Unveiling of Monument Commemorates Founding of St. F. X., at Arichat

Special Service At Notre Dame

Notre Dame Church, Arichat

More than 1000 people assembled in this shiretown of Richmond County Sunday afternoon for the unveiling and blessing of a marble plaque commemorating the founding of St Francis Xavier College here 100 years ago.

This picturesque county centre was the Episcopal See of Eastern Nova Scotia from 1844 to 1886--a period of 42 years--and it was on July 20, 1853, that the late Rt. Rev. Colin F. MacKinnon, D.D. bishop of the diocese, established St Francis Xavier College destined to become one of the leading institutions of higher education on the North American continent.

And Sunday's moving event wrote another impressive chapter into the history of the illustrious seat of learning which assumed the status of a university in the intervening years.

The imposing plaque, designed in the form of an open book, and of black Swedish marble was unveiled and blessed by His Excellency Bishop John R. MacDonald of Antigonish and standing with him were His Grace Archbishop John Hugh MacDonald of Edmonton and His Excellency Bishop George L. Landry of Pomquet, N. S.

The memorial is erected on the grounds at the side of Our Lady of the Assumption parish church, Rev. A. P. Poirier, pastor.

Priests from all sections of the diocese of Antigonish were in attendance headed by Monsignor P. J. Nicholson, president of St. F.X. University, Monsignor M. M. Coady for years the vigorous leader of St. F. X. Extension movement, and Monsignor R. C. MacGillivary of Sydney.

The simple outdoor ceremony was followed by celebration of solemn pontifical Benediction in the Church which was filled to capacity with scores standing outside.

Welcome to the dignatories of the church, priests, officials of the university and visitors was extended by Father Poirier in his introductory remarks.

Referring to the significance of the occasion Father Poirier said: "Today, the parish of Arichat has the signal honor of being your host on the occasion of the unveiling and blessing of a memorial plaque in the form of an open book commemmorating the early beginnings and tender years of the institution that has become today the great university of St. F. X. at Antigonish."

He added: "The selecting of this site, by the Rt. Rev. Colin F. MacKinnon, bishop of Arichat seemed to have been a foreshadowing of the power and influence that this young institution was destined to wield in the field of higher education."

The special speaker was Archbishop MacDonald who referred to the great vision of Bishop MacKinnon in establishing the college and pointed to the struggle and obstacles that were overcome in establishing the institution and directing it on a course which 100 years later found it high in renown and recognition across the North American continent.

Paying merited tribute to Bishop MacKinnon, Archbishop MacDonald said, "he was far ahead of his time."

Archbishop MacDonald pointed out also that like the early pioneers of education, present day university administrators are facing great problems and obstacles.

Important role played by St. F. X. in the Christian and economic life of the people and communities during the first 100 years of its existence was discussed by the archbishop who indicated that the institution now on the threshold of its second centenary is destined to ascend to greater heights and prestige in the field of higher education.

Archbishop MacDonald spoke in English and in French.

Benediction followed with his grace as celebrant and the close of the services a dinner was served at the glebe house for the visiting dignatories and others.

Chaplains for Archbishop MacDonald were Rev. W. C. Boucher P.P. D'Escousse, and Rev Charles Forest, P.P., Petit de Grat.

Chaplains for Bishop MacDonald were Rev. Placide Boudreau PP. L'Ardoise and Rev. J. H. MacEachen, P.P St. Peter's.

Chaplains for Bishop Landry were Rev. M. J. MacKinnon, director, St. F. X. extension department, and Rev. C P. Gerroir, P.P. Louisdale.

Music was sung by the choir under the direction of Sr Immaculata, with St. Stanislaus, organist, both of OLA Convent.

Procession of the clergy, headed by the archbishop, the two bishops and monsignori from the glebe house to the site of the memorial, marked the opening of the afternoon's program.

Ideal weather prevailed and the church grounds, buildings and interior of the church were attractively decorated in patriotic and papal colors.

Present with St. F. X. University president Monsignor Nicholson, was Dr. H. J. Somers, vice-president and numerous faculty members.

Archbishop MacDonald was given a most cordial welcome after he emerged from the church at the close of the service.

Assisting officers at the benediction were Rev. J. H. MacEachen and Rev. A. Doucet P.P. West Arichat.

Request

Give me the quiet of the templed hills,
Or verdant valley when the sun goes down;
The muted music of the mountain rills,
And you may have this tense titanic town.

