Last Week in the Legislature

A Nova Scotia general election may occur before the House of Assembly meets again Premier Henry D. Hicks hinted. an election is "very possible before the House sits again," he said during debate of a Progressive Conservative resolution calling for a by-election within six months of a House vacancy. The resolution went down to defeat by 17-14 vote.

******

Mr. Hicks strongly opposed the statement made recently by Premier Smallwood of Newfoundland in which he said that Nova Scotia was looked upon as the most back ward and undeveloped partot the Canadian mainland. Mr. Hicks said he differed with the Premier on this and wanted it put on record.

Legislation which broaden the Workmen's Compensation Act and increase benefits to injured workmen or dependents of workers killed in industrial accidents was brought to the attention of the House by Labor Minister J. Clyde Nunn.

******

The bill would increase from $130 to $150 monthly compensation which may be paid to a widow or invalid widower and one or more chil dren in the case of death, also increase to $150 and from $120 the monthly compensation in the event of death to depedent children; increase from $35 per month to $100 per month the minimum compensation payable for total disability; and increase to 70 per cent of average earnings, the rate of compensation in cases of disbility resulting from injury.

******

Bills given second reading included an act to amend the Nova Scotia Teachers' Union Ac which puts all teachers in the union unless they write themselves out.

******

In the face of some criticism Education Minister R.M. Fielding explained the bill was only a move to relieve the union of some of the burdens of administration.

******

It was similar to legislation in other provinces, said Mr. Nunn Minister of Welfare, who explained that it had been drafted in cooperation with the Nova Scotia Teachers Union.

******

Deputy Minister of Health Dr. J. S. Robertson; Dr C. B. Sewart dean of medicine at Dalhousie University and consultant to the Department of Health; L. E. Peverill provincial auditor, and Innis McLeod, senior solicitor of the Attorney- General's department were named members of a special planning committee by Hon. Geoffrey Stevens Minister of Health, to make recommendations regarding costs, the source of funds to support the plan, the method of collecting, payments to hospitals, deterrent fees and other matters relevant to the operation of hospitalization scheme for the province.

******

Roderick MacLean (L-Inverness) called for stepped up secondary road work "so necessary for increased farm production nd the prompt and continuous delivery of our products to mrkets".

******

CCF Leader Michael MacDonald (Cape Breton Centre) called for approval of a suggestion to establish a motor vehicle registration office in Sydney saying that the people of Cape Breton felt very strongly that the office be included in the new provincial building proposed for Sydney.

OTTAWA REPORT

Dear Mr. Editor:

Anybody visiting Ottawa this week would have had an opportunity of seeing a number of phases of the whole complicated process of Parliament in a wide sense. Many people are apt to think that Parliament, and to some extent Government, are confined to the Debates in the House of Commons. For that reason I'm afraid that at times they might not get too good an impression if they happen to attend the House in some of its less inspired moments.

This week the Committees of Parliament were established and they have started their work. This in itself often requires many Members to be out of the House. Committee work, however, is both an interesting and useful phase of parliamentary activities. In some ways it is often more important than the proceedings that are taking place in the House of Commons.

But, in addition this week, the Gordon Commission sat here in Ottawa to conclude its public hearings. That is in effect another arm of Government, because this Commission was set up under Federal uthority to examine Canada's economic prospects in the next quarter century. It's report will be a guide to the Government in charting future policies.

Visitors to the House of Commons on Friday would have perhaps noticed the absence of the Prime Minister, and those of us who are on the Federal delegation to the Federal - Provincial Conference on Fiscal Relations. When this one-day Conference concluded, I think all who participated, while not being satisfied, felt that the treatment accorded them was as fair as possible, having regard to all circumstances.

The activities of this week indicate that the process of Government is developing more ramifications all the time as the country grows. It's only after being close to it for a long time that one really develops a good appreciation of the complexities that engage the time of those involved in Government.

During the week the hottest in the Commons seemed to be the shipment of arms to those countries in the mideast who are almost perpetually on the verge of open warfare. In selling to these countries surplus arms, which we don't need ourselves, we must exercise great care to see that there is no partiality. At the same time we try to satisfy ourselves that the arms are more apt to ensure peace rather than to bring about war.

