Yarns Spun On The Old Spinning Wheel

By Norman L. MacLeod (The Annex, Otisville, N. Y.)

By the time this will appear in print we will be well launched into 1953. The Old Spinning Wheel failed to send Christmas greetings to the readers of the Home Weekly who so tolerantly bore with me for over three years. Those of you with whom I have had any correspondence during that time received cards from me. I was unable to include a personal message in them. The labor union would only allow me to sign the cards, address and stamp the envelopes. They said I would have to hire a secretary if more was to be done, but all the little girls I interviewed refused to work for me unless I paid them, they claimed they had to eat. Some people can be so unreasonable. While it is still young, I wish to extend my heartfelt wishes to you all for a healthy, prosperous and Happy New Year.

"'Twas two nights before Christ mas when all through the house not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse". At 10 p.m. an hour after the curfew here had sounded, I was peacefully lying on my pillow listening through my earphones to Fibber McGee and Molly at Beuna Vista, California, as they were planning a surprise party to be given Doctor Gimble at his home. Suddenly my door opened and an attendant appeared, flashed on the light and announced: "I have news for you" and read a telegram that he had just received over the phone addressed to me from California. But here's the story.

It is about Little Rory. Through out Cape Breton you have known many Rorys — Rory Angus, Rory Sandy, Rory Malcolm and Rory ad infinitum. But you have never known Little Rory. I never saw him and very few other people have seen him. He only arrived in this country on Tuesday December 23, 1952 at 4.30 p.m. in time for the Christmas festivities.

Little Rory had everyone guessing. While he was expected, no one knew for a certainty whether he or his potential sister would come, or whether they would both arrive, or if he would make a solo trip. Neither did any one know the exact day or hour Whether Rory liked it or not he was compelled to land in California. As yet he has made no protest, so the climate there must agree with him.

I was and am greatly interested in Little Rory, for we read in Proverbs 17:6 that "Childrens children are the crown of old men.' About three and a half years ago I was invested with my first crown by Brett George MacLeod. This is my second coronation as I am adorned with another tiara in the person of Rory. Yes, Rory Dorn MacLeod is my grandson. To keep the record straight Rory and Brett are not brothers, they are first cousins.

I am proud of Little Rory for I feel that I had the deciding voice in naming him. When I was informed some time ago that I would be presented at or near Christmas time with a grandchild, his father said in a letter to me: "Christine is trying to choose a girls name, but I told her she need not bother that I had already named him Roderick P. MacLeod." In my reply I told them that the diminutive for Roderick is Rory, a very fine Scotch name, but that I did not think much of "P" as a middle initial, for I did not want to give anyone the chance to refer to my grandson as Rory "Phooey" MacLeod. I then repeated a poem that was a classic in my boyhood days:

Rory in a dory,
And the dory upset;
Rory fell overboard
And got his pants wet.

I don't think it was the poem that did it, but the name Rory, for in the last letter from his mother she said: "Since you told us that Rory was short for Roderick I like the name much better. I had visions of his struggling through the first grade trying to learn to spell and write Roderick and of always being the last one to finish. So I am all for Rory. The middle name is to be Dorn, which is short for the family Dutch name of Doornbos."

Rory Dorn MacLeods mother is a native of Wyoming and is of good Dutch or Holland lineage--hence the family name Doornbos.

Rory is a great Scotch name. It has had wide and long residence in Cape Breton, While I have met a number ofRodericks South of the Border, I dont recall any that used the diminutive of Rory: Some did shorten to Rod, but it is not as euphonius as Rory. So my vote was for Rory. Now with the equally pleasing appellation of Dorn what could be more melodious to the ears of Dutch and Scotch alike than Rory Dorn?

There are some who have further shortened the name to Roy, which in itself is a very fine name but should never be substituted for Rory. In eliminating that second "r" you remove the burr-r-r and that is disastrous to any Scotch name.

Rory's old man was born in New York. He never joined any Scotch societies, nor did he have the opportunity to mingle with Scots but next to his Americanism he

Two Major Figures in Seventh U.N. Assembly

Two outstanding figures of the Seventh United Nations General Assembly, India's V. Krishna Menon and President Lester B. Pearson of Canada, are shown below the speaker's rostrum at the close of the stormy first half of the session in the early morning of 22 December. Mr. Menon proposed the resolution for an armistice in Korea which was adopted by the Assembly and later rejected by the People's Republic of China and the North Koreans. The second part of the session is scheduled to reconvene by 24 February 1953.

Hon. Henry D. Hicks Reports On Education

By the Hon. Henry D. Hicks
Minister of Education

Nova Scotia's program of area high schools is moving steadily forward. Two more of the new regional schools are under construction at Amherst and Oxford, and tenders have been called for construction of another at Sherbrooke.

