4 TV PONY-TAILS

Four glamorous blondes always make an intriguing photo. When the four blondes all wear their hair in pony-tails, it's even better. But these four blonde, glamorous pony-tailers have another thing in common—they're all CBC television stars. Here, from the top, are dancer Babs Christie, singer Marilyn Kent, dancer Glenna Jones, and actress personality Hollynock. Marilyn Kent is featured on numerous CBC shows, and the dancers in the weekly variety "On Stage". Holly frequently appears on "Living" and, while she is known to be somewhat naive, this hasn't stood in the way of her career; with her friend Uncle Chichimus, she was one of the first two creatures ever to appear on Canadian television when it came on the air back in 1952.

MRS V. GOUGUEN

(Melinda Thibeau)

The sad circumstances of Mrs. Gouguen's untimely and sudden passing when the new home on a pretty site overlooking the paved highway at Hawker was an established reality, touched the feelings of all within an extended compass, including veterans who still cherish grateful memories of the hospitable Thibeau home on the hill.

During the week Mrs. Samuel Boudreau had occasion to go to River Tillard several times to help care for Mrs. Margaret Smith who was stricken with double pneumonia.

It is pleasing to know our neighborley old neighbor is making a good recovery from her critical illness.

We owe our thanks to Mrs. Henry Pate, (Florence MacPhee) of Sterling for birthday greetings and a gift.

We appreciate your thoughtfulness "Flo". May you have many happy birthdays!

We were gladdened by a motor party from Sydney in Robert Lewis's fancy family Ford Thursday evening.

It comprised Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, their sons, Robert Jr. and Ronald and Neil Sutherland.

It was pleasing to see these good friends, but particularly pleasing to see Neil his wonted cheerful self again so soon after a major operation in St. Rita's Hospital.

We were sorry to learn from Mrs. Lewis that her uncle, Allan Hill had recently passed on.

In his early teens Allan was an assistant to the lightkeeper on St. Paul's Island.

Hugh J. Hill and Kaye MacPhail drove to Oban, Sunday and visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Murray.

Capt. Simon F. Burke, who celebrated his 80th birthday on April 11th is recovering from an attack of the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Boudreau of Petit de Grat are the guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr and Mrs. Georgie Boudreau.

Miss Betty Boyd has arrived home from Sydney where she was employed, and will remain here for some time owing to the indisposition of her mother, Mrs. W. F. Boyd.

We are glad to report that both Mr. and Mrs. Abram Beranger, who were on the sick list are improving.

Arthur Digout and Peter Burke who are employed with Nova Scotia Power Commission left on Monday for Bear River, N. S., where they will be employed for some time.

Mrs. Placide Burke left for Bostos where she will spend a month visiting relatives and friends.

D. D. Boyd of Halifax, attended the funeral of Ms. Henry Fougere.

Fraser Boyd has returned to Seven Islands after spending two weeks at home, having been called here due to the death of his father, W. F Boyd.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon MacDougall, of CJFX and young son Rene, were the guests of Mrs. MacDougall's sister, Mrs. Thomas Sampson last week.

Hervey Boyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Boyd has gone to Goose Bay where he is employed on construction work.

MRS. HENRY FOUGERE

(River Round-Up)

On Tuesday evening, April 5th, one of the most beloved citizens of River Bourgeois, Mrs. Henry Fougere, passed away at her home

Mrs. Fougere, who was in her 79th year, had been ailing for several months, having been bedridden since last November, and about three weeks before her death, her condition became worse and many members of her family arrived home to see her before she passed to her "eternal reward".

During her illness she was tenderly cared for, not only by the immediate members of her family, but also by neighbours and friends who came, anxious to return, in part at least, the many acts of kindness and thoughtfulness which they had received from her during her lifetime.

A life long resident of River Bourgeois she was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter Boudreau.

Of her large family of twelve childsen she is survived by six sons, Peter, at home; Amable, on the staff of Camp Hill Hospital, Halifax; John, James and Anthony of Halifax; Walter of River Bourgeois and William, a dental technician with the Army at the Cornwallis naval base; also three daughters, Mary Charlotte (Mrs. Josime Burke); Annie May (Mrs. Bernie Burke) and Evelyn (Mrs. Victor Burke) all of R. B. Also surviving is a grandson Joseph Burke (of Los Angeles) who was brought up by Mrs. Fougere when her daughter Hattie (Mrs. Mabie Burke) died.

Besides her daughter, Hattie, Mrs. Fougere was predeceased by her husband, Henry Fougere, another daughter Katie (Mrs. Simon Landry) and a son Leo.

She is also survived by three sisters, Sister St. Maurice of Holy Heart Seminary, Halifax; Lottie (Mrs. Neil Sutherland) of Halifax and Harriet (Mrs. Abram Landry) River Bourgeois; one brother Amable of Whiteside.

