Sporting Mountain Echoes

Mrs. Robert Matheson, her son in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James McLean and daughter, Margaret Matheson of the teaching fraternity comprised a motor quartet from Donkin, Cape Breton to our little domicile by the roadside Sunday afternoon.

Their coming was prompted by a friendship that had its inception in life's heyday and stays steadfast still, and we do not know that a visit from any other than Msr. Matheson could cause so many dormant chords of long cherished memories to revive and vibrate again.

Jack Madden motored Magaret McLean and his neighborly neighbors Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thibeau with a trio of their fine family to Seaview Saturday evening

We were glad to see Miss McLean so bright and in reminiscent mood for she enlightened us on local tradition beyond our memory.

Mrs. Thibeau told us that her aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Goswell was a recent visitor from Sydney. and regardless of her ninety two years was an active and attractive as she was wont to be in the prime of her life.

After an absence of three years Austin Boudreau motored down from Central Canada during the week-end chiefly to see his mother who is indisposed and also to contact old friends and associates throughout the countryside.

Dan MacPhee and a party of anglers were up from New Water ford over the weekend and Mr. MacPhee contacted former neighbors in Seaview ere returning Sunday evening.

Attending the Scout Jamboree held at Niagara-on the Lake, Ont. Girl Guide Jessie Penny, Scout Urban Holm and Scoutmaster Angus McEachern all of New Waterford paid a visit to the colorful Nova Scotia exhibit at the Canadian National Exhibition Toronto. They were shown, by Miss Jean Ross, member of the Nova Scotia Department of Trade and Idustry, some of the attractive provincial tourist literature, which together with the Nova Scotia flag, tartan and large coloured transparency of Peggy's Cove attracted thousands attending the exhibition.

Cecil Day Livens Up Liverpool

The August edition of "Canadian Printer and Publisher" featured a splendid story on the "Liverpool Advance" and the advancement made by its owner and publisher, Cecil Day, since taking over this weekly in 1938. When passing through the town of Liverpool, one cannot escape seeing on main street, the imposing ivy covered brick building where the Advance is printed.

As a subscriber to "Printer and Publisher", it afforded us a great deal of pleasure reading this story and viewing the photos one of which shows Cecil at his desk looking fit and happy, although St. Laurent, forgot his appointment to the Senate.

Publisher Day started his printing career as an apprentice on the staff of the 'Charlottetown Guardian", he also was employed as a Linotype operator on the staff of the old Sydney Post. His dream of owning and operating an up-to-date weekly with all the modern equipment and facilities at his command has been realized and we offer our congratulations to him for continued success.

—:O:—

The House By The Side Of The Road

There are hermit souls that live withdrawn,
In the peace of their self-content;
They are souls, like stars, that dwell apart.
In a fellowless firmament.

There are pioneer souls that blaze their paths,
Where highways never ran;
But let me live by the side of the road,
And be a friend to man.

Let me live in a house by the side of the road,
Where the face of men go by—
The men who are good and the men who are bad,
As good and as bad as I.
I would not sit in the scorner's seat,
Or hurl the cynic's ban;
Let me live in a house by the side of the road,
And be a friend to man.

I know there are brook-gladdened meadows ahead,
And mountains of wearisome height;
That the road passes on through the long afternoon
And stretches away to the night
But still I rejoice when the travellers rejoice,
And weep with the strangers that moan,
Nor live in my house by the side of the road,
Like a man who dwells alone.

Let me live in my house by the side of the road
Where the race of men go by—
They are good, they are bad, they are weak, they are strong.
Wise, foolish—so am I.
Then why should I sit in the scorner's seat,
Or hurl the cynic's ban
Let me live in my house by the side of the road,
And be a friend to man.

—Sam Walter Foss.

WAGNER — SHAW

On July 15th at the Lutheran Church in Coronach, Sask.. a pretty wedding was solemnized by the Rev. G. Perra of Bateman, uniting Christie Anne Shaw, R.N. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Shaw of Loch Lomond, N. S., to Reinhard Albert Wagner, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Wagner of Coronach, in a double ring ceremony.

For the occasion the church was beautifully decorated with assorted summer flowers.

The bride entered the church on the arm of Mr. Richard Giles who gave her in marriage.

The Wedding March, by F. Middeton, was played by Mrs. Rose Sherwin of Coronach.

The bride chose for her wedding dress a lovely gown of french lace and imported net, with a bouffant skirt of lace having panels of accordion pleated net. The classic fitted bodice of lace with a halter neckline was topped by a lace jacket, featuring lily point sleeves and stand-up collar. Her veil was of imported tulle illusion with crushed pearl and misted from a corwn of pleated tulle and crushed pearl.

She carried a bouquet of red sweetheart roses. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls with matching earrings.

Miss Sue Wagner of Regina, sister of the groom acted as maid of honor. wearing a cocktail length gown of blue nylon net trimmed with nylon lace. Her bouquet was of pink carnations.

Misses Clara and Ella Wagner, also sisters of the groom, acted as bridesmaids, wearing cocktail length gowns of yellow and aqua nylon net with lace.

Their bouquets were of white and yellow carnations with matching headdresses respectively.

Miss Patricia Giles friend of the bride, acted as flower girl, wearing a pink gown similar to that of the bride. She carried a basket of assorted summer flowers.

Billy Wagner, brother of the groom was ring bearer.

