FIFTY-SEVENTH YEAR | ARICHAT, CAPE BRETON, N. S., SEPTEMBER 26, 1953 | No. 4

River Bourgeois News and Sport

The parish of River Bourgeois was honored by the visit of Rev. Lloyd Robertson who was the celebrant at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass on September 20.

Fr. Robertson was ordained from Holy Heart Seminary, Halifax last year, and is now the assistant curate of St. Joseph's parish in the capital city.

During his stay at River Bourgeois Fr. Robertson was the guest of his granduncles William and Andrew Robertson and his grand aunt, Mrs. Virginia Burke.

His father Alexander Robertson who accompanied him is a native of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Firmin Burke, Natick, Mass., were visiting friends and relatives here over the week-end.

Mrs. Roy Trueman (Carrie Dugas) motored from her home in Spryfield, Halifax county, with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Swift of Halifax. Mrs. Swift is the former Josephine Burke. All were the guests of their respective parents.

A graceful yacht entered River Bourgeois harbor for an overnight visit. This yacht has been visiting scenic Cape Breton for the last fifty years. We learned this from Mrs. Couell, the owner's wife. We hope to see these tourists from Washington, D. C., for many years to come.

A large crowd on September 20, witnessed the fourth game of the finals on the River Bourgeois diamond as the L'Ardoise Ramblers defeated the River Bourgeois club by a score of 15-4.

The L'Ardoise team was strengthened by the pitching of Howie Samson who pitched six innings. He was then relieved by Lorenzo Samson who went the rest of the way.

Pitchers for the home team were Berard McPhee and Fred Digout who were kept in trouble by the heavy hitting of the Ramblers.

Two homers were hit during the game. One by Jerome Martell for the Ramblers and one by Russell Fougere of the R. B. nine.

This win tied up the series at two games each. The deciding game will be played September 27 on the L'Ardoise diamond.

May the best team win.

DO YOU KNOW . . .

. . . that the trend of business history in Nova Scotia suggests that the small sized business with well informed management has the best chance of success?

The Managers of all our secondary industries do not always have easy access to information that could sometimes assist in the solution of their many problems.

The Department of Trade and Industry feels that there is a need for assistance and, where necessary, provision of technical consulting services. Filling this need is part of the policy of the Department.

S. J. HANDFIELD-JONES

For the past few months field representatives of the Department of Trade and Industry have been at work getting acquainted with and offering assistance to the management of secondary industries.

The representative for Pictou, Antigonish, Guysboro, Richmond, Cape Breton, Victoria and Inverness Counties is Mr. S. J. Handfield-Jones. He is a graduate of Oxford University, and has been associated with the Department of Trade and Industry as an Economist since he came to Canada in 1951. He can be reached at the Department of Trade and Industry, Halifax, and visits the territory regularly.

RANDOM THOUGHTS

Who has not had a hankering now and then,
While wandering in a crowded city park;
To see the fall of gloaming in a glen,
Or lamplight's golden glimmer through the dark;
To hear the wild mad music in the gales,
To see the majestic maples all aflame;
Or hear the hush that hangs in leafy trails,
That lead to lonesome lakes without a name.

COLUMBUS BROUGHT ORANGE SEEDS TO HAITI

Orange seeds were brought to Haiti by Columbus on his second voyage, in 1493, says the October Reader's Digest. By the 16th century oranges were plentiful in Florida. The first sizable grove in California was planted by a Jesuit priest in 1804. Today Americans consume more oranges--about a pound a week per person--than all other fruits combined.

DANCE NOT NATIVE TO HAWAII

The hula dance is not native to Hawaii, according to an article in October Reader's Digest, but was brought there by the Tahitians when they conquered the Hawaiian Islands centuries ago. The hula of Hawaii today is a very mild version of the original hula of Tahiti --a traditional dance which missionaries have not been able to change.

Gaelic Singing Featured Service

FORCHU, Sept. 10—A feast of spiritual nourishment was enjoyed by the throngs gathered at Forchu on Sunday when Rev. Dr. J. D. N. MacDonald officiated at the observance of the Lord's Supper and preached forceful sermons in English and Gaelic.

The beautiful singing of appropriate hymns added much to the spirit of the occasion.

Of more than passing interest was the Gaelic singing. Mr. James R. Morrison of Sydney who was in charge of the latter was never heard to better advantage. He and Mr. Neil MacDonald shared the presenting of two psalms and two paraphrases assisted by a large number of Gaelic singers for which this part of Cape Breton is famous.

Mr. Morrison also included as his contribution in Gaelic "Jesus Keep Me Near the Cross" with the congregation joining in the chorus.

The thanks of the congregation was conveyed to Mr. Morrison for his highly appreciated contribution by the officiating pastor.

Some birds' body temperatures are as high as 110 degrees, says the October Reader's Digest. In others, the heart beats normally at the rate of 500 times a minute. A bird inhales air much more deeply than humans do, for its lungs are connected with additional air sacs some of which extend into the bones.