The funeral was held at 2.30 Good Friday afternoon, from St. John the Baptist Catholic Church Rev. Fr. Sampson officiating.

Pall-bearers were Peter Digout, Georgie Boudreau, Fraser Boyd, Alfred Richard, Lou Thibeau and John Boyd.

The numerous mass offerings, floral contributions and sympathy card received attested to the esteem in which the late Mrs. Fougere was held.

Our deepest sympathy goes out to the bereaved family.

SOUR CREAM BUNS

• It's such a thrill to make new yeast treats with Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast. Keeps full-strength, fast-acting without refrigeration. Get a month's supply.

SOUR CREAM BUNS

• Scald 1½ c. milk ½ c. granulated sugar, 2 tsps. salt and ¼ c. butter or margarine; cool to lukewarm. Meanwhile, measure into a large bowl ½ c. lukewarm water, 1 tsp. granulated sugar; stir until sugar is dissolved. Sprinkle with 1 envelope Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast. Let stand 10 minutes, THEN stir well.

Sieve ½ c. cold mashed potato and mix in 2 unbeaten egg yolks and ½ c. thick sour cream; stir into yeast mixture and stir in lukewarm milk mixture. Stir in 3½ c. once-sifted bread flour; beat until smooth. Work in 3 c. (about) once-sifted bread flour to make a soft dough; grease top. Cover and set in a warm place, free from draught. Let rise until doubled in bulk. Punch down dough, grease top, cover and again let rise until doubled in bulk. Punch down dough and turn out on lightly-floured board; roll to ⅓" thickness and cut into 3¼" rounds and place, well apart, on greased cookie sheets. Using a floured thimble, make a deep depression in the centre of each bun. Brush rounds of dough with mixture of 1 slightly-beaten egg white and 1 tbs. water; sprinkle generously with granulated sugar. Cover and let rise until doubled in bulk. Deepen depressions in buns and fill with thick raspberry jam. Bake in hot oven, 425°, about 15 minutes. Yield—3 dozen large buns.

Hon. R. H. Winters Reports From Ottawa

This was a week devoted to the Budget, External Affairs and Miscellaneous legislation.

During the Easter recess all Members had a good opportunity to assess the impact of the Budget on their constituents, and Mr. Macdonnell, the Progressive-Conservative financial critic, was vigorous in reflecting what he interpreted to be the views of some Canadians. He said that deficit financing was a dangerous thing, being what he regarded as the slippery stone to inflation. This sounded a bit strong, on the heels of what we used to hear when the Minister of Finance was able to report consecutive surpluses. Criticism then was that the Government was extracting from the Canadian taxpayer more money than was needed.

Another prominent Progressive Conservative, Mr. George Hees, disagreed with Mr. Macdonnell. He said he wasn't worried about the deficit. He was sorry that it wasn't one half billion dollars instead of only one hundred and sixty million dollars, so that the tax cuts could really have been worth while.

The basic criticism of the CCF aprty was that the tax reductions were too great for wealthy people and not great enough for those in the low income brackets. There is, in fact, the same order of reductions for everybody, but for those paying low taxes is indicated by the fact that Canada has, perhaps, the highest level of exemptions for income tax purposes of any other country in the world.

This debate shows promise of being an interesting one, taking place as it does against the background of Federal-Provincial fiscal discussions, which start in Ottawa next Tuesday.

Mr. Pearson concluded a protracted debate on External Affairs with a ringing speech. It had been represented that in an address in Toronto he had said that if the United States became involved in a war in the Formosa area, Canada would stand alongside her. In the House. Mr. Pearson strongly asserted that this is not our position. If the United States does become involved over Formosa, we will have to consider our position very seriously. However he made it clear that a war arising out of the defence ow Quemoy and Matsu Islands, is quite a different matter.

Another strong indication of uneasiness within the CCF party was the resignation of Mr. Ross Thatcher, who has announced his intion of sitting as an Independent. Some such action was expected. Mr. Thatcher is clearly not a socialist, and for some time has been speaking openly against the policies of his party.

Yours very truly,

Robert H. Winters

Our Forests Resources And Unemployment

(Editorial from Antigonish Casket)

News regarding the establishment of a papermaking mill to serve this eastern county region has not been encouraging of late. For all of that, we think our people should not despair entirely of this matter. As Hon. Colin Chisholm said at the Antigonish meeting last week, world demand for newsprint increases at the rate of 4 percent a year. Other uses of paper products are increasing: containers, cartons, wrapp rs of all kinds are in steady demand.

As to the supply of wood we have it now. That supply increases every year by new growth—thank to a kind Providence and an abundant rainfall. Thus, the essential elements are here. the supply and the demand. We believe that in time there will be found the business organization to bring them together.

