Sporting Mountain Echoes

Thomas Morrison motored up from St. Peters all alone Sunday afternoon and we were all alone in our little domicile when he dropped in to see us.

Our conversation was reminiscent of happenings in this area some three score years ago.

We were all alone again Monday evening when another of our former fellow citizens John N. Morrison favored us with his company while Mrs. Morrison was visiting at the Boudreau home.

We had occasion to go to St. Peters, Tuesday afternoon and had Alfred Boudreau motor us down the old Post Road which was decked on both sides in attractive autumnal attire.

Down town it was nice to get the cheery greeting of Mrs. C. I. Cameron in the Royal Bank; nice to be warmly received in the D. W. Morrison home and enjoy an interesting converse with Mrs. Morrison; nice to contact the genial proprietor and his popular assistant at the McLean stand; and nice, too, to see the veteran "Willie" Goyetche as active and friendly as ever.

At River Tillard enroute home Mrs. Margaret Smith presented us with a container of mixed pickles, a product of her own domestic skill.

We appreciated the kindly thoughtfulness which was ever characteristic of Mrs. Smith.

"Buddie" Boudreau was a motor visitor to Isle Madame Wednesday night.

We congratulate our new Municipal Councillor Walter Fougere, than whom it would be hard to find a more well and favorably known citizen in District No. 6.

We anticipate much from the distinguished Lester Pearson's mission to Moscow.

Canada's Chief of External Affairs commands the respect of all nations.

Historical Notes

JUDGE THOMAS CHANDLER HALIBURTON

(1796 - 1865)

T. C. Haliburton was born in Windsor, Nova Scotia, and was educated at Kings College there. He practiced Law for a time in his home town and then removed to Annapolis, later to become Judge of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia. Although he was an oustanding jurist, he is less known for his litigation than for the prominent place he occupies in the field of English literature. Haliburton was more than a humorist; he was a propagandist, and much of what he wrote was disguised inspiration for constructive reform.

In 1837 the first series of "Sam Slick" appeared. These stories about the Yankee Clock Maker were originally used in Joseph Howe's newspaper "The Nova Scotian". A second series of these humorous naaratives which illustrate and exaggerate the peculiarities of the Yankee character and dialect appeared in 1838. Two years later a third series was published. The American school of humor is said to begin with the Sam Slick stories, and because of this Haliburton is generally referred to as the Father of American Humor.

"The Attache" or "Sam Slick in England" was publisher in 18-43-44 and was based on Haliburto's impressions of a trip he made to England. "The Old Judge or "Life in a Colony" was dated 1849 and "Traits of American Humor" in 1852. "Sam Slick's Wise Saws" followed in 1853 and two years later "Nature and Human Nature" appeared.

Judge Haliburton had early inclinations towards the field of writing and when he was 33 he wrote the "Historical and Statistical Account of Nova Scotia", which was he first history of the province of Nova Scotia. It is significant that the poet, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, used this history as the basis for his poem "Evangeline". Longfellow himself never saw Nova Scotia.

Having been appointed to the Supreme Court in 1841, Haliburton retired in 1856. He left his old home in Windsor, the place now maintained as "Clifton" by the provincial government and went to England to reside permanently. "Nature and Human Nature" was the last notable book from is pen and hat was written in Nova Scotia. In 1859 the Judge entered the British House of Commons and he held that seat until a few months before his death in 1865. He was 69 years of age.

FLORENCE LARNED

The last issue of the Record carried the news of the passing of Mrs. Florence Larned, of Miami Beach, Fla., and was read by many with deep regret.

The eldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Allan MacRae, St. George's Channel, her death marks the fourth in a well-known family of four girls and two boys.

A lady of high rectitude, with grace that grew and blossomed with the years, Mrs. Larned was widely known, and will be greatly missed especially by those who had occasion to enjoy her close friendship and fidelity.

She was a true Christian and gave generously to the Church and other worthy organizations.

Her summer sanctuary was a cosy cottage at the foot of a mountain overlooking The Bras d'Or Lake, and she loved every tree, and shrub that grew within its bounds.

Surviving besides her husband, Edwin Larned, Miami, Florida, is one sister, Mabel, (Mrs. Valoid Adair), Ohio.

Predeceased are Margaret, Worcester, Mass., Cassie, St. George's Channel, John W. St. George's Channel, and Donald D., Truro.

