FIFTY-SEVENTH YEAR | ARICHAT, CAPE BRETON, N. S., AUGUST 14, 1954 | No. 50

Sporting Mountain Echoes

Mr. and Mrs. John Goswell have eventually taken final leave of their native Seaview and the old home in which they so agreeably shared the obligations of life for upwards of fifty years.

Henceforth they will reside with their son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. K. McLean of Halifax who with Mrs. Kerr of Kentville motored to Seaview during the week-end.

Mrs. Goswell accompanied them back but it was necessary for Lawrence Burke and Wilfred Bouchard to convert Mr. Burke's panel Ford into a temporary ambulance to accommodate and convey Mr. Goswell.

We hope the evening of life will be long and extended for our old neighbours, and have occasion to feel they will never lack for the kindly ministrations of Kennie and Eva.

Mrs. Alexander McDonald and daughter, Alice, of East Bridgewater, Mass., are motor visitors to friends and family connections in Cape Breton.

Mrs. Amelia Bannister accompanied them from Portland, Me., and is the guest of her sister Mrs. Sarah MacAulay, at the Points.

It was nice to have an extended visit from Mrs. McDonald and her mother, Mrs D. A. Morrison of St. Peters on Wednesday

It was nice too to be favored the same afternoon with a motor quartet comprising Daniel MacDougall, Brookline, Mass, Calder MacDougall, Grand Anse; Lawrence MacDougall, Sydney; and Harvey Salstein.

If we were most glad to see Daniel, it was because we had occasion to see each other but once through all the years that have intervened since he was one of our bright pupils in The Points School.

We extend sympathy to Mrs. Lloyd MacRae of Stirling upon the recent death of her father, Mr. Stockley, of Ingonish.

During their various visits to Seaview the senior Mr. and Mrs. Stockley made a good impression and were well regarded by all who made their acquaintance.

Lancaster Man Wins Road Race at Moncton

Lanaster's Joe Richard and the host Moncton Olyympic Club shared the spotlight recently as the first edition of the Moncton Olympics was staged on the High School Athletic Field.

Richard, the veteran distance runner, scored a new triumph in defeating a classy field of sprinters from all parts of the province (N.B.) in the featured three-mile road race, a senior open event.

The Moncton Olympic Club pcled 81 points in the track and field competition to take top team honors. The Fredericton aggregation was second with 78 points, followed by St. Stephen with 74.

Six divisions were contested: N. B. junior and midget champion ships for women and girls, and senior open events (non-championships) for men and women.

In the road race two Minto youngsters, under the tutorship of Frank Phillips, a middle distance star who has chosen to vacate active competition, showed exceptionally well. They were Fred and Hans Schatz.

The 440 final was won by L. Robinson of Bridgetown who just managed to shade Warren Lutes of the Moncton Club. Also in evidence was the high jumping of H. McCready from Strasbourg, Ontario. He was unattached.

Bill Keheler, Moncton track coach, gave an exhibition of pole vaulting, clearing 11 feet to give the crowd a genuine thrill.

Diane Johnstone, Moncton, won both the shot put and javelin in the senior women's events, Doady Armstrong, Bathurst, came thrcugh with a 67-foot toss in the discus to cop senior honors.