The citizens concerned are not unreasonable. They do not expect the Government to place a paper mill at Mulgrave or any other adjacent point by magic. The investing company alone can make that decision. But they do expect—the small woodlot owners, the farmers, the business people and, in fact, the whole community—that everything be done to contact all possible prospects. This expectation suffered a let down at the recent meeting. The various questions asked by members of the audience are representative of the thinking of the countryside.

The people hereabouts are awakened as to the delinquent use of natural resources as they have never been before. This matter is, of course, above politics, as Dr. Clarence Nicholson said. It has to be met in human terms as well as economic, because if such projects are not deemed feasible in the business sense you still have the human problem to face—as every social agency in the area knows.

Perhaps our people have been led to expect too much of a government. Perhaps we forget that a government of Nova Scotia has to represent 18 counties, not four. This view, at any rate, has been expressed in these columns four or five times since it was becoming clear that the Canso Strait situation was becoming acute. Government participation is essential, but only one of the essentials. The desirable thing is that there be a really efficient Industrial Development Association, empowered with enough funds to do much of the contact and selling job. Last summer, The Casket gatheret firsthand, and published, information on the record of Ontario in securing new industries.

The Ontario Government policy is to subsidize regional industrial development assocations, especially in rural areas, $10,000. This gives them a start and enables them to employ the type of promoter that is needed; hey can do he spade work. When Government assistance is needed on the project—such a in provilon of power or water supply—the case has already been formuated to a concrete stage.

The questions asked at the meeting are being widely asked today in eastern Nova Scotia: Why was the Belanger Report on Cape Breton forests first given to the Hearst Company who have already heavy investments at Sheet Harbour and plenty of timber? Why not to some other companies? Why will it take until March 1957 befre survey of Antigonish, Guysborough and Pictou counties will be completed? How many paper manufaturers have been contacted in Canada? the United States? Britain? Europe? What can be done to improve the outward flow of our pulpwood (regardless of mills) to the world market?

MY PRAYER

Let me be a little kinder,
Let me be a little blinder
To the faults of those about me,
Let me praise a little more.

Let me be when I am weary
Just a little bit more cheery:
Let me serve a litle better,
Those that I am striving for.

Let me be a little braver,
When temptation bids me waver;
Let me strive a little harder
To be all that I should be.

Let me be a little meeker
With my brother who is weaker;
Let me think more of my neighbor
And a little less of me.

JOINS NOVA SCOTIA FILM BUREAU

One of Canada's well known cameramen has added his talents to the work of promoting the beauties of Nova Scotia.

Alan Grayston, long associated with motion picture and still productin for the major studios and industries of Canada has joined the staff of the Nova Scotia Film Bureau, Department of Trade and Industry.

Mr. Graytson, age 35, was born in Ottawa, Ontario, and has produced most of his photographic work in the territory of Montreal. Through the years, however, he has covered Canada from coast to cast, including the Yukon.

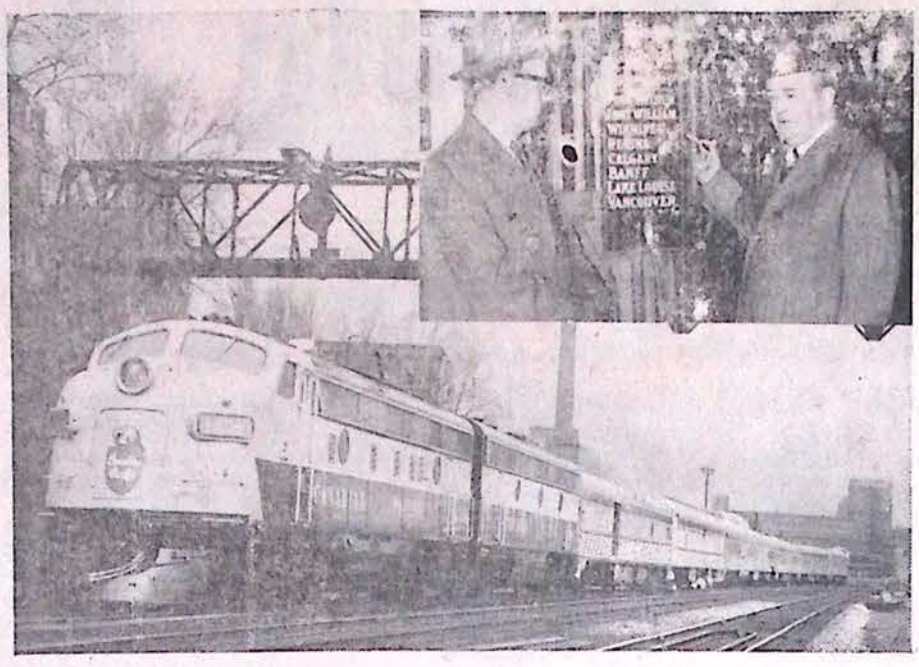

Mr. Grayston has come to Nova Scotia from the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation in Montreal where he was engaged in television and motion picture production. He brings with him a long list of credits in his adopted field.