Give me a respite from the rush and roar,
From milling mobs that haunt the Great White Way;
Give me a cove along the cool Bras D'Or,
To cast an anchor at the close of day.

2nd. In Road Race

Joe Richard, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Richard of this town, now residing in St. John, N. B., took part in the 6-mile road race at the Maritime Invitation Track and Field Meet at Charlottetown, P. E. I., recently when he took 2nd place. Winning again this year was Stewart MacMillan, of the Halifax Wanderers Athletic Club. John Paul, the old-time Indian runner was third.

Richard kept ahead of MacMillan up to the last quarter lap MacMillan's time was 34 minutes 16 2-5 seconds.

Joe has won many races in events throughout the Maritimes in recent years and we are looking forward to seeing Joe enter the Boston Marathon next spring.

Sporting Mountain Echoes

James Morrison of Lynn, Mass., and his cousin, Mabel MacKenzie of Boston are motor visitors to Cape Breton.

Leaving Boston at three-fifteen a.m. Saturday and taking turns at the wheel throughout the day, they arrived at the Bird's Nest Inn in Amherst at seven fifteen p.m.

Sunday they reached their respective mothers Mrs. Christena Morrison (90) The Points and Mrs. Susan MacKenzie (Mrs. R. L.) St. Peter's.

We were glad for a friendly call from "Jim" on Monday.

Whilst welcoming the coming guests, others are taking leave of us.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Hayman and scholarly daughters, Joan Sandra, and Lois Belle, have returned to their home in Providence, R. I.; W. L. McPhee and Lee McGee to St. John, N. B., and Wednesday, the MacIntosh car with our staunch and steadfast friends from Allston, Mass., were homeward bound.

While in the vicinity, Mr. and Mrs. James MacIntosh (Gertrude Morrison) were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hillary Morrison at "The Brickery".

That spacious and comfortable home of her girlhood associations had a special appeal for Mrs. McIntosh.

Annabel Goswell, a high school student in one of the Steel City's Convents where in their proficient way they inculcate by precept and example a respect for all the virtues, is the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. F. Bona at "The River".

The other day accompanied by her cousin, Louis Bona, she cycled to Seaview to see her other grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Goswell and thence around the angle to our house by the roadside.

We were surely glad to see Annabell who is now blossoming into womanhood.

A species of whooping cough with peculiar symptoms is at present epidemic among the Sporting Mountain children.

Arthur Morrison, River Tillard and Josephine Burke of Cannes motored up to see us Thursday evening.

We were glad to make the acquaintance of Miss Burke who is one of Mr. McLean's trustworthy staff at St. Peter's.

Alfred Boudreau and Roderick Fougere were motor visitors from Stirling Friday.

Regarding our trip to Isle Madame, it was a twofold motor party.

Mrs. Margaret Morrison, her daughters Mrs. Colin McIntosh and Mrs. Vitus Burke and grandson Dennis Joseph monopolized the McIntosh car with Mrs. McIntosh at the wheel and Petit de Grat their objective.

The quartet who invaded the Record room, of whom Mr. Kyte was the senior occupied the Morrison Pontiac.

Enroute we called to see Neil McIntosh a native son of Sporting Mountain and his good wife at the Ferry Bridge.

In the Shire Town it was nice to be courteously catered to by Miss Sutherland who obviously possesses the Sutherland technique of brewing good hot tea; nice, in the temporary absence of Mr. Doyle, to do business with the competent Misses Shaw and Terrio in the Municipal Office: and superlatively nice to once again enjoy for a space the congenial atmosphere of the Bourinot home.

We made two attempts to contact our esteemed old friend, J. A. Benoit, M. A. who in his professional capacities had occasion to bear with our infirmities as a student and a teacher, and though it was disappointing to learn that he had motored to Sydney, it was pleasing to know that the veteran educationist was keeping so well and active.

Repeats Baking Successes at 1952 Pictou Fair

With a fresh batch of awards for her prize-winning baking at the 1952 Pictou County Fair, Mrs. G. Arthur MacDonald is rated tops in turning out home-made bread.

Talking shop with her husband (he's a baker by trade!), Mrs. MacDonald attributes much of her success to her care in selecting ingredients. "Ingredients are so important," she says. "For instance, you have to use an extra-good yeast—one with plenty of pep and action—for the best results. I personally never use any yeast but Fleischmann's, because I know from experience how fast and peppy it is."