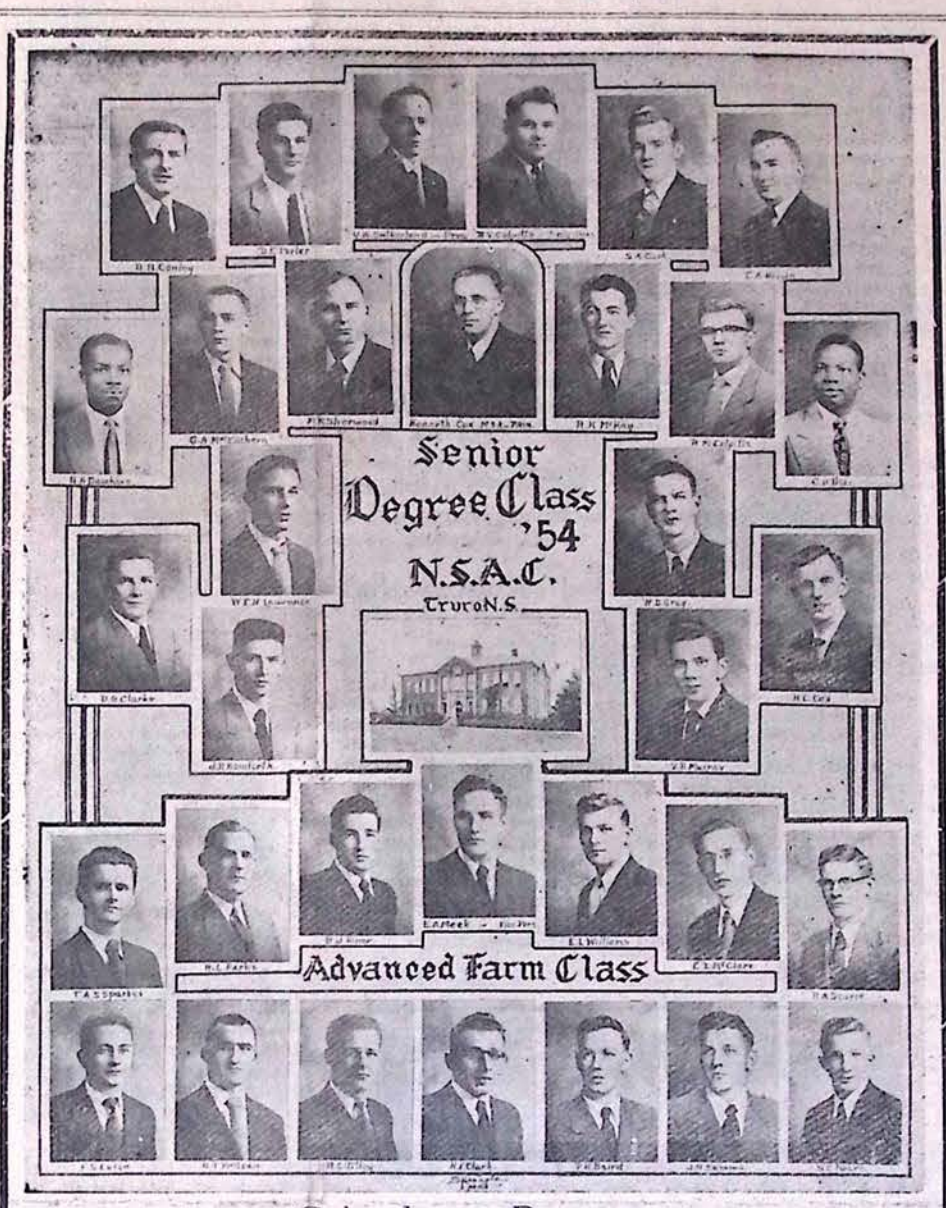

(Joe Richard the winner in the road race, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Richard of Arichat and is becoming a prominent Maritime runner, having won in several meets during the past few years. Joe finished 39th in the Boston Marathon, in a field of 150 enteries.

We are watching Joe and look forward to more wins from this plucky little runner.—Editor.)

Get away from the crowd when you can. Keep yourself to yourself, if only for a few hours daily.

Tribute

Away with mourning, dry your eyes,
There's dust alone at Barra Head;
His spirit marches down the skies,
For Jack the Piper's never dead,
While there's a strathspey or a reel,
That blends with music of the rills
As evening comes and shadows steal
Across the old Cape Breton hills.

OLD TIMER

—:o:—

Roy Stewart

The death occurred Sunday morning at his late residence, St. Peter's of Roy G. Stewart, 63, widely known and highly esteemed citizen of Richmond County.

He was born at St. Peter's and except for service overseas during the First World War, was a lifelong resident.

For over 20 years he had served as post master at the local post office, a position that he filled in his inimitable cheerful, obliging and friendly manner.

