FIFTY-SEVENTH YEAR | ARICHAT, CAPE BRETON, N. S., OCTOBER 17, 1953 | No. 7

River Bourgeois

Funeral services were held on October 12 for Mrs. Charlotte Burke. Since her birth 88 years ago Mrs. Burke was a lifelong resident of this place. She is survived by three daughters Mrs. Willie Boyd, Mrs. Henry LeBlanc and Mrs. George DeWolfe; four sons Amable and Josime, of R. B. Bernie of Halifax and Alpin of Washington, D. C.

She is also survived by twenty-seven grandchildren and nineteen great-grandchildren.

Rev. F. Sampson officiated at the funeral Mass and at the grave.

We extend sympathy to the surviving relatives.

After spending two months visiting relatives and friends here Mrs. Mary Robertson left for New Glasgow to visit her sister, Mrs. Ella McDuff, prior to her departure for San Diego, Calif., where she resides with her daughter, Mrs Arthur Norwood.

Mary, who was always ready to lend a helping hand for any worthy cause will be greatly missed in the community.

We wish her a pleasant journey to the Sunshine State.

Mr. Hervey Boyd arrived home from Seven Islands, P. Q., to spend three weeks vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Boyd. Hervey is employed as resident engineer by the Q.N.S. and L. Railway

He was a valuable member of the baseball and hockey team, during the past years and his many friends are glad to see him.

Mrs. Pauline Bond is visiting her sister Mrs. Tom Pitts of New Glasgow.

We welcome into our midst Remi J. Chiasson M. A. and his bride the former Marie Celeste Surrette of Yarmouth, N. S.

Professor and Mrs. Chiasson are residing in Mr. Walter Fougere's house.

Mr. Alfred Richard suffered an injury to his hand and face while working at Fred Digout's lumber mill. Though not of a serious nature, these injuries were very painful.

Mr. John Fougere is demolishing the residence of the late Patrick Thibeau of Thibeauville. This humble dwelling was the birthplace of Professor Wilfred Thibeau. We are sorry to see this old landmark disappear with the times.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sampson of Watertown, Mass., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs D. A. Sampson.

The R. B. baseball team was tendered a banquet at the Cosy Corner restaurant, St. Peter's where a delicious turkey dinner was served to the ball players and several invited guests.

In the evening a dance was held in their honor.

Mr. Amos Thibeau our old time fiddler furnished the music. A grand time was enjoyed by all those present.

The baseball team wishes to thank Fr. Sampson for his interest and assistance in organizing and promoting baseball and much credit is due him for the success of the team.

Week-end visitors to River Bourgeois were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bouchard, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Holland, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Shupe, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Richard, Miss Edith Bouchard and Mr. Wally Archibald.

WEST ARICHAT

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Barron, and children, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Forgeron.

Miss Bertha LeBlanc spent a week's vacation visiting Mrs. Maud Dugas. Miss LeBlanc returned to the USA on Monday.

Mrs. Beatrice LeBlanc left for Montreal to spend the winter months.

Miss Zelia Forgeron arrived from the States and is a guest of her parents, Capt. and Mrs. Jeffrey Forgeron.

Adolph Forgeron has purchased a 1953 Austin car. Mr. and Mrs. Forgeron left for Port Hawkesbury where Mr. Forgeron is principal of the School there.

Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Forgeron and family were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Amedee Lavandier.

DO YOU KNOW . . .

S. J. HANDFIELD-JONES

that the trend of business history in Nova Scotia suggests that the small sized business with well informed management has the best chance of success?

The Managers of all our secondary industries do not always have easy access to information that could sometimes assist in the solution of their many problems.

The Department of Trade and Industry feels that there is a need for assistance and, where necessary, provision of technical consulting services. Filling this need is part of the policy of the Department.

For the past few months field representatives of the Department of Trade and Industry have been at work getting acquainted with and offering assistance to the management of secondary industries.

The representative for Pictou, Antigonish, Guysboro, Richmond, Cape Breton, Victoria and Inverness Counties is Mr. S. J. Handfield-Jones. He is a graduate of Oxford University, and has been associated with the Department of Trade and Industry as an Economist since he came to Canada in 1951. He can be reached at the Department of Trade and Industry, Halifax, and visits the territory regularly.

C. L. LEONARD

Sporting Mountain is close to the centre of the widespread circle that mourns the tragic passing of Creighton Leonard.

Everybody who had occasion to know "Creight" has occasion to be sorry and the sympathy of all goes out as a unit to the bereaved widow and likeable family in their sad affliction.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Gray and son Jackie of Gabarus, accompanied by Mrs. K. D. MacKillop, Ferguson's Lake and Mrs. Daniel McKillop, Grand River, comprised a Sunday motor party to our little house by the side of the road.