During the war years, he worked as an Allied Cameraman in Europe and filmed the production "You can't kill a City"—the story of the fight for the city of Caen. Upon his return to Canada, he engaged in several photographic works, including the operation of a studio which he ran successfully in Montreal for some years. During this period he also worked as a Director-Cameraman for the National Film Board and on French-Canadian feature films in Montreal. Clumbia Films of New York used his services on many occasions for their short-subject Department.

In his free-lance period, Mr. Grayston has been responsible for productions with Omega Films, Frontier Film and Canadian Industries Limited. For a production for the latter firm, he rereived in 1952, an award from the National Advertising Association of New York.

One of Mr. Grayton's keen interests, lies in the development and work of camera and colour clubs. His personal photography, has on several occasions, won him awards for the Best print of the Year. He is looking forward to close association with the local camera groups.

His most recent work is "Thrills Without Spills", a study on skiing tehniques, released through television sources. Mr. Grayston brings with him to Nova Scotia, his wife, Francoise and daughter Mirelle, whom he uses on many occasions as photographic model.

WOMEN'S GUILD ORGANIZED AT LOUISDALE

On Sunday afternoon, April 24, a meeting to organize a women's Co-operative Guild was held in the Louisdale Domestic Science room. Guest speakers for the occasion were Miss Evelyn Pugh, of the Extension Department, Mrs. Jos. Laben, Mrs. Tom Gouthro of the Reserve Guild and Mrs. Armie Chiasson and Mrs. Chas. J. Chiasson of the New Waterford Guild.

Miss Pugh, in a very eloquent manner, explained the objective of a Co-operative Guild which is to promote co-operative education. Mrs. Laben, Mrs. Gouthro, Mrs. Armie Chiasson and Mrs. C. J. Chiasson expressed their views as to how the Co-op Guild proved beneficial in the areas they represented and expressed their hopes and good wishes for a successful organization in Louisdale.

The following officers were elected for the year:
President: Miss Alvina LeLievre.
Vice-Pres.: Mrs. Edna Boudreau.
Sec'y.-Treas: Miss Zelia Marchand
Executive Committee:
Educational: Mrs Michael McNeil
Publicity: Mrs. Minnie Joyce.
Social: Mrs. Elias Sampson; Mrs. Celina Marchand; Mrs. Eleanor Goyetche.

A lively French sing-song was enjoyed by all and delicious refreshments were served. Before closing Mrs. Michael MacNeil expressed a vote of thanks to Miss Pugh and the ladies of Reserve and New Waterford who were kind to help organize the Louisdale Co-operative Guild. We feel certain that this guild will be one more step forward in the adult educational field of our community.

DEAN OF NOVA SCOTIA WEEKLY NEWSPAPERMEN PASSES AT DIGBY

Funeral services for J. J. Wallis, managing editor of the Digby Courier and dean of Nova Scotia's weekly newspaper editors, who passed away at Digby General Hospital on Sunday at the age of 81 were held Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Wallis who was a veteran of the newspaper and printing industry, began his career as a printer 67 years ago on a part-time basis in the village of Salem near Yarmouth. After a short time there he went to work on the Yarmouth Light where he stayed about six months. He then went with the old Yarmouth Times where he worked for about 25 years, holding every position from printers' devil to managing editor. After this he worked for a time with several other weekly newspapers in various Nova Scotia center, including Bridgetown, Lunenburg and Weymouth. He was a member of the editorial staff of the Halifax Herald around the turn of the century. Mr. Wallis went to Digby to take over the editorship of the Digby Courier in 1918 and was there since that time

PAT CONNOLLY
WITH AN EYE TO SPORT

With interest in sporting activities in the Maritimes, the CBC has begun more extensive sports coverage on both radio and television. The responsibility for keeping CBC listeners and viewers up-to-date falls to Pat Connolly, a native Maritimer, who has taken an active interest in sports reporting since the age of 13. His radio sportscasts are heard Monday to Friday at 8:15 a.m. and 5-55 p.m. On Saturday he has another radio show in the morning and a 15-minute sports telecast "Isnor's Sports Parade" on CBHT at 7.15 p.m.

Any mention of Maritime inferiority in the sports field brings Connolly's Irish temper into the open. "Maritimers are as good competitors as you'll find anywhere. In fact, they are continually becoming top contenders for sporting honors."

If we noticed little pleasures,
As we notice little pains,
If we quite forgot our losses,
And remembered all our gains;
If we looked for peoples' virtues,
And their faults forgot to see—
What a comfortable, happy,
Cheerful place this world would be.