A leading citizen of his community, he was a member of the Masonic Lodge, The Independent Order of Oddfellows, the Canadian Legion and the Home and School Association. He was on the School Board and an Elder of the St Peter's United Church.

His death followed a short illness and his passing will be learned with deep regret by all who were fortunate enough to have known him.

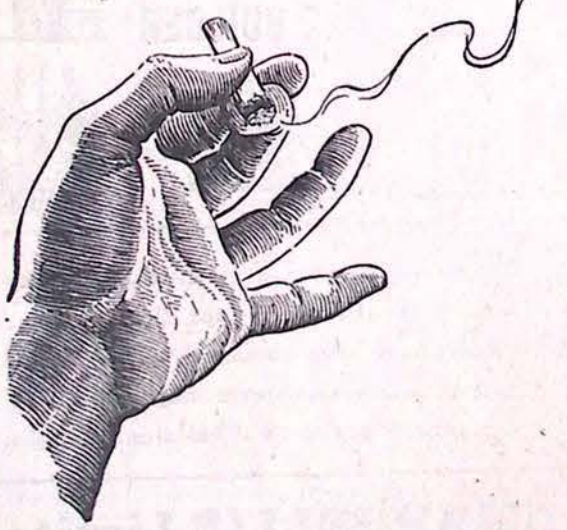

He is survived by his wife and the folowing daughters: Donna, (Mrs. Fred A. Thurgood) in Calgary; Iscoe, R. N., in Calgary; Mary Lou R. N. (Mrs. Douglas Morris) in Dominion, Beverley at home; and one son Ken in Sydney, Also brothers, Walter in California, Gordon in New York and stepbrother, John A. in Bridgewater. Several grandchildren also survive.

The funeral was held from St. Peter's United Church at 2.30 p.m Wednesday, August 11th. Interment in St. Peter's Cemetery.

The Record joins in extending heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved wife and family.

A tribute to the memory of the late Roy Stewart, written by "Robin Hood", will appear in the next issue of the Record.

They're Still Doing It

Yes — but don't follow their bad example when in the woods. Don't smoke on the trail — break your matches and stub your smokes before throwing away — and douse your camp fires. Then you'll NEVER start a forest fire!

The Concert which was staged at West Bay Hall on Monday eve., July 26th, under the direction of Mrs. Alex (Rosemary) Sinclair, of Melrose, Mass., was enjoyed by a large audience and as many more, seeking admission, were refused tickets, due to the overcrowded hall.

The program featured, bapgipes violin and vocal selections, step-dancing and moving pictures showing a variety of local scenes by J. J. Russo. There was also a mock milling frolic with gaelic singing.

The concert was organized in short time during Mrs. Sinclair's vacation at Dundee and she is to be commended for her effort to raise funds for the Church.

Proceeds netted $186.00 which will be used for Black River United Church.

The electrical storm on Monday night August 2nd was the heaviest witnessed in this area for some time. Power was cut off early in the night and was brought on at 9 a.m. Heavy rains are hampering haymaking and a loss is predicted with many farmers.

Mr and Mrs. Alex MacLeod and Mrs Christene MacKenzie of Brookline, Mass. who arrived at The Points on Sunday, August 1, are visiting friends in Framboise.

Mrs . Katherine Patriquin of Milton , Mass., paid us a visit while on her annual trip to Cape Breton. Everyone is always happy to see the attractive and pleasant Katherine.

We were exceptionally glad for the brief call from Miss Jean Roach of Truro. Jean holds a secretarial position with Simpson-Sears Ltd., and is vacationing with friends at St. George's Channel.

Miss Euphemia MacCuish of Brookline, Mass., was a week-end guest of Mrs. John N. and Norma Campbell.

This is the Town of Truro

By Willanna Archibald

Truro, situated as it is in the hub of the Province of Nova Scotia, is a town with many places of beauty and interest in natural scenery, extending from the River on the north, to the base line on the south, high on the hills. The older part, built many years ago, on the lower level nearer the river has long straight streets of royal names, such as Queen, Prince, Victoria, Duke and so on.

