Acadian Bi-Centenary Celebrations At Arichat, July 31st

100 Pipers Will Mark Opening of Causeway

When the tartan ribbon is cut to officially open the Canso Causeway on August 13, and the hundred pipers lead the procession across the water, they will form part of one of the great inaugural programs of this year.

At 12 noon, the road across the Causeway will be closed to vehicular traffic. The sidewalk will remain open. From then until 1.45 p.m. the Nova Scotia Power Boat Association will give a display including a parade of some 70 motor boats, races, hydroplanes and a water skiing exhibition.

The opening ceremony will commence at 2 p.m. with the playing of God Save the Queen as the official party arrives. Following the invocation addresses will be heard from the Hon. Henry D. Hicks, Premier of Nova Scotia and Mr. Donald Gordon, President of the Canadian National Railways. The inaugural address will then be delivered by the Rt. Hon. C. D. Howe, Canada's Minister of Trade and Commerce. The opening ceremony will close with the playing of O Canada.

Following the blessing, the Hon. Henry D. Hicks will present a traditional Scottish claymore, reported to have been used at the battle of Culloden, to the Rt. Hon C. D. Howe and the latter will proceed to cut the ribbon officially open the Causeway. Salutes will be paid by the Royal Canadian Navy and the Royal Canadian Air Force. The Inverness Pipe Band will play a lament to the late Hon. Angus L. Macdonald former premier of Nova Scotia.

After the ceremony, there will be a ten minute pause in the proceedings while the hundred pipers form up to lead the procession. Immediately following them will march the official guests, then junior pipe bands representing the whole of Nova Scotia and all those people who wish to be part of the celebration. The public will march behind the last band.

The march will terminate at the Cape Breton end of the Causeway for any persons who wish to drop out, otherwise it will continue to the field one-half mile further on where a program of highland games will be staged. These will include pipe band demonstrations, such well-known dances as the sword dance Seaun Triubhas, the highland fling and the Reel of Tulloch. The games will feature such traditional Scottish sports as throwing the hammer, tossing the caber, putting he shot. There will be Gaelic singing and milling frolic demonstrations.

The Canadian National Railways announces that it will run a special train from Halifax early on Saturday morning and this will pick up passengers en route for the celebration. There will be one official car and tickets will be on sale to the public. Meals will be served both on the outgoing and return journeys.

Parking areas will be provided at both ends of the Causeway to accomodate about 2240 cars on the mainland side and about 600 on the Cape Breton side. There will be a round-robin bus service free to the public across the Causeway between the hours of 3 and 5 pm. Signs at each end of the Causeway will give notice of this. The object is to facilitate people in reaching their parked cars which may be on the other side of the Causeway. The official parking area is under Cape Porcupine hill on the mainland side.

The public are warned that since it is unknown what facilities will be available for buying food, it would be wise to treat the outing as a picnic and to bring the food required. In this way they will not be caught out.

To view the ceremony, the public will be able to take up position either on the banks of the mainland side or on the sidewalk of the Causeway itself. The train which would separate viewers on the shore line under Cape Porcupine hill, will be held back until after the ceremony. It will then advance and the public is advisel to watch for this movement since it will temporarily block their access to the Causeway.

About 1000 special certificates are to be presented to all those who officially participate in the march and the games. These certificates are made with a genuine Celtic design a seal and a piece of Nova Scotia tartan. In addition, about 5000 copies of a special souvenir programme have been prepared for general distribution.

L'Eglise Notre Dame de l'Assumption

From this beautiful church recently re-decorated service of devotion will be held on Sunday July 31st. to commemorate the Bicentenial Celebration of the Acadians.

Very Rev. A. P. Poirier, is the Pastor of Notre Dame Parish, and is a native of Isle Madame.

Descendants of French Acadians from Isle Madame and other County Districts will be in attendance at the Celebration.

The following program will commence with Pontifical High Mass at 10 a. m .Celebrant, Most Rev. John R. MacDonald, Bishop of Antigonish. Preacher will be His Excellancy Most Rev. Norbert Robichaud D. D.. Archbishop of Moncton, N. B.

Dinner will be served to outside guests at the Arichat Academy.

At 2.30 p.m. there will be a parade with the L'Assomption Band of Moncton, N. B. and floats decorated cars. school children from various Acadian parishes of the Diocese; representatives of Church and State will also take part in the parade.

After the parade outdoor speeches will take place near Notre Dame Church.

Special outdoor attraction will be the Band Concert on Sunday evening at 8 o'clock by L'Assumption Band of Moncton.

A children's choir made up of boys and girls from all over the County will be heard rendering special Acadian folk songs directed by Rev. Joseph Marinelli of Notre Dame Parish.

Celebrations will close with pontifical Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament by His Excellency Most Rev. Norbert Robichaud of Moncton.

