Yarns Spun On The Old Spinning Wheel

Norman L. MacLeod,
Sea View Hospital (Wd. 83)
Staten Island, N. Y.

The Glenville Democrat, a weekly newspaper published at Glenville, W. Va., went to press one week last November with a front page bearing only the masthead and an embarrassed explanation to readers:

"It only happens once in a lifetime, but it does happen," the paper explained in a two-column box smack in the middle of the page. "We had all the paper made up and ready to go to press at 3 p.m. Wednesday.

"Eroute from the make-up stone to the press we pied the whole front page. That means that all the type, cuts, cutlines, heads, leads, slugs and so forth fell in a jumbled mass.

"Well, that's all. Just a jumbled mass of slugs We couldn't put them together in less than a day with the whole force working and then stories wouldn't come out right.

"So here we are with almost a blank page one."

The above clipping is from the Boston Sunday Herald of November 12 last, sent to me by Mrs. Margaret Bates, whom many in St. Peters will remember as Mary Margaret MacDonald. Commenting on the item she asked me if it rang a bell in my belfry. Then she reminded me of a somewhat similar incident that happened in the Gazette Office when the staff was comprised of Etta Sullivan, Margaret, Billie Hamilton and myself.

In those days one of the most popular commercial travelers in the province who made seasonal visits to St. Peter's was Dan MacDonald, who represented the Amherst Boot and Shoe Co. He was familiarly known as "Amherst Dan" For many years he worked solely on a commission basis, refusing a salary. It was said that some years he made more than some of the executives of the firm.

During one of his visits to St. Peters he dropped into the Gazette office one evening in order to accompany Etta Sullivan to the Morrison Hotel where they were each staying. It happened to be on the eve of publication day and the forms were on the make-up stone needing only to be justified and locked before being transferred to the press.

If Dan was not telling one of his anecdotes of which he had quite a fund, he would be doing the first thing that would come to his mind which did not always end well, and this happened to be one of those times. Approaching the stone under the impression that the forms were locked he grasped the corner of one and raised it high enough to pi a section of the page before he was stopped. Unlike the Glenville Democrat we had individual letters to cope with while they had slugs. (In case I am getting too technical let me explain that today news matter is set by machine, each line being cast in a solid slug while in the old days type was set by hand, each line being made up of single letters). This gave us a worse mess to straighten than they had in Glenville.

While we all realized the damage done none fet worse than Dan, and he did everything he could to atone for his shenanigans. We all stuck by the ship that night until we had it all reset, the paper coming out next day as usual. Dan brought in everybody's dinner (in those days we called it supper) Next day he had the girls visit his sample room and each pick out a pair of shoes which they received in due time through D. Y. Stewart's shipment.

I don't remember that part about the shoes, but in her letter to me Margaret said: "Mine, I remember so well were high buttoned patent leather with cloth tops flecked with white, very ritzy. I don't ermember whether you and Billie got anything out of it. You did a lot of the work." Oh well! It has always been so. The girls got the shoes and the boys got the boot. However I am not sure we were not left out as Dan was not the type that would ignore us.

In the words of John Cameron Swayze, news commentator, "that's the story folks. I'm glad we could get together."

• • •

Thank you, Margaret, for giving me the stimulus to spin the Old Wheel this week, and consider this an answer to your letter, and I hope my other friends will accept it as replying to them. Three years ago I used to spin the Wheel every week besides answering your letters, and enjoyed doing it. Now the Old Wheel has so many creaks that it takes weeks to get it spinning. However, in this way you hear from me, and it is only through your cards and letters that I can hear from you.

Yippee! DOUGHNUT TWISTS

Raised light and tender with new Active Dry Yeast!

• There's a new twist in doughnuts—a new thrill in all your baking! Say goodbye to perishable yeast—Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast keeps full-strength until you use it—fast-acting when you use it. Get a dozen packages—it keeps in your cupboard!

DOUGHNUT TWISTS

• Scald ½ c. milk, ½ c. granulated sugar, 1½ tsps. salt and ½ c. shortening; cool to lukewarm. Meanwhile, measure into a large bowl ½ c. lukewarm water, 1 tsp. granulated sugar; stir until sugar is dissolved. Sprinkle with 1 envelope Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast. Let stand 10 minutes, THEN stir well.

Add cooled milk mixture and stir in 2 well-beaten eggs and 1 tsp. vanilla. Stir in 2 c. once-sifted bread flour; beat until smooth. Work in 2¼ c. (about) once-sifted bread flour. Knead on lightly-floured board until smooth and elastic. Place in greased bowl and grease top of dough. Cover and set in a warm place, free from draught. Let rise until doubled in bulk. Punch down dough and roll out into a rectangle, ½" thick; loosen dough; roll again to ½" thickness. Cut into strips 7" long and ½" wide. Fold strips in half, twist, then pinch ends together. Arrange, well apart, on lightly-floured cookie sheets; grease tops. Cover and let rise until doubled in bulk. Carefully lift, a few at a time, into shortening that has been heated to 365° — hot enough to brown a cube of day-old bread in 60 seconds. When under-sides are browned, turn and cook second sides. Carefully lift from fat and drain on absorbent paper. Coat with a mixture of fruit sugar and cinnamon or brush hot doughnuts with the following syrup: Heat, stirring until the sugar dissolves, 1 c. granulated sugar, ¼ c. butter or margarine and ¼ c. water; simmer 5 mins.; then stir in 1 tsp. vanilla; keep hot over boiling water — if syrup becomes too sugary, stir in a little boiling water and heat to boiling point. Yield — 3 dozen doughnuts.