Completion of these three new projects will bring to 16 the number of regional and rural consolidated high schools. The development of this plan, providing modern high school facilities throughout the whole province to ensure equally good educational opportunities for urban and rural children, will continue from year to year.

The vocational high schools for Halifax and Yarmouth counties are now operating their full three year programs in the fields of industrial, commercial and home economics subjects.

During the year the Physical Fitness Division of the Department of Health which was established in 1944, was transferred to the Department of Educatio.

It is worthy of note that not a single section was without school privileges for the year. 111 sections schools were not opened but in 28 of these there were no children of school age, in six the pupils were taught by means of correspondence courses, and in the remaining 77 the children [illegible] to schools in other [illegible]hers 1952 [illegible]hools total [illegible] new new [illegible]hout al- [illegible]pub- [illegible]han [illegible].

A total of 581,774 free school books was provided the children of the province, at a net cost of $288,064.

L'ARDOISE

The community was saddened to learn of the death of Monsignor Alfred Abraham Boudreau, D. P. which occurred at St. Martha's Hospital, Antigonish on Wednesday, January 14th at the age of 85. He was pastor of this parish for 44 years until his retirement two and a half years ago. Although in failing health for some time it was only a couple of weeks ago that he became seriously ill.

He was named Domestic Prelate by Pope Pius XII in August 1950 following 44 years of devoted labor in the parish. He retired to Bethany a month later, at the age of 83.

Born at Port Felix, N. S., Oct. 12, 1867 he attended St. F. X. University and completed his studies for the priesthood at St Lawrence College, Montreal and was ordained at Antigonish June 18, 1905 by the late Bishop Cameron. In November 1906 he was named pastor of this parish succeeding the late Dr. Hugh McPherson.

He is survived by one sister, Mrs Angeline David and one brother Daniel Boudreau of Halifax. Funeral took place at Antigonish on Friday, with Solemn Mass of Requiem in St. Ninian's Cathedral at 10 a.m. by Most Rev. George Landry D. D. Requiem Mass was also celebrated here on Monday at 9 o'clock by Rev. Fr. P. A. LeBlanc, P. P.

Miss Myrtle Monbourquette, Halifax is spending her holidays with her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Monbourquette, West L'Ardoise.

Mr. Ivan Boudreau (Tam) motored to Sydney on Sunday accompanied by Miss Anita Ranson Marie Monbourquette and Jeffrey Landry and James Briand.

Mrs. Sabine Calnen, Halifax is visiting her father, Mr. Helaire Pottie, and her sister Jennie Pottie, who have both been ill.

Max Monbourquette, West L'Ardoise has recently left for Halifax where he has secured employment.

A very enjoyable birthday party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Chiasson West L'Ardoise, the past week, in honor of their daughter Hughette who celebrated her fourteenth birthday. About 20 young friends and school mates were present and

Sporting Mountain Echoes

It is the middle of January, but the mild winter weather still prevails with comparatively little snow.

However, when our local dealer James Goswell, drove to St. Peters to replenish his store, the soft snow which had been packed into a hard surface by motor traffic on the paved highway, favored him with ideal sledding all the way.

We regret that our good teacher Miss McPherson has been restricted to her home in Sydney throughout the week by an attack of flu, but glad to know that she will be back to her charge on Monday morning.

Henry Boudreau, of North Bay, Ont., is the guest of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Boudreau.

It is Mr. Boudreaus first visit to his native district in thirty-eight years.

Lloyd McRae who is employed at the Mindamar Mine has established a home of his own at Stirling whither he has moved Mrs. McRae and family.

We wish our former next door neighbours success.

"A. F." expressed pleasure at seeing smoke rising from the old Andrews home.

It is a pity there are so many smokeless chimneys throughout the rural districts.

Having regard to its location, we cherished a hope that Seaview was destined to expand, but on the contrary it is rapidly contracting into very narrow compass.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. McDonald (Ann Rose) returned from Sydney to their home in Oban during the week-end, the proud possessors of their first arrival, little Joseph Angus.

The first harbinger of spring, a seed catalogue, reached us the other evening.

John L. McLean and Henry Pate were business visitors from Thibeauville, Wednesday, and Angus McDonald, a social caller from Oban, Thursday.

Regarding a recent contribution by "MacTavish" we recall taking leave of "the tall Minister of the Manse' on the street.

We referred to the honor he always commanded in his own country, and predicted greater abroad.

He obviously appreciated our remarks for he tarried a little longer to pay tribute to the good people of St. Peter's and all with whom he had been so agreeably associated down through the years.

HUNDREDS PAY FINAL TRIBUTE TO LATE MONSIGNOR BOUDREAU

The clergy and people of the Antigonish diocese paid final tribute last Thursday to Monsignor Alfred A. Boudreau, parish priest at L'Ardoise for nearly a half century and a former professor of St. Francis Xavier Univesity.

