Sporting Mountain Echoes

Mrs Bella MacDougall, her daughters, Mrs. Hughie MacInnes (A. F.) Dundee; Mrs. John Campbell (Emma) and Mrs Alexander McLeod (Nellie, R. N.) both of Brookline, Mass., and granddaughter Norma Campbell, comprised a motor party to our house by the side of the road, Sunday afternoon, in the prime and pretty McInnes Pontiac.

Were we glad to see them? Well we had occasion to be.

Mrs. McDougall, who nurtured a worthy family at The Points in a period when family responsibilities were wholly parental responsibilities has been our good and respected friend for nigh three score years; and her trio of daughters was our trio of exemplary pupils in whom there was no guile through a trio of successful school terms.

Small wonder that in their years of mature discretion, old teachers and other school-day associates like to contact them.

Kenneth McLeod motored Mr. and Mrs J. J. McMillian (Elizabeth Grant) up from the Steel City, Sunday, to see Mr. and Mrs. John Goswell.

Alfred Boudreau motored Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Boudreau and Claire Burke to Stirling, Sunday, to visit their former neighbours Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pate and Mr. and Mrs Lloyd MacRae who have established little homes of their own at the Mindamar Mine and are doing well

Mr. J. H. Thibeau was up from Thibeauville Tuesday to make neighbourly visits at the Boudreau and Burke homes and dropped in to see us enroute home.

Mrs. Thibeau is always a welcome visitor to everybody's home because everybody is always welcome at the Thibeau home.

McDonald and Boudreau of Poulamon who operate the road grader have made an excellent job of the Sporting Mountain high ways.

Alfred Burke, dealer of Cannes, was on Sporting Mountain Thursday,

Alfred is an energetic and persistent salesman.

George Latimer, The Points, called upon his customers in Seaview, Saturday with a supply of fresh meat.