Right to the point! Across the Maritimes Fleischmann's Yeast is the favorite with prize-winning bakers because they've proved it's so dependable.

TRAVELLING MONEY

Today's traveller, before setting out, usually visits his bank. He will be buying travellers cheques or arranging a letter of credit. He may want letters of introduction, or information about foreign exchange. When you travel for business or pleasure, your local bank can help smooth the way.

Honored By St. F. X.

In our last issue we mentioned that two Richmond County clergy had received honorary degrees. However, we have been informed that another Richmond County clergyman, Rev. Charles Forrest, of St. Joseph's Parish, Petit de Grat had also received an honorary degree at the special convocation exercises held at St. F. X. recently

We join with Father Forrest's friends in congratulating him on the honor bestowed upon him in recognition of his services to his native province.

Radio Address Of A Great Leader

In his first national broadcast of the present election campaign, Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent said, "In this election we in Canada have the great responsibility of deciding for ourselves who should be entrusted with common national affairs for the next four or five years."

The Prime Minister went on to say that in troubled times such as these the government chosen would be called upon to determine whether there will be peace or war, continued prosperity or another depression.

"This," he said, "Is surely not a time to take needless risks with our own future."

"I made my first appeal to the people of our country as leader of the government in office four years ago. I want to repeat now a declaration I made in the opening broadcast of the campaign of 1949, I said then:

'Everywhere I go, whether the words I am speaking are in English or in French, I shall speak with one voice and make the same appeal. The Liberal party has no separate appeal for one section or one class; our policies are designed to benefit all Canadians in all parts of Canada. Our aim is a peaceful Canada in a peaceful world and I believe that is your aim.

'Our aim is a land of expanding prosperity and expanding opportunities and I believe that is your aim. Our aim is work for those who are able to work and security for the home and I believe that is your aim. Our aim is a strong and United Canada which will give full scope for the development of a free and vigorous people, and I believe that is also your aim.

"I believe the policies we have followed and the measures we have adopted have benefited Canadians in every walk of life and in every section of the country....""

Rt. Hon. Louis St. Laurent

I am appealing to you to renew the mandate you gave in 1949 to the government which I have the honour to lead. I am asking you once again to express your confidence in policies which have got results and your approval of accomplishments in which we all shared.

"I believe all of us want progress of Canada to continue, and to make sure it does continue we must make sure this country has a stable and forward-looking government.

"For the past four years, Canada has been a happy land in a not very happy world. But anyone who looks out on the world today can see there are apt to be difficulties ahead. And we shall need both wise foresight and experience in our government to overcome these difficulties.

"When I asked for your confidence in 1949 I said that we Liberals were not going to compete with other political parties in making empty promises and trying to arouse exaggerated hopes. The Liberal party believes that promises should be made only when they can be kept and we have a proud record of keeping our promises and carrying out policies. In 1949 I told you what our policies were.

"I would be happy to have anyone read the speeches I made in 1949 and compare what I said we would try to do with what has been done."

The Liberals say they can't cut your taxes!

the Main Issue in this election is YOUR MONEY!

WE CAN... WE WILL!

We will budget for Government's legitimate needs ... we will stop budgeting for bloated surpluses which—in three years—took from the people's pockets the staggering sum of $1,618,000,000 more than the Government needed.

We will end the shocking conditions in our Defence Department which the Government's own investigator, (Col. G. S. Currie) described as: "A general breakdown in the system of administration, supervision and accounting ... Accounting records in a chaotic condition and of little use in determining the nature and extent of irregularities ... Waste and inefficiency far more costly in loss than that covered by actual dishonesty".

We will, without impairing the efficiency of our Armed Forces, correct the appalling inefficiencies in the administration of the Department of National Defence.

We will provide the nation with an administration whose attitude towards the spending of public monies will be one of prudence and common sense. A new Government in itself will mean substantial savings to the taxpayer—it will replace a Government whose arrogant indifference to economy was best expressed by Mr. Howe's scornful remark, "What's a Million?". Or, "If they need a gold-plated piano it is our duty to buy it".

We will reduce or eliminate countless hidden, indirect taxes which grossly inflate the cost of consumer goods, add to the grievous cost of living, increase the price of homes beyond the capacity of most of our people to pay, discourage saving and initiative.

VOTE

We will reduce federal taxes by at least $500,000,000 a year ... without reducing any pensions, family allowances, or other social security payments.

$500,000,000 TAX CUT NOW!

Inserted by the Progressive Conservative Party of Canada.
