Modern Equipment For C. P. R.

First of its kind in Canada is this new wheel truing machine now in operation at the new $1,000,000 diesel plant being completed by the Canadian Pacific Railway at Nelson, B. C. The unit, shown in operation here, permits diesel locomotive wheels to be machined without removing either the wheels or trucks from under the locomotive, and will be used in the servicing of diesel locomotives operating on the Kootenay-Kettle Valley divisions of the CPR in southern British Columbia. Its purpose is to restore by means of specially designed milling cutters the normal contour of the tread and flange of wheels worn by operation of locomotives over frequent, tight curves on the right of-way through mountainous territory.

Evening Along The Inlet

The last light lies in livid lines,
While sea-wind playing through the pines,
And soon will moondawn's beauty break.
To lend a lustre to the lake,
A bridge of burnished gold.

A sparkling sight to greet the gaze.
Of those inured to city ways,
Long in their prison pent;
Sequestered scenes no brush or quill,
Can quite depict nor ever will,
Fair shrine of sweet content.

OLD TIMER

Mrs. Celina Paon

Mrs. Celina Paon, a highly respected and life-long resident of Martinique passed away on Monday, August the 10th at the age of 85 years. Mrs. Paon had been in ill health for many years and was tenderly cared for by her devouted daughters, Misses Rose and Jennie Paon. Her husband predeceased her three years ago. Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Edgar Young, Halifax; Rose and Jennie at home; one son Walter at Martinique.

Funeral was held at the Immaculate Conception Church West Arichat, with Rev. Fr. A. Doucet, celebrant at Requiem High Mass.

The pallbearers were: Leo Briand, Poulamon; Elmer Young, of Boston, Mass.; Wilfred Boudreau; Godfrey Forgeron; Miller LeVandier and Gustave Fougere.

Acadian Congress At West Arichat Largely Attended

The Regional Congress of the Assumption Society was held at West Arichat over last week-end. The Congress opened at 3 p.m. on Saturday by the President, R. J. Chiasson, Inspector of Schools for Richmond County. The program for the Congress had been prepared by a Committee of six appointed a year ago at a similar Congress in Cheticamp and it was as follows:

R. J. Chiasson, President; Douglas Forgeron, Louisdale, Secretary; W. C. Boudreau, Sydney; Prof. Leo LeBlanc, St. F. X. University; Mr. J. D. J. AuCoin, Inspector Old Age Pension, Point Cross, Inverness County. This committee had drawn up a program for discussion by the delegates at the Congress. Discussion groups were formed at approximately 4.00 p.m., under a leader and secretary. These groups reformed after the supper period and continued the discussion till 9.00 p.m., at which time the discussion was carried on from the floor. It was encouraging to see a large number of teachers of the bilingual schools participating in the Congress and in the discussion groups most of the problems discussed were related to education, especially the problems of the bilingual school. The children of the parish under the direction of Mrs. Percy Jollymore and Miss Jeanette Gerroir, Primary Teacher who accompanied them at the piano, rendered four or five French Acadian Songs in a very commendable manner.

On Sunday morning, there was Communion at 8.00 in a body, and solemn High Mass at 10.30. The officers of the Mass were as follows: Celebrant: Very Rev. A. Poirier, P.P., West Arichat, Vicar Forain; Deacon, Rev. A. Doucet, P. P., West Arichat; Sub-Deacon, Rev. C. P. Gerrior, P. P., Louisdale; Master of Ceremonies, Rev. P. Baccardax, Seminarian. In a stirring sermon, Rev. Alderic Melanson, Chaplain of the Assumption Society, recalled to the faithful the special protection which the Acadian people received from their patron Saint, Our Lady of the Assumption, and he called on all to remain faithful to their language, faith and traditions.

In the afternoon a procession formed at the School where the ladies of the parish served a delicious meal, The order of the procession to the church was as follows: The Altar Boys, the Clergy, School Boys' dressed as Gabriels, School girls, dressed as Evangelines, the Society of Saint Joseph; the public. While the procession made its way to the church, the Rosary was recited from the steps of the church over a public address system by Rev. A. Poirier and A. J. Saulnier, Supervisor of Schools, Cheticamp. Honorary Chairman for the afternoon session was His Excellency, Bishop G. L. Landry, Pomquet. The speakers were Mr. Gilbert Finn, from the Head Office of the Assumption Society, Dr. J. G. Cormier, President of the Societe St. Pierre who also presented the chief Speaker, Mr. Emilien Rochette of Charlesbourg, Quebec, and Very Rev. A. Poirier, P.P., Arichat, and Regional Director of the Assumption Society. All thh speeches were of the highest order and in keeping with the occasion, the feast of Our Lady of the Assumption, the patron Saint of the Acadians. The meeting ended with the singing of the Hymn: Ave Maris Stella, national Hymn of the Acadians.