Note: Dough may be cut with an orthodox doughnut cutter; fry the doughnuts and the "holes".

Sporting Mountain Echoes

Date of writing is April 14th, the date on which we first saw the light seventy-five years ago, and we have occasion to be thankful that we are still spared and thus privileged to enjoy another spring season with its bird song and beauty and bloom.

After attending Mass at St. John te Baptist Church, Mr. and Mrs. Leonel LeBlanc motored to Port Hawkesbury where they were Easter Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Bissonnette.

Our popular teacher Lucille Martell, is spending the holidays at her home in Little Anse.

D. J. Ferguson who spent the winter months at St. Peter's returned to spend the summer months in the old home on the summit of Sporting Mountain.

Adrian Verhagen presented us with generous hunk of home-cured smoked ham the other day.

We appreciated this friendly gesture on the part of our new neighborly neighbor down on the Goswell estate.

Mr. LeBlanc had Alex MacPhee up from Cannes during the week to do some choice mechanical work.

Sandra and Leona McLennan of Oban spent part of their Easter holidays in Seaview, the former with Clare Burke and the latter with Alice LeBlanc.

We are in receipt of a letter from Saanichton, B. C, signed W. D. (Bill) MacLeod who wrote to enquire if it was the DAS of Sporting Mountain Echoes who taught him Grade IX work at Kemtp Road in 1910.

Yes, Bill, and you were one of the exceedingly clever pupils who ocasionally make teachers feel sensible of their own deficiencies.

The Cancer Month Drive

The success of the long and often discouraing search for some vaccine or treatment which would control infantile paralysis, should give encouragement to discover the cause of cancer and its control.

In search of the protective against polio, teams of scientists from every country played a part. One remembers the furore of the Nurse Kenney Methods of treatment and the controversey over its efficiency.

Reading the reports of the Salk vaccine and its discovery one learns that the scientists engaged on polio research are for the most part also engaged on cancer research.

Part, in fact a major part, of the funds available for polio research came from the March of Dimes, just as the funds for cancer research come from the contributions made each April, which is Cancer Month.

Against all the discouragements the March of Dimes has now reached its goal. Not that there will be no need for further funds. There will be, to provide treatment for those who are already victims of the disease, and to further perfect the vaccine now being used. But one may say, happily, that the March of Dimes has reached its main objective and it should encourage everyone to contribute generously to the Cancer Fund and with confident hope that soon a vaccine will be discovered to control another dread disease, and place cancer with diphtheria and smallpox in the category of controliable diseases.

It is a great hope. So give generously.

West Bay Rancher In the Forefront

WEST BAY—An industry that has proven it can survive in Cape Breton and obtain the highest possible price on the Canadian competitive market, has been given but a passing glance during the last six months. And it has been using Cape Breton as an embarkation point in its mass exodus from western Canada to Newfoundland.

The industry is mink ranching, and just how mink ranching may be an important boost to Cape Breton economies has been released in the latest fur breeders' report.

It shows that at annual winter sales sponsored by the Hudsons Bay Company at Montreal, silverblue mink bred in Cape Breton's West Bay area brought the highest prices ever paid in Canada.

Urquhart's Bras D'Or mink ranch is one of the largest in the Maritimes with 195 breeding females in stock at present.

According to Urquhart, one of the mink's basic foods is fish he obtain from Booth Fisheries at Petit de Grat.

Rancher Donald is a brother of Richmond County MLA Earl Urquhart and police constable William Urquhart of the Sydney City Police Force.

RICHARD CAPTURES CROSS-COUNTRY RUN

Joe Richard, of Lancaster, N. B. (formerly of Arichat) the veteran distance man who fared well in last season's Boston Marathon, outclassed a field of nine other cross-country runners to win a five-mile gallop along the St. Stephen Highway to Manchester Corner. Time for Richard was a classy 27 minutes, 50.4 seconds.

The amazing Joe showed his heels to runner-up Hanz Schatz of Minto to finish nearly 100 yards in front. Placing third was 16-year-old George Wilson of Saint John Vocational School.

Richard will run in the gruelling Boston test again this April.

He finished 39th in a field of 176 over the 26-mile grind last year.

An IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

MARITIME TELEGRAPH & TELEPHONE CO. LIMITED

A NEW BILLING DATE FOR YOU

Commencing with the next telephone bills, billing dates for all telephone subscribers will be changed.

Groups of bills will be mailed out at different times during the month, instead of all bills being sent out at the end of each month.

For instance:

One group of subscribers will receive their bills dated the 3rd of each month.

Another group will receive their bills dated the 6th of each month, and so on throughout the month.

The change in the billing date will mean a small adjustment on your first statement to cover the period between the old and the new billing date.

THE ADJUSTMENT
WILL NOT MEAN A CHANGE IN THE
AMOUNT CHARGED FOR YOUR TELEPHONE SERVICE!

What are the reasons for these changes?

Spreading the billing dates this way levels out work loads in the billing department throughout the month and helps keep down the cost of providing service.

Spreading the billing also spreads the work load at telephone payment offices because every telephone bill isn't due on the same day. Customers who come in to pay their bills can be served more promptly without undue delay.
