's lives; it was these people in every country of the world who built up Hitler and Mussolini, and supplied them with weapons with which to subdue the rest of the people. They lent them "money."

Now the scoundrels behind Hitler don't care a hoot what issues are discussed: Jews; a place in the sun; the Versailles Treaty; "ideologies"; religion, so long as the real one is obscured, and unless the people recognize the real issue, and are determined that after this war is over, the system whereby the resources of the world are cornered through the printing press, then they will indeed have fought in vain.

Hitler himself is only a stooge and a dupe; that's why all his talk is incoherent; all he knows is that he has got to fight, and conquer countries; what happens after that, only those controlling him know. These men, of course, did not want to fight England; neither did Hitler. They hoped they could get England with the help of the English Nazis, and by treason and treachery. He met his fate when he found he had to fight the British people, and when the British people kicked out their "appeasers" and put in a fighting man. From the moment Churchill appeared on the scene Hitler's doom was sealed. His two allies are now on their last legs. Britain and America control the seas; his invasion is but a bogey; his attempts to starve England out are as futile as his projected invasion. It would take 10 years at the present rate. He is certainly short of oil, and we practically have all the world supplies. His chief man has surrendered himself. He is forced to fight in distant lands to keep up the appearance of might. The end cannot be far distant.

Stern Realities Of Freedom's Cause

The Prime Minister of Canada:

"What have for long been ominous probabilities, are, now, upon us as stern realities. The area of conflict widens every day; its intensity increases every day; losses on sea, in the air and on land will continue to mount; the scenes of terror and destruction which live in the memories of many lands free beleagured and invaded, will be repeated and renewed. In steadiness of heart, of hand of vision we shall find our present strength and the path to victory. If we are depressed by the picture of to-day or to-morrow, we shall be unworthy of our allies and ourselves. Wars of endurance are not lost by the accidents of a day, or a week or a month. They are lost only by the steady disintegration of the moral fibre of a people. The stuff of which the peoples of the British commonwealth are made is not that kind of fibre. Let us therefore calmly and confidently continue to look at the facts steadily and as a whole, not bowed down by the failure of to-day, not unduly elated by the success of to-morrow.

Let me say that from now on as never before it is of the utmost importance that we should view the whole struggle in perspective, and seek to preserve a true sense of proportion. We must be prepared for the extension of fighting over wide and wider areas, for a rapidity of movement at times, and in other places, not unlike what we have already witnessed in the Balkan campaign; and for an intensity and ferocity of warfare resulting in terrific destruction and in heavy losses of human life. Regardless of where the conflict may spread or how rapid may be the movement of forces, or how intensive and destructive the struggle may become in other parts of the world, we must keep ever in our mind the truth that so long as Britain stands no reverse will be decisive.

Britain is fighting with every ounce of her strength, every fibre of her being. We, in Canada, will strive more earnestly than ever to do our utmost on sea, in the air and on land: to work to produce, to manufacture, as we have never worked and produced or manufactured before. The news received yesterday of the landing in Britain of further contingents of Canadian troops, and airmen trained in the great commonwealth plan, should increase our confidence in the ability of Canada to help effectively in the decisive struggle. For the world it is renewed evidence of Canada's determination to spare neither her material resources nor her manhood in the battle for the world's freedom."
—House of Commons, April 28, 1941.

(From Our Own Correspondent)

The canneries are only operating two days a week, as lobsters are extremely scarce now. Very little has been accomplished by the fishermen so far, this spring.

Mackerel, salmon, haddock, herring have kept away from our shores and fishermen have heavy expenses for their motor boats and fishing gear. The prices are satisfactory and they would do fairly well if the fish was in abundance.

Only a few of the traps had any fish worth while one day this week, and it was mostly haddock and it was canned at the new factory of the Richmond Fishermen's Co-operative Ltd.

The Misses Edna Landry and Rita Samson, who are employed in Sydney, spent the week-end here.

Charles Landry arrived from Halifax on Monday to visit his parents Mr. and Mrs. Leo. W. Landry for several weeks.

WHAT BELGIUM PAYS

"La Libre Belgique" itemizes the sums which Germany has forced Belgium to pay for occupation, reaching a total of 15 billion Francs for the first year. In addition, the Nazis have requisitioned goods to the value of 2 billion without compensation, circulated unredeemable Reichskassenscheine to a value of 4 billion, forced Belgian corporations to export untold quantities of manufactures and food to the Reich with almost no compensating importation. The ordinary Belgian State budget was 11 billion Francs annually; as a result of occupation it is estimated this will reach 40 billion in 1941.

DAIRY CATTLE PRICES IN YARMOUTH

Yarmouth county, which is one of the chief sources in the Maritimes for supply of high class dairy stock, has recently had some heavy sales of dairy stock to outside purchasers. Prices quoted in a recent news letter showed sales of 24 purebred Guernsey cows to Ontario and U. S. points at an average of $166. This figure was in error, the proper figure being $166. Another sale included 11 purebred Guernsey heifers that brought an average of $100 each.

Urge Your Menfolk to Buy Victory Bonds NOW

You can no longer depend upon the Atlantic Ocean for protection. Any day between breakfast time and noon, a bombing plane can fly from Greenland to our own Maritimes and Quebec—a mere matter of 5 hours; to Winnipeg in less than 9 hours, to Vancouver in 10½ hours. From German-occupied France, bomb-laden planes can carry destruction to Toronto, Niagara, Ottawa and Montreal in less than 10 hours. Night and day, in the British Isles and on the sea, in and out of uniform, men defend your home from attack as surely as though they stood and fought at your own doorstep. Will you help to supply them with tools to carry on the fight—your fight? Will you help to make certain that there shall never be an "occupied" Canada?

Your Government needs some of your savings to buy more ships, planes and tanks—munitions of war that will hurry the return of our men to their homes, insure our way of life. Lend your money by buying Victory Bonds NOW!

The money you invest in Victory Bonds will come back to you with interest. Lend your money. We must win this war. Lend to preserve the things that money cannot buy. Urge your menfolk to protect your home by investing in Victory Bonds now. All that you hold dear is threatened.