The church and the school was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The ladies of the parish served delicious meals on Saturday and Sunday to a large crowd. It is estimated that between 700 to 800 persons attended the ceremonies on Sunday.

NEW CONVENT OPENED

The Parish of West Arichat had also another event of special interest to the people when a convent was opened on Tuesday, by the Congregation of the Daughters of Jesus. The superior is Sister Marie St. Achilles, a sister of Mrs. E. C. Doyle of Arichat and her assistants are: St. Marie Emmanuel and Sister Lucius. There is much rejoicing in the parish over the coming of the Sisters and no doubt this will mark the beginning of a new era of progress in Education at West Arichat.

AUGUST 22, 1953

MRS. MURDOCK CAMPBELL

On Thursday morning August 6th there passed away at West Bay N. S., at the age of 74 years, Mrs. Murdock Campbell formerly Miss Belle MacKenzie of Oban in the County of Richmond, N. S.

In this and the surrounding community where she was so well and favourably known she resided for nearly half a century, being married in the autumn of 1903.

During her span of life she gave evidence on many occasions of admirable qualities of friendship, kindliness and the gems of a true Christian spirit which followed her closely to the end of the road of life's journey.

While it is true that she did not for some time past enjoy her usual good health still her sudden death caused grief to her many friends here and in other communities.

On Saturday afternoon ,August 8th the funeral service was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs Kenneth McDonald. the latter being a daughter of the departed friend.

All the services were conducted by Rev. R. Humby who spoke appropriate words of comfort and consolation to the mourners present basing his remarks on the 18th verse of Chapter XIV of St. John's Gospel "I will not leave you comfortless'.

The following hymns were suitably selected and sang vocally, The Sands of Time are Sinking; Safe in the Arms of Jesus and Abide With Me.

Burial took place in the cemetery at the Marshes where quite a number of people attended and also at the funeral service.

The husband of the departed friend predecased her over a year ago.

The members of the family who survive are three sons, Freeman, employed in the province of Ont. Angus R. and John M. at home; also two daughters, Mrs. Kenneth MacDonald of West Bay and Mrs. Ewen MacKinnon of West Bay Centre and a sister Mrs. John N. Morrison of Seaview, N. S.

To the near relatives and intimate friends of the departed one, the community extends sincere sympathy. E.H.McL.

Sporting Mountain Echoes

MRS. M. B. CAMPBELL

The remnant of her day and generation on her native Sporting Mountain was sorry for the passing of Mrs. M. B. Campbell (Mary Bell MacKenzie) at her home in West Bay on the morning of August sixth.

In the district of her adoption everybody on either side the county line who had occasion to know her was sorry too.

Indicative of that was the assemblage at the home of her son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs Kenneth MacDonald, Saturday afternoon to pay their last respects and the extended cortege of cars to the local cemetery on the spacious MacLeod farm at The Marshes.

In his original and impressive way Rev. R. Humby of the United Church in that area officiated at the home and in graveyard committal.

The sympathy of the countryside goes out to the bereaved family and only surviving sister Mrs. John N. Morrison of Seaview.

Mr and Mrs R. A. McFie motored up from Glace Bay Saturday to attend the obsequies of Mrs. McFie's aunt at West Bay.

Mrs. George Burns (Anna Goswell) arrived from London, Ont., during the week-end to relieve her sister. Mrs. K. MacLean of Halifax at their father's bedside.

Forbes McDonald R. N., and his sister Joy McDonald R. N., are motor visitors from California to the parental home at Port Hawkesbury and accompanied by their father D. R. McDonald were welcome visitors to friends in Oban and Seaview, Sunday.

It was pleasing to be privileged to a social hour with Inspector R. G. Sampson of the Old Age Pension Board when he and his son Carl had occasion to come to Seaview Friday.

Roy J. Morrison is down from Halifax to spend his vacation with his parents Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Morrison.

Through the courtesy of Arthur Morrison on election day we enjoyed a motor outing which took us through St. Peter's.

What with the new church, the new school-house and the various other new buildings, the old town is rapidly assuming a new look.