Though a trickle of Sporting Mountain blood warms their veins we never had the pleasure of meeting these prepossessing people before.

We went with them over the top of Sporting Mountain to locate the various places their forebears had established homes, and succeeded in finding for one (in the wild woods) the cellar under the house in which her mother had been nurtured to adult life.

Thence they went to see the Government Fish Hatchery at River Tillard.

Mr. and Mrs. K. McLean (Eva Goswell) and daughter Bernadette were holiday week-end visitors from Halifax at the Goswell home.

Jas. A. Goswell took advantage of their presence to visit North Sydney where he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McLeod and family.

Marquerite McLeod who is one of the Grade XI class in the Provincial Normal College returned with him and through the courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. McLean took passage to Truro in their magnificent "Meteor" when enroute to their home in the metropolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Shute of Dartmouth, N. S., are guests of Mrs. Shute's parents, Mr and Mrs Isaac Burke of Cannes

"Les" and Arthur Morrison were up to Sporting Mountain, Thanksgiving Day and had fur success.

We regret to report that John A. McPhail is again a patient in the City Hospital, Sydney.

CREIGHTON R. LEONARD

On Wednesday evening October 7th there occurred an accident, a calamity and tragedy on the public highway at North Judique in the County of Inverness, N. S. which resulted immediately by the impact of a car and road roller) in the death of Creighton R. Leonard a native and resident of West Bay at the age of 65 years.

It is really difficult to describe in words, phrases and sentences or picture out by the imagination the tremendous shock the sad, sudden and unexpected news gave to his partner in life together with all the members of the family at home and abroad and also the dark cloud which hung over not only the community of West Bay but much beyond its bounds and limits. Hence: how very little we as human individuals do know when the "angel of death" may be in the path of life's journey.

The victim of the accident was a veteran of World War I rendering active service in the overseas sphere and returning to Canada after the conclusion of that memorable conflict. He was subsequently employed in the city of Halifax.

For a number of years he acted in the capacity of Elder in the West Bay Congregation and was also a prominent factor in the Church Choir at Black River.

His first wife, formerly Miss Ella Ferguson, of Cleveland, N. S. predeceased him 24 years ago. In that family there were four boys, that is, Herbert N., Alexander, Walter and Lloyd.

He was married in 1929 to Miss Annie Mae MacMillan of The Points, West Bay who still survives; also in this family there were three daughters and six sons that is, Jean, Minnie Alice and Frances. The six boys are Ross, Mitchell, C. R., Lawrence, Ewen and Donald.

On Saturday afternoon, October 10th the funeral service was held in the Hall at West Bay, there being so many present from far and near that there was not sufficient seating capacity in the Hall to accommodate them.

The service was conducted by Rev. R. Humby ably assisted by Rev. Clark MacDonald of Port Hawkesbury.

On request Rev. Mr. Humby sang beautifully one of the old familiar Gospel Hymns, "Sweet Hour of Prayer" which brought so vividly to one's memory the early days in which that same sacred hymn was rendered with such charming melody in the Kempt Road School house when two religious meetings were held there on the Sabbath Day.

In the funeral service the presiding Minister based his remarks on Chapter XI St. John's Gospel, Verse 26 in words as follows: "And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die".

In this connection words of hope and comfort were spoken to the mourners present together with paying tribute to the qualities of kindness and the devotion of the departed friend to his various duties and obligations in the work of the Church.

The following hymns were appropriately selected "The Lord's My Shepherd" "What a Friend We Have in Jesus" and "Come Let us Sing of a Wonderful Love". Mrs. A. A. MacInnis acting in the capacity of organist.

Burial took place in the family plot in the Cemetery at West Bay.

To the partner in life whose "heart feels crushed as if in the closing of its portal" at the loss of a devoted husband. To each member of both families who now mourn the absence of a kind parent. To the three sisters and one brother who survive, the community extends sincere and heartfelt sympathy in their deep sorrow and sad bereavement.

Wedding

DAVID — SAMSON

One of the prettiest fall weddings this year took place in St. Patrick's Church, Petit de Grat, when Rev. Fr. Forest united in marriage Elandine Samson and Amedee David of that place.

The bride looked charming in a floor length dress of nylon net over satin and lace yoke with long sleeves tapering to points over the wrists. Her shoulder length veil was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of white and pink roses with satin streamers.

The bridesmaids were Miss Jacqueline Samson and Miss Ethel David. Both wore gowns of nylon net over taffeta and carried bouquets of yellow and pink roses. Miss Samson wore yellow and Miss David wore lilac.

Vernie Poudreau and Cornelius Marchand supported the groom.

The wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents for immediate relatives. In the evening a reception and supper was held at the home of the groom's parents to a large number of invited guests.

Mr. and Mrs. David will reside at Petit de Grat were the groom built a new home.

We wish the young couple a long and happy wedded life.