Hon. R. H. Winters Reports From Ottawa

Dear Mr. Editor:

In a parliamentary sense this week "came in like a lion and went out like a lamb".

When the week started we were still in the midst of a roaring filibuster on the Defence Production Act, but everyone sensed that the spirit of compromise was in the air. One factor was that Mr. Howe was then away on important business and there was the question in the minds of Members as to how far the Government could or would go in his absence.

I was, therefore, quite dramatic on Monday afternoon when the Prime Minister informed the House of what the Government was prepared to do. He stated that after several discussions with the Leader of the opposition, he was able to say that the Government was prepared to accept a time limit on the powers contained in the Act, without changing any of the powers themselves. This does not meet all the demands of the Progressive-Conservative Opposition, but it does, on the other hand represent some compromise in the Government's initial position.

It developed that before he went away, Mr. Howe had discussed this whole matter with the Prime Minister and had suggested the changes the Prime Minister ultimately put before the House. The matter was, with him, one of timing and really a technicality. He felt that the amendments should be made when the Bill was in the committee stage, rather than on second reading. This, he considered, would have given him a better opportunity to explain the changes to the House and answer any questions relating to them. Only formal debate is permitted on second reading stage and this type of question and answer would not have been possible.

The Prime Minister's intervention to terminate what then seemed to be an endless debate, had the desired effect. On the whole I believe the compromise was a credit to Parliament and that it demonstrated again that the Government is always prepared to consider reasonable suggestions from the Opposition.

Once the compromise was offered, the Defence Production Act passed very speadily and we were able to get on with other business.

Most Members considered that with the filibuster over and the July heat taking its toll, the work of the House would proceed rapidly to a conclusion. However, the spirit of urgency that was anticipated still seems to be absent, and at the end of the week the study of various departmental estimates was proceeding in what seemed to be a leisurely manner.

Sporting Mountain Echoes

Arthur Pate spent the week-end with Mrs. Pate and family in their summer home at Hawker.

When returning to his duties, Monday morning Mrs. Samuel Boudreau accompanied him to Halifax, where she purposed entering the V. G. Hospital for observation and if necessary, a major operation.

We hope Mrs.. Boudreau is destined to soon return in perfect health.

Upwards of thirty family connections and fiends called at the Boudreau home, Sunday, to take leave of Mrs. Boudreau and wish her well.

Nearest of kin were Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McPhee, St. John, N. B. Mr. and Mrs. Alex McPhee, Cannes and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pate of Stirling.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Morrison, St., Peter's, were motor visitors to Seaview on Sunday.

A visit from Arthur Morrison and Josephine Burke, when they motored up from the southern frontier in the delightful new Dodge, Sunday evening proved a prelude to a series throughout the week.

Our old pupil and friend through all the intervening years, Wilfred McPhee, contacted us enroute to Seaview Lake, Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Mac Donald (Rene Morrison) are motor visitors from their home in Massachusetts to their native maritimes.

Mrs. McDonald, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Morrison, St. Peter's, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert Morrison (Florence MacRae) comprised a welcome motor quartet to our little domicile Monday afternoon.

When Kyte's family car parked at our gate the same evening it included Mrs. Michael Kyte, her daughter, Sister Mary Fatana, her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kyte and family; and grand-daughter, Lillian Morrison.

We were particularly pleased to shake hands with Sister Mary Fatana her natural graciousness magnified by the obligations of religious vows.

Wednesday afternoon we were favoured with a motor party of veteran friends of whose true friendship we are wont to get tangible manifestation.

It comprised Mr. and Mrs. James McIntosh (Gertrude Morrison R. N.) and Mr. and Mrs. Edward McIntosh, Boston, Mass., accompanied by Charles McIntosh of St. Peter's.

Mrs. "Eddy" McIntosh is a daughter of our old friend, Mrs. Annie McMahon, of whom cherished memories go back to school days at the cross roads.

We were glad to receive a card the other day from our good friends, Mr. and Mrs. Colin Mc Intosh, who were resting at a re-Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Toronto Montreal, Quebec City and St. Ann's Shrine.

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Morrison were transient motor visitors from St. Peter's to Sporting Mountain Wednesday evening.

John W. MacDonald, Grand Anse, visited at the home of W. A. McRae, on Monday.

GEORE I. RICE PRESENTED WITH ELECTRIC CLOCK

We were happy to read in the 'Advance' of Liverpool, where George I. Rice, of Brooklyn, was presented with an electric clock, a gift from the members of the staff of the Purchasing and Stores Department, Mersey Paper Company, from which Mr. Rice is retiring after having been a member since May 1936. Making the presentation was Mr. Donald C. Kelso, Mersey Purchasing Agent. Mr. Rice has been here since the days when Mersey was still under construction. A keen curler, he is a charter member of the Liverpool Curling Club and is also a keen baseball fan. His son, Billie, was a former member of the Larrupers.