In earlier days the folk looked to the future and while building large substantial houses, they also planted many trees along the streets as well as on their grounds. Now these maples and elms tower far above the homes in their stately beauty, reminding one so often of the "handiwork of God" in making such wondrous trees.

In the newer development, the houses are being built in a later style and they too, with completion of landscaping and tree planting will be genuine assets to the beauty and homelike appearance of the town.

There are areas for long distance sight seeing at the top of such streets as Pleasant and Young. But the high spot, par excellence, is at the top of Ward St. known as Wollaston Heights. Here the view takes in the winding river with the picturesque bank on the farther side in varied colors.

Beyond is the College Buildings and campus where many sons from the farm are taught the real science of the proper use of the land.. This College is affiliated with such colleges as Guelph, McDonald, Cornell and others. So the student may, if he wishes, after two years here go along and obtain his degree and so on according to his ambition.

There in "history brimming" Bible Hill, far and beyond, are the tree covered hills and cultivated fields and farm houses all forming a delightful picture extending from East Mountain to the Basin of Minas, rivaling the view Blomidon or even Green Hill, but no tower is needed here as the place is high enough to see it all while standing on the ground.

The town is well supplied with churches of many beliefs and denominations. Along Prince Street going from East to West are the First Baptist, St. John Anglican, St. James Presbyterian, First United, Immaculate Conception, Immanuel Baptist, The People's Church and Zion Baptist. There are other churches at other parts of the town: The First United is the oldest former Presbyterian Congregation in Canada.

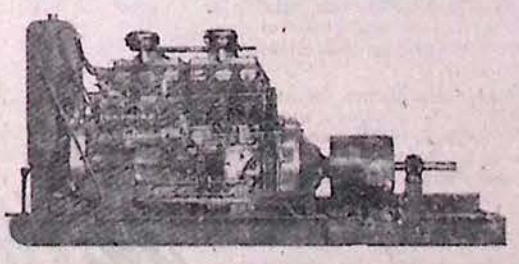

The Education for the younger generation is well looked after. Schools, ranging from Kindergarten to High including Grade Twelve. All children are instructed by a fine staff of most efficient teachers.

The Provincial Normal College is conveniently located in the centre of town, where hundreds of future teachers (very many of them coming from the "Isle of Cape Breton") graduate annually and carry on their profession all over the Province.

The Victoria Park, entered by way of Brunswick Street is an amazing place for natural beauty. Here the roads wind along beside the brook at the foot of two very high banks, well wooded, where at many places steps lead to the top of the cliffs. One set, known as "Jacob's Ladder" has 125 steps, and has rustic seats cleverly placed at the foot and at the top of the steps.

There are many rustic seats, tables, barbecues and even "The Holy Well" all inviting people to picnic in this most charming "Picnic Dell".

Beyond the end of the road and parking area are two falls known as the 'Joe Howe" and the Waddel Falls. Here from the three-lane bridge above known as the observation platform the visitor can see the water rushing over the rocky cliffs looking like a miniature Niagara.

At the Park entrance is the public playground, financed by the Kinsmen's Club where hundreds of children spend so many happy hours, under supervision, during the holiday season.

Nearby are two monuments, one to the memory of the Hon. A. G. Archibald, a noted citizen of earlier days; and the other in memory of James Ross whose "brainwave" saw the possibilities of assisting nature in making it an interesting place to rest and feast the eye as well.

Truro's water supply consists of a large reservoir and five artesian wells. So if the former fails in supply the wells are ready to take over at the press of a button and three of them can supply the town with the purest of water over a long period of years.

Very rich farming districts surround the town on every side and farming is carried on extensively. An abundance of milk is brought in daily to the Borden Condensed Milk Co., Brookfield Creamery and other individual milk dealers.

There are many cabins and tourist homes in and around Truro where the stranger is always welcomed and cared for.

Recently a new information bureau has been erected in the centre of Victoria Square where two obliging clerks give out information, both written and verbal, to the numerous tourists, showing how the town is entered from the four quarters of the compass and wishing them "Godspeed" as they depart, with the sincere wish "Will ye no come back again?"