Surviving also are Allan MacRae, CNR employee, Truro, a nephew, a niece, Mrs. Marie Roach, Truro and one grand-nephew, Harry Roach, Truro. A sister-in law, rMs. Lou MacRae, Truro.

To all who mourn the loss of a devoted wife, sister, and aunt we extend our sincere sympathy.

A JOURNALISTIC JINGLE

Suns, Stars. Banners Expresses,
To you three hearty cheers,
Tribunes, Herald and all the
Free Presses,
May you flourish through the years.

Today we turn from dailies
To sing the raise instead
Of the town and country paper
That is weekly put to bed.

There is nothing else that's like it;
For a hundred years it's been
The observer and recorder
Of the town and country scene

It's a local institution
And for boys and girls who roam
The town and country weekly
Is the paper that spells "home".

When home-town leaders we recall
In our memories, we think,
Of the clergy, doctors, teachers
..and
The men whose blood is ink!

Mails and Posts and many a News,
To you we raise our cheers,

May you flourish through the years!

Yummy! Chelsea Bun Loaf

A treat you can make easily with new fast DRY Yeast

Now you have Fleischmann's Fast Dry Yeast, forget about the oldtime hazards of yeast baking! Always at hand—always full-strength and fast rising! Keep a month's supply in your cupboard! Make this delicious Chelsea Bun Loaf—cut in slices for buttering, or separate the buns.

CHELSEA BUN LOAF

Make 3 pans of buns from this one recipe—dough will keep in refrigerator for a week.

Scald ¾ c. milk, ¼ c. granulated sugar, 1½ tsps. salt and ¼ c. shortening; cool to lukewarm. Meanwhile, measure into a large bowl ½ c. lukewarm water, 1 tsp. granulated sugar; stir until sugar is dissolved. Sprinkle with 1 envelope Fleischmann's Fast Rising Dry Yeast. Let stand 10 mins., THEN stir well. Add cooled milk mixture and stir in 1 well-beaten egg. Stir in 2 c. once-sifted bread flour; beat until smooth. Work in 2½ c. once-sifted bread flour. Knead on lightly-floured board until smooth and elastic. Cut off ⅔ of dough, knead into a smooth ball, place in greased bowl, grease top of dough, cover and store in refrigerator until wanted. Shape remaining ⅓ of dough into a smooth ball, place in greased bowl and grease top. Cover and set in warm place, free from draught. Let rise until doubled in bulk. Cream 3 tbs. butter or margarine and blend in ½ c. brown sugar (lightly pressed down), 1½ tsps. ground cinnamon and 3 tbs. corn syrup; spread about ⅓ of this mixture in bottom of a greased loaf pan (4½" x 8½") and sprinkle with pecan halves. Punch down risen dough and roll out into an 8" square; loosen dough. Spread with remaining sugar mixture and sprinkle with ½ c. raisins. Loosely roll up like a jelly roll. Cut roll into 6 slices. Place in prepared pan. Grease tops. Cover and let rise until doubled in bulk. Bake in moderate oven, 350°, 25-30 mins. Let stand in pan for 5 mins. before turning out.

ELECTION CARD

To the Electors of Municipal District No. 3, comprising the D'Escousse, Poulamond, Poirierville, Cape la Ronde, Rocky Bay and Martinique communities:

Again I am soliciting your good will and your ballot so marked in a Municipal Election. For the past twelve (12) years I have been honored in being permitted to serve you as a Municipal Councillor. In turn to the best of my ability I have endeavoured to serve you WELL.

During said years —period 1943-1955— our municipality has made material progress on the Social, Cultural and Financial fields—to all of which I gave ardent support on the Council Board.

Our funded debt is now reduced to $60,000—a 12% tax rate now 3 1-2 %—are mute evidence of less taxation in the first instance—and more equitable and fair distribution of the tax burden in the second. Space forbids further details, suffice to say, in this wisdom and foresight have been employed, without which he people must perish

Consequently, in the light of the foregoing, impelled as you will be by a sense of justice and the desire to see this good work finished, please mark your ballot for me on election day.

Thanks for your past support and for the kindness you have extended to me in my recent visit to your homes, be assured I shall endeavour to serve you, as your councillor, as faithfully in the future as in the past.

Respectfully submitted,
PHILIP D. POIRIER,