Most Rev. G. L. Landry, Titular Bishop of Cnosso celebrated the solemn Pontifical requiem in St. Ninian's Cathedral while a priest's choir chanted the Mass. Monsignor P. J. Nicholson and Monsignor M. M. Coady were among the large group of clergy in sanctuary.

Religious women from orders in the diocese were represented and a large number of school children were present in the cathedral in tribute to the veteran priest.

Very Rev. Alfred Boudreau P.P. Petit de Grat, was the preacher. He told the congregation that the deceased had labored in Richmond County's biggest parish for almost half a century. He described Monsignor Boudreau as a shy, simple man, devoted to his people. Among his outstanding parish works, said the preacher, were the improvements to the church and the modern consolidated school that resulted from his efforts.

Assisting Bishop Landry during the Requiem Mass were Rev. P. A. LeBlanc, West L'Ardoise as Deacon and Rev. A. Doucet, West Arichat, as sub-deacon. Dr. H. J. Somers was assistant priest, while Rev. J. N. MacNeil were masters of ceremonies

Interment was at Antigonish. Wednesday morning St. F. X. paid tribute to a graduate and teacher of the institution with a Solemn Requiem Mass celebrated by the president, Monsignor Nicholson. Faculty priests assisted. The remains lay in state at Morrison hall on the campus until Wednesday night when the body was taken to the cathedral for Thursday's ceremony.

Antigonish Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus provided a Guard of Honor and maintained a night vigil prior to the funeral service.

Wedding

GOYETCHE — BURNS

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Louis Church on Monday Jan. 19th when Rev. C. P. Gerroir united in marriage Mary Eleanor, daugher of Mrs. William Burns and Joseph Chas. Goyetche, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Goyetche, both of Louisdale.

The bride was given inmarriage by her brother Norman and entered the Church to the strains of the Wedding March played by her brother-in-law Adelard Sampson.

She chose for her wedding gown net over satin, with a finger-tip veil and carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses.

She was attended by her sister Verona who wore a gown of mauve and Eva Landry, cousin of the groom, who wore a gown of pink satin. Arthur Burns was best man and Edwin Landry, usher.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride and supper was served at the home of the groom. The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. C. P. Girroir.

A dance was held in their honor at the parish hall where a large number of friends gathered. Music was supplied by Joe Murphy and his Orchestra, Sydney.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Burns, Willie Burns and Arthur Burns, all of Halifax.

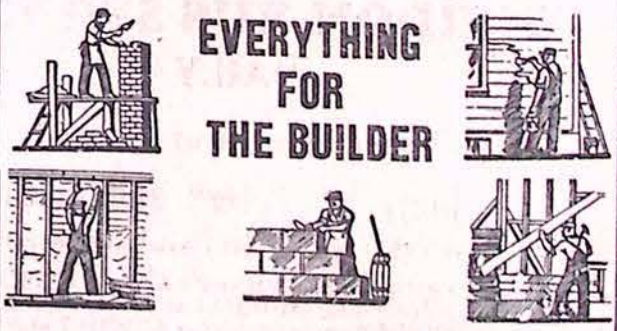

Mr. and Mrs. Goyetche will make their home in Louisdale. We join with their many friends in wishing them a long and happily wedded life.

N. S. ELECTION FOR SPRING IS FORECAST

A Nova Scotia general election this Spring, probably in early May, is being talked over in various political circles following official announcement of an early opening of the fourth session of the 44th General Assembly of the Legislature.

This year's Legislature convenes Feb. 3, the earliest date since 1927, and already there is increased activity in the three major political camps of the province.

CANSO CAUSEWAY NOW JUTS OUT 1000 FEET

Work on the Canso causeway is proceeding on schedule with construction almost one-third completed, officials of the Northern Construction Company said recently.

The causeway now juts out more than 1000 feet from Auld's Cove. Fill is being dumped in water with a depth of 85 feet.

Work will continue throughout the winter on a round-the-clock schedule. Because the tip of the causeway now is one-third across the Strait, navigation lights have been placed at the end.

Attend Inaugural Celebrations

The following taken from the "Boston Globe" refers to Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Wigmore, former residents of this town, and at present in the employ of Mrs. Catherine Howard, National Committee Woman of the Republican Committee.

"Among the happiest people in Washington for the doings, or as Canadians say the "do" will be Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Wigmore. He is a retired railroad man and and Mrs. Wigmore is Mrs. Charles P. Howrad's famous "Jenny" who runs her house on Beacon St., or Reading or Marblehead.

A trip to the inaugural and four days in Washington was their Christmas present from Mr. and Mrs. Howard."