(Mr. Rice is well known in Arichat and other parts of Cape Breton where friends will join with us in wishing George, every happiness in his retirement. His wife is the former Irene Gruchy, of Arichat.)

KELTIC LODGE IS GRAND SPOT

J. Balkeney, Inspector of the Nova Scotia Pharmaceutical Association,, accompanied by Mrs. Blakeney, attended annual sessions of the Council and the Association held last week at Keltic Lodge, Capt Breton.

Speaking to the Journal Mr. Blakeney said that the golf course at the lodge is "simply" grand, and since afternoons were left free for social activities, he and Mrs. Blakeney got in some nice golf.

Mrs. Irene Martell, and son, Peter, left for Halifax last week, to take up residence in that city.

For several years the late C. F. Martell carried on business here at the G. A. Andrew stand, after his death this business operated under the name of the Estate of C. F. Martell.

Good citizens, the Martells will be missed from the community.

Peter will enter Dalhousie University at the opening of the fall term. A splendid type of young man, we predict a bright and promising future for Peter.

Mrs. Martell's two daughters, Anne and Lorraine are employed in Halifax, Anne a nurse-in-training at the Infirmary and Lorraine, a Stenographer at the Law Courts.

May Mrs. Martell and family enjoy every happiness and prosperity in the years ahead.

Monument to Explorer Capt. Cook

A monument to Captain Cook, R. N., one of the world's most noted navigator-explorers and who spent four years (1758-1762) of his brilliant career in Halifax was unveiled last week at Halifax by Commodore E. P. Tisdall, R. C. N., commanding officer, H. M. C. S. Stadacona. Site of the cut-stone monument is atop Fort Needham, which commands a panoramic view of Halifax harbour and the naval dock yard.

A cut-stone monument atop Fort Needham, overlooking the dockyard and expansive harbour of Halifax wa unveiled last week in an impressive ceremony by Commodore E. P. Tisdall, R. C. N., commanding officer of H. M. C. S. Stadacona.

The monument and attached tablet is a tribute to one of the world's most famed navigator-explorers, Captain James Cook, R. N. who was stationed at Halifax between 1758 and 1762.

"The Nova Scotia Historical Society is privileged and honored in sponsoring and unveiling this monument to Captain Cook," said Justice V. J. Pottier, chairman of the ceremony and president of the Nova Scotia Historical Society in his introductory remarks.

"The Halifax site was decided upon because it was felt the monument should be erected near the scene of Captain Cook's Canadian activities and as Fort Needham overlooked the Halifax dockyard and was accessible to citizens and visitors it was selected as the most appropriate place," said Dr. D. C. Harvey, provincial archivist.

In his first official function as Nova Scotia representative on the Historic Sites and Monuments Board of Canada, Dr. C. Bruce Fergusson, assistant provincial archivist delivered an impressive and detailed address on the brilliant career of Captain James Cook, describing his colorful career from the time he was born in 1728, the son of a farmer's servant till his death in 1779 at the hands of natives of the island ofHawaii.

The inscription on the tablet reads as follows: "Captain James Cook, R. N. ——James Cook, as master of HMS Pembroke and Northumberland spent the winter months of 1758—62 in Halifax compiling charts of the St. Lawrence and descriptions of the coast of Nova Scotia from previous charts and his own observations, and improving that knowledge of mathematics and surveying which he put to such good use later in Newfondland and the South Pacific."

The ceremony closed with a dedictory prayer offered by Rev. John Wilson, Royal Canadian Navy Chaplin.

The Furnace that is Spoon Fed

It's a fact! With Dosco's sensational new furnace coal is fed automatically in such minute quantities that it is virtually spoon fed.

In fact ¾ of a pound of coal will hold fire in the furnace for one hour.

This is the new, compact, gleaming white enamel furnace that disposes of its own ashes and leaves the furnace room immaculate.

CHECK THESE FEATURES

CONVENIENCE
Unsurpassed for comfort and convenience.

ECONOMY
Cuts a minimum of 20 per cent from the cost of operating a hand-fired furnace, with relatively higher savings over other type heating systems. Cost of purchase and installation is less than for any other self-feeding heating system.

CLEANLINESS
It is impossible for dust or ashes to enter the furnace room. There is only a very small amount of ash and this is removed by vacuum as it forms.

FULLY AUTOMATIC
This furnace stokes itself automatically as required by the thermostat and even removes its own ashes.

COMPACT
The new Dosco furnace is the most compact furnace you can own. It measures 40 inches long by 30 inches wide and 48 inches high.

Purchase and installation of Dosco's new furnace can be financed through a Home Improvement Loan available under the National Housing Act. See your Bank.
