FOUGERE — LANDRY

A pretty wedding of interest took place at St. Joseph's Church, Petit de Grat, when Rev. Fr. Forest united in marriage Irene Landry and Norman Fougere of this place.

The bride looked lovely in a street length dress of nylon net over satin. The gown had a fitted bodice of chantilly lace trimmed with seed pearls, tiny satin buttons down to the waist, long lace sleeves tapering over the hands. Her long veil of tulle illusion was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of red carnations, with satin streamers. She wore white accessories.

The Misses Valerie Boudreau and Evangeline Meunier were bridesmaids. Miss Boudreau wore a blue street length dress of silk taffeta, shoulder length veil held in place by a headdress of flowers, and carried a bouquet of mixed flowers. She wore white accessories.

Miss Meunier wore a street length gown of sky blue silk crepe, choulder length veil held in place by a headdress of flowers. She carried a bouquet of pink flowers with satin streamers. She wore

Sporting Mountain Echoes

Everybody had occasion to be sorry for the sudden and untimely passing of the unpretentious Roy Stewart.

A worthy son of St. Peter's, he was ever a component part of his home towns composition and a prominent factor in the product of its progress, and with all due deference to its good citizens generally, St. Peters could ill afford to lose a Roy Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Canning, of the Steel City with a quartet of their pretty daughters, and Mr. and Mrs. Neil Sutherland of Sydney River with a quartet of their equally pretty little girls, were welcome visitors to Seaview on Sunday.

Here the motor party was reorganized and we accompanied them to see the Canso Causeway.

We imagined it would require the entire mountain for the big undertaking, but while the projection is nigh across there is still only a scar on the face of Porcupine.

Particularly desirous to see Mrs. Amelia Bannister ere she returned to her home in Portland, Maine, we had Alfred Boudreau make a detour over the shore route returning from St. Peters, Wednesday evening.

At Roberta we made a brief call at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Morrison, where Mrs. Morrison's father, the veteran Alex McLeod is restricted to a wheel chair in consequence of a fall on the ice; and to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Ross where Jack Ross is similarly handicapped.

Our final call was at the Mc Auley home where we enjoyed a pleasing social evening, with Mrs. McAuley and her sister, Mrs. Banister.

Arthur Pate has returned to Halifax to resume his position with the C. N. R., after spending a two week's vacation with Mrs. Pate and family who are summering in their cottage at Hawker.

While in the vicinity Mr. and Mrs. Pate and family motored to Seaview and made friendly calls at the Boudreau and Burke homes and our house by the side of the road.

Arthur Morrison, River Tillard, and Josephine Burke, Cannes, were recent motor visitors to Sporting Mountain and went to view the Seaview Falls.

What with her kindly nature and prepossessing personality, Miss Burke is now numbered among the welcome visitors to Seaview.

Arthur Fougere was a week-end motor visitor from Sterling.

He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pate.

Mrs. Ernest MacNeil, of Barra Head was a week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Boudreau.

Margaret MacDonald was numbered in the motor party to The Strait Sunday, and thus all visited at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. MacDonald.

A TRIBUTE

By Robin Hood

In the passing of Postmaster Roy Stewart, of this place we have lost one of our most highly esteemed citizens.

A man of quiet and pleasing disposition, Roy Stewart was always ready to help in any worthwhile undertaking for the betterment of this community.

Active in church and school affairs and the part he played in both was outstanding and gained for him the highest respect of his many friends.

A veteran of World War 1, he always enjoyed meeting old comrades, and in his quiet and unassuming manner would relate amusing and interesting experiences.

For some years he served as Postmaster in this town, and was a very efficient official. Only last year the comfort and convenience of a modern Post Office was planned by the Postal Department and housed in the building owned by Mrs. Hill. People of the town besides being glad that the new Post Office would serve them better, were also glad that their worthy Postmaster could enjoy the same privileges of larger Post Offices.

The largely attended funeral of the late Roy Stewart, was ample proof of the esteem held for this man who had lived here during his lifetime and was so closely connected to the affairs of the community.

We extend our condolence to the widow and chidren of the deceased in their great and sad bereavement.

In Appreciation

At a Parochial meeting of St. Hyacinth's Parich held on July 27, the following resolution of Thanks was unanimously adopted:-

"Moved by Mr. H. E. MacDonald, seconded by Rev. Father W. A. Boucher, that a "Vote of Thanks," be extended to all who so diligently assisted in fighting the fire which gutted St. Hyacinth's Parish Church and also private dwelling.

To the Port Hawkesbury Fire Dept., the Arichat Fire Dept., the Chief Forest Ranger and his assistants and also to Mr. Charles Gordon, manager of Booth Ficheries, of Petit de Grat, who made it possible for employees of Booth Fisheries to assist with their fire-fighting equipment. But for the assistance of all three the Parish might have suffered a greater loss.

W. A. Urquhart Of West Bay

William A. Urquhart, a prominent and well known, West Bay farmer, who passed away at his home early Monday morning the 16th. inst. came as a great shock to his family and friends throughout Cape Breton Island.

The late William Urquhart, was an industrious man, and although retired from active farming for the past few years, he still took an interest about the farm and his wide experience in agriculture, was often passed on to fellow farmers.

To appreciate the friendship and kindness of the late William Urquhart, one had to visit his hospitable home where kindness was always displayed in full measure by himself and his devoted wife.

For many years Mr. Urquhart was the efficient President of The Richmond County Liberal Association. A son Earl W. Urquhart, is M. L. A. for Richmond County.

The large display of floral offerings from relatives and close friends of the deceased, manifested to the esteem in which late Mr. Urquhart was held.

The funeral which took place from the West Bay United Church, was one of the largest attended in the County, Mr. Urquhart was an active worker in the congregation of West Bay.

He was a staunch friend of the late editor of the Record, and that friendship was extended to us, and we, too, are happier for having made the acquaintance of the departed but not forgotten William Urquhart.

The Pastor, Rev. Humby, paid tribute to the deceased in a fitting address, where he touched on his many fine qualities as a citizen and neighbour.

He is survived by his widow and four sons, Earl M. L. A., Donald, West Bay; Neil, Sydney and William of the Sydney Police Department.

Two brothers, Henry, Manager of the Commission Store, Dominion Fred, in Detriot; two sisters, Mrs. J. S. MacKinnon, (Gladys), West Bay; Muriel in West Roxbury, Mass. An uncle, George Urquhart resides in Detriot.

To Mrs. Urquhart, her family and relatives, we extend our heartfelt sympathy.

NOVA SCOTIA COAL — THE THRIFTY FUEL

No. 1 B Bankhead
Cape Breton

A Consumer Speaks

I am interested in seeing the success of such a campaign principally due to the satisfaction that I have received. This satisfaction has not only been gained by heat comfort, but also from the economical standpoint.

Within this town are several resident owners who at one time installed oil, found this system too costly and returned to utilizing coal with an up-to-date stoker system. These are only some ideas that could be used to show Nova Scotians that coal can still serve their best interests in heating their homes satisfactorily and economically.

This letter, wholly unsolicited, is full proof that Nova Scotia coal does give more comfort for less money.