The Howards went to Washington on Friday night so that Mrs Howard, who is National Committee Woman from Massachusetts, may attend the meeting of the Republican Committee there on Saturday.

They will stay at the Wardman Park with most of the official Massachusetts delegation. With them will be their son Herbert, a student at Harvard."

MEETING OF ARICHAT HOME AND SCHOOL ASSN.

The monthly meeting of the Arichat Home and School Association was held on January 16th in the Convent Hall. After prayer and roll call, the minutes were read and adopted and a financial report given based on the activities of the Association since its re-organization last January. Discussion took place regarding the amount to be given to help the trustees meet extra expenses incurred in the remodelling of the Academy. A social was planned for February 10th. A "Ways and Means" Committee was nominated to look after social activities in the future. The members of this group are, Mr. Colin Paon, Mrs. Wilbert Stone, Mr. Simon LeBlanc Mrs. C. G. Cusack, and Mr G. G. LeBrun.

The Presidents Message from the January News Letter was read by the Secretary—"Sound education is the arch which supports the democratic superstructure of our civilization The teacher is the keystone of the arch. Home and School members cannot, dare not, be unconcerned with the existing and rapidly growing teacher shortage."

Mr. G. G. LeBrun read a letter from Mr. Chiasson, Inspector of Schools with regard to observations he made during the school visit. Sing-song and lunch followed after which the meeting adjourned.

Yarns Spun On Old Spinning Wheel

is a true Scot. Several years ago he visited me and the first thing he asked was "How do you like my muffler?" He was wearing the MacLeod tartan and seemed proud of it. A couple of years ago I sent him a couple of ties I ordered from Baddeck, C. B., one the dress and the other the regular tartan. At another time I sent him a book about the different tartans. My reason for sending him those things was his deep interest in the Scotch race. So it is not surprising to me when the first-born is named Roderick. There is one thing though that cause me to hold my tongue in my cheek. Is he becoming too-Scotch? Married on December 22, 1950, son born on December 23, 1952, then Christmas. Only a Scotchman would so arrange matters that one gift would do for three events.

Methinks that in choosing the name Roderick that Rory Mor, Chief of the MacLeod Clan 350 years ago, and known as the famous Roderick 16th, played a part. What's in a name? I don't know, but my Roderick Dorn bear his in true dignity and be an honour to the Dutch House of Dcornbos and the Scotch race is his granddad's prayer.

So Rory this is hoping that someday we shall meet. Your Uncle Wallace, Aunt Janice and Cousin Brett being in the Bay area during the Holidays, I know you must have had a fine get-together. I trust that your coming will mean a continuous round of happiness to your lovely mother, your dad and yourself. Even at this distance it has brought real cheer to me. May God richly bless you all.

serve Canada

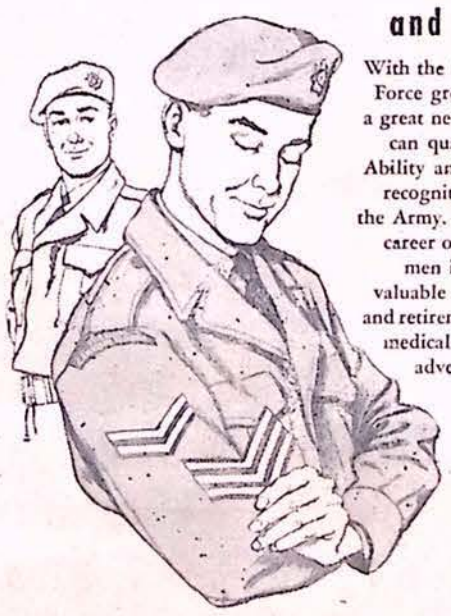

Today, Canada must be constantly on the alert to meet any threats to our national security. Trained, armed strength is the safe way to guard our freedom.

and Yourself

With the Canadian Army Active Force growing rapidly, there is a great need for young men who can qualify as junior leaders. Ability and initiative find quick recognition and promotion in the Army. There are outstanding career opportunities for young men in the Active Force . . . valuable training, excellent pay and retirement plans, outstanding medical and dental care, travel, adventure and new friends.

in the Infantry

The Infantry is the backbone of the Canadian Army. Its soldiers, all highly trained technicians, are the most important men in our Army. There are many specialized jobs in modern Infantry for young men with an eye for adventure. Service with one of Canada's world-famous Infantry Regiments offers plenty of scope and challenge.

A very complete vacation picture record might start with a route-planning shot like this one.

To be satisfactory, vacation record pictures need to be good individually and to form an interesting record when put together. But, I've often been asked, just what constitutes a satisfactory vacation picture record?

That's a question to which I always give the same answer—it all depends on you. Some vacationers take great pride in making very complete photographic records; others are perfectly content with a collection of snapshots that hit only high spots.