We again wound up the week with a discussion of fisheries. Each year the interest in the Department of Fisheries seems to increase. Id on't think I've ever seen as many Members speak on the subject. Nova Scotians interested in salt fish were doubtless pleased with the Government's announced intention to continue to rebate 50% of the cost of salt for a wide variety of fish. This assistance has proved most helpful since the policy was introduced a year ago.

Yours sincerely,
ROBERT WINTERS

Crusty, Crunchy DINNER ROLLS

● They're really ritzy — and no trouble at all to make, with new Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast! Gives you fast action — light doughs — and none of the bother of old time perishable yeast! Get a dozen packages — keeps full strength without refrigeration!

CRUSTY DINNER ROLLS

● Measure into a large bowl ½ c. lukewarm water, 1 tsp. granulated sugar; stir until sugar is dissolved. Sprinkle with 1 envelope Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast. Let stand 10 minutes, THEN stir well.

Add ¾ c. lukewarm water and 1 tsp salt. Add, all at once, 3½ c. once-sifted bread flour and work in with the hands; work in 3 tbs. soft shortening. Knead on lightly-floured board until smooth and elastic. Place in greased bowl. Cover with a damp cloth and set in warm place, free from draught. Let rise until doubled in bulk. Punch down dough in bowl, fold over, cover and again let rise until doubled in bulk. Turn out on lightly-floured board and divide into 2 equal portions; shape each piece into a long roll about 1½" in diameter. Cover with a damp cloth and let rest 15 mins. Using a floured sharp knife, cut dough into 2" lengths and place, well apart, on ungreased cookie sheets. Sprinkle rolls with cornmeal and let rise, uncovered, for ½ hour. Brush with cold water and let rise another ½ hour. Meanwhile, stand a broad shallow pan of hot water in the oven and preheat oven to hot, 425°. Remove pan of water from oven and bake the rolls in steam-filled oven for ½ hour, brushing them with cold water and sprinkling lightly with cornmeal after the first 15 mins., and again brushing them with cold water 2 minutes before removing baked buns from the oven. Yield — 18 rolls. ●

River Bourgeois News

John H. Burke who is employed on an oil tanker is spending some time at his home here. He was taken to a a Hospital at Fortune Bay, Nfld., while at sea, and was operated on for appendicitis. He then flew to Sydney and came home by bus.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Boucher of Church Point, here, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on February 5. They have two sons Walter of Truro and Jim of River Bourgeois; also two daughters Helen, at home and Rita (Mrs. George Audes) of Truro. They have eleven grandchildren.

We wish them many happy returns.

We regret to report the death of Mrs. Fred Grimes at Chelsea, Mass. Mrs. Grimes was the former Pauline Fougere daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Martin Fougere of River Bourgeois. Mrs. Grimes, who was 85 years of age, resided with her daughter at Chesea, Mass., for the past several years.

She is survived by one daughter Louise, (Mrs. Sam Samson) Chelsea and three sonos, Dannie also in Chelsea Paul, USA and Charlie of River Bourgeois.

The funeral took place at St. John the Baptist Church here on Friday.

We extend our sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.

Mrs. C. W. Boyd has returned from Windsor Ont, where she had spent several months visiting her sister who was ill. She was accompanied home by her sister Theresa who will spend some time at River Bourgeois.

Mrs. Howard Burke of Halifax is visiting her parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Burke.

John Landry, Forest Ranger is in Halifax attending a Forestry Meeting.

Miss Betty Boyd, daughter of Mrs. Boyd and the late W. F. Boyd, who is in training at St. Mary's Hospital, Montreal has received her "cap".

Councillor Fougere attended a meeting of the Richmond County School Board at Arichat last week.

Sporting Mountain Echoes

We compliment "Old Timer" upon his unique poetic tribute to the late Wallace MacAskill.

Her Majesty's mails reached the Seaview Post Office by horse and sleigh this week.

Down through the decades Dobbin has given us good faithful service in that respect and our postal service in this area was second to none.

Herbert MacKinnon is wintering well down in his rustic cabin in a sheltered nook under the shadow of Sporting Mountain.

Apparently anticipating an abnormal winter he arranged with the LeBlanc store to have his supplies delivered every week without fail.

Mr. MacKinnon is a veteran and pensioner of World War One.