National Immunization Week--1953
SEPTEMBER 27th--OCTOBER 3rd.

Immunization prevents whooping cough, diphtheria and smallpox. Not too early to immunize—if your baby is six months or over he should be protected against diphtheria and whooping cough. These diseases are especially dangerous to very young children. Protect him by immunization.

Important for all ages—Don't put it off! Childhood years are danger years. You can prevent tragedy in your home by immunization against whooping cough, diphtheria and smallpox.

Is he still protected? Re-immunization against diphtheria and smallpox is necessary during childhood. Re-immunization may save your child's life.

Parents, take advantage of the service offered you by your family doctor or your local medical officer of health. Consult him about carrying out the necessary procedure. Don't delay. Do it now and give your children the necessary protection. This is your duty.

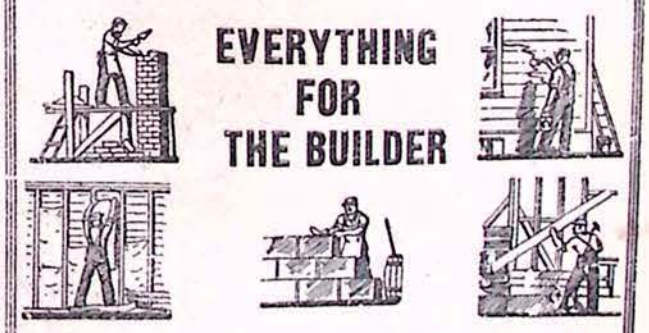

Many children's lives are still lost through neglect in not having had them properly immunized and protected.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Mrs. Hugh N. MacDonald, Grand Anse who passed away October 3rd, 1952.

Two dear bright eyes, a tender smile,
A loving heart that knew no guile.
Deep trust in God that all was right
Her joy to make some other bright
If sick or suffering one she knew
Some gentle act of love she'd do,
No thought of self, but of "the other",
I know He said, "Well done, dear Mother".

Always remembered by husband and family.

The harvesting of cranberries at the Duke of York Meadow is now in progress and Mr. J. J. Latimer the energetic proprietor informs us that he expects a good crop again this season.

Mr. Latimer has kept astride with these developments and has added new equipment to the meadow, however regardless of modern means of harvesting Mr. Latimer still employs a large number of pickers among them many old employees who hold the genial operator in the highest regard.

May our good friend Joss, be rewarded for his industry with a bountiful crop and a good market.

TIME IS Money

SAVE IT BY PLACING LONG DISTANCE CALLS BY NUMBER

If you want to turn your time into money, here's a suggestion: place your out-of-town calls BY NUMBER. That way, you get faster service than when you give the operator only the name and address of the person you are calling. And, as everyone knows, time is money.

It's a good idea to keep a list of the out-of-town numbers you have occasion to call, as well as the local numbers you most frequently call. A handy way to do this is to write them down on the first inside page of your telephone directory. Your local business office will be pleased to furnish any out-of-town numbers you may require.

During the week-end Forbes McDonald took leave of Cape Breton.

At Boston, Mass., he will be joined by his sister, Joy McDonald R. N., whence they will proceed across the continent to their home in Berkeley, California.

During his sojourn Forbes with his beautiful Buick was at the service gratis of his many friends who will wish him well until his anticipated return next year.

Prior to his going accompanied by his father, D. R. McDonald, of Port Hawkesbury he was a visitor to Sporting Mountain and his aunt Margaret McDonald accompanied him back to remain at The Strait indefinitely.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morrison of St. George's Channel and Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Morrison of St. Peter's comprised a motor party to Sporting Mountain Sunday and made neisbourly calls upon nearly all of their old friends in the vicinity.

He was accompanied by his grandfather, F. Bona of River Bourgeois.

Whilst enjoying a motor outing through the courtesy of Arthur Morrison of River Tillard, Friday evening we were privileged to visit two old firends, Mrs. Christena Ross (Christene McIntosh) and her brother Peter McIntosh.

We were glad to find both comparatively well and in good spirits.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stewart (Robena Morrison) are motor visitors to Cape Breton from their home in Boston, Mass.

Whilst in the vicinity they are guests of Mr. Stewart's sister and pretty and prepossessing daughter Margaret of Port Hawkesbury.

Tuesday the quartet were on Sporting Mountain and its precints where the senior trio contacted every survivor in the depleted ranks of their youthful associates and motored over the highways and byways once familiar to their feet.

It was meet and fitting that they were so warmly received generally.

JACKIE RAE

"Produced by Jackie Rae" has long been the signature for many of the CBC's top variety shows. Best known for his handling of the Wayne and Shuster show, he also master-minds many other mirth and melody progams such as Mr. Showbusiness, Holiday Inn, and Cables Concert Band. The 31-year-old producer can call on a wealth of experience; he was on the stage at the age of three and has been actively engaged in show business ever since. Turning his spare time to song-writing, Rae, with partner Lou Snider hit the jackpot a short time back with the popular ballad "Valley of the Saints."