The groom was attended by his cousins, Messrs. Alvin and Melvin Wagner and Fred Lichter.

Acting as ushers were Mr. Kenneth Elder and Mr. Harold Forbes, friends of the bride and groom.

During the signing of the register, Miss Deanna Wagner sang 'I Love You Truly' accompanied by Mrs. Rose Sherwin.

Following the ceremony an open reception, catered to by the Lutheran Ladies Aid, was attended by upwards of 100 guests, and was held in the Canadian Legion Hall which was decorated for the occasion with pink and white streamers and wedding bells.

Pink and white streamers decorated the brides' table which was covered with a beautiful white lace tablecloth. with silver tapers at each end and centered with a 3 tier wedding cake with miniature bride and groom.

The silver service was attended to by Mrs. John Wagner and Mrs Reinhard Marks aunts of the groom. The table from which they served was covered by a lace cloth and centered with a similar three-tier cake with miniature bride and groom.

The attendants were gratefully remembered by the bride and groom.

A wedding dance was held in honor of the happy couple.

Mid showers of confetti and best wishes, the newlyweds left on a honeymoon trip to various parts of the USA.

For travelling the bride chose a matching suit to that of the grooms in royal blue with white accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

Returning from their honeymoon the couple will reside in Conorach. The bride will resume her duties in the Coronach Union Hospital.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Wagner, Regina,; Mrs. Ernest Schultz and son, Chester, Montana; Miss Marcella Perra, Kansas; Mr. George Roude, Miss Marlene Bartale, Mr. and Mrs. Vick Roude, Harptree; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wagner, Fife Lake; Mr. and Mrs. John Bartale, Mr. and Mrs. Reinhard Marks, Mr. and Mrs. John Thurlow. all of Buffalo Gap.

The bride was at one time on the nursing staff of the Isle Madame Hospital, Arichat.

The "Record"' joins with their friends, in wishing them a long and happy wedded life.

LOOK AGAIN

(Post-Record)

"The Canso Causeway—now that it has been piper-piped into continent-wide recognition — is the subject of a rash of published comment about Cape Breton Island no longer being an island. This island now is being described as a 'man-made peninsula'. Fiddlesticks. Peninsula? Don't go telling it to the Marines; they know otherwise. Those who believe so are invited to witness the opening of the Canso Navigation Canal which verily in terms of tidal flow of salt sea water keeps Cape Breton an island.

They will see the bridge that spans the canal, swing open to permit the passage of an ocean vessel, and there will be many such passages between the Gulf of St. Lawrence and the Atlantic to the south. The causeway-crosser won't complete his crossing to this island until the ship has passed and the bridge swings back again to highway position. A fact is a fact. Period."

We agree with the Editor of the Post Record and have maintained in a previous issue of this paper that Cape Breton still retains its place as an island.

We have so much to protect

This Canada of ours — is ours to enjoy at a price — the price of constant alertness.

We cannot take for granted our freedom to worship, to vote, to educate our children, or to order our home life as we please. All these freedoms are ours only as long as we are willing to do everything necessary to maintain and defend them.

All honour then to the Canadian Soldier — the steadfast guardian of all our free institutions. Without men like him, the Canada we love might cease to be.

We have so much to protect. Let us all do our part, without let-up, whatever way our duty lies.

Nova Scotia Exhibit at C.N.E.

Nova Scotia's exhibit is attracting crowds on the Avenue of Provinces at the Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto.

Occupying a central position in the exhibit, a display of Nova Scotia tartan and huge transparency of a lobster party at Peggy's Cove is easily one of the most impressive displays in the provincial booths. The transparency, 40 x 50 inches, was made especially for display at the CNE and is expected to be displayed later throughout Canadian and American exhibitions.

The huge transparency, tht largest of its kind possible on a commercial basis, was prepared by a Cleveland, Ohio, firm from an original 4 x 5 colour Ektachront photographed especially for the puppose by the Nova Scotia Film Bureau.

The Nova Scotia tartan is also attracting great interest. The full lengths of tartan, draped on either side of the transparency, were loaned by the Tartan Shop of Halifax, was of help also in preparing an oil plaque of the Nova Scotia coat of arms for the booth, displayed against a fish net.

The many thousands of people attending the Fair have commented highly on Nova Scotia's display.

The Furnace that is Spoon Fed

It's a fact! With Dosco's sensational new furnace coal is fed automatically in such minute quantities that it is virtually spoon fed.
In fact ¾ of a pound of coal will hold fire in the furnace for one hour.
This is the new, compact, gleaming white enamel furnace that disposes of its own ashes and leaves the furnace room immaculate.

CHECK THESE FEATURES
CONVENIENCE
Unsurpassed for comfort and convenience.
ECONOMY
Cuts a minimum of 20 per cent from the cost of operating a hand-fired furnace, with relatively higher savings over other type heating systems. Cost of purchase and installation is less than for any other self-feeding heating system.
CLEANLINESS
It is impossible for dust or ashes to enter the furnace room. There is only a very small amount of ash and this is removed by vacuum as it forms.
FULLY AUTOMATIC
This furnace stokes itself automatically as required by the thermostat and even removes its own ashes.
COMPACT
The new Dosco furnace is the most compact furnace you can own. It measures 40 inches long by 30 inches wide and 48 inches high.
Purchase and installation of Dosco's new furnace can be financed through a Home Improvement Loan available under the National Housing Act. See your Bank.