Benjamin Konning has a pretty pair (goose and gander) of adult Chinese geese, the outcome of four eggs he put under a brooding hen last summer.

Florence LeBlanc is doing her Grade XI work through correspondence.

We wish the likeable Florence success.

Leonard Cook succeeded in reaching Seaview Friday afternoon and loaded his titanic transfer at Hugh J. Hill's pit prop pile.

At date of writing (March ninth) we have snow galore in this region and the monotonous moan of the motor has given place to the more cheerful jingle of sleigh bells.

BELL MUSEUM AT BADDECK TO BE OPENED AUGUST 18

The Alexander Graham Bell Museum at Baddeck, N.S. will be formally opened at a ceremony at 2.3 p.m. August 18. The museum has been established by the Department of Northern Affairs and National Resources to honour the scientific achievements of Dr. Bell in various fields of research on land, sea and in the air.

The museum is the first of its kind to be established by the federal government. Its architectural motif is the tetrahedron, the four-sided pyramidal cell which Bell designed for experimental kites strong enough to carry a man into the air. It has been built on a height overlooking the Bras d'Or Lakes, not far from the summer home where Bell lived between 1893 and 1922. While living at Baddeck Bell and four associates formed the Aerial Experiment Association, which made many contributions to the advancement of aviation. Associated with Bell were J.A.D. McCurdy, later lieutenant-governor of Nova Scotia, F. W. "Casey" Baldwin; Glenn H. Curtiss, the United States aero-engine expert; and Lieut Thomas Selfridge, the U.S. Army's first aviation specialist.

The main address at the opening ceremonies will be deivered by Hon. Jean Lesage Minister of Northern Affairs and National Resources. It is expected that Hon. R.H. Winters Minister of Public Works will preside at the opening ceremony and that Premier Henry D. Hicks of Nova Scotia will be present. Mrs. David Fairchild and Mrs. Gilbert Grosvenor, daughters of Dr. Bell, are expected to attend the opening ceremonies. The scientific relics and records of Dr. Bell's work that will be on display in the museum have been donated very largely by Mrs. Fairchild and Mrs. Grosvenor.

TEACHER CERTIFICATION BOARD

Hon. R. M. Fielding, Minister of Education, announced recently the establishment of an Advisory Board on Teacher Certification, whose duties will be to advise the minister on problems arising from the granting of teachers' licenses, certificates, and permits under the provisions of the Education Act.

Decision to establish the Board followed a recommendation made by the Council on Teacher Education, which comprises representatives of the Department of Education, the Nova Scotia Teachers Union, the universities participating in teacher training, and the Association of Urban and Municipal School Boards.

The members of the board who will meet in the near future to organize and discuss some current problems, are as follows: Dr. J. P. McCarthy, Nova Scotia Normal College, Ralph Kane, Registrar, Department of Education, representing the Department of Education; John Murdoch Bruce, Liverpool, Miss Frances Lewis, Bedford, representing the Nova Scotia Teachers' Union; and Rev. Fr. Donald F. Campbell, Saint F.X. University, representing the universities.

Dr. McCarthy, principal of the Normal College, will be chairman of the new board.

RED CROSS NEWS

First Red Cross Branch to reach its objective this year is Goshen in Guysborough County. Peter A. MacIntosh, Campaign Chairman there, reported success on March 14.

This is the third consecutive year that Goshen Branch has been first over the top in the province.

Richmond County is a close second with Reverend Albert Doucet the Chairman reporting 80%. He also reports that the best news to date is that one of the large fish processing plants has offered to match their employees' contributions dollar for dollar.

Edward F. Crease, Provincial Chairman said that Nova Scotia total was only 7% of the objective and was slightly behind last year due to the heavy snow in most of the province. Mr. Crease said, however, that organization was complete, and the campaign was gaining momentum.

The National total according to latest reports is approahing the one million dollar mark or 15% of the National Objective.

We have had no mail delivery here since last Thursday and the snow plow for this district is broken down at Black River bridge. Another plow was sent out from Grand Anse but could not get through the heavy snow. A party of men with teams and shovels made their way to Grand Anse to meet Doctor Guzdziol with medical supplies for Mrs. MacInnes and her son Angus who are both on the sick list.

Miss Irene MacLeod, student nurse West Bay Road is taking care of them.

Mrs. Christena Morrison who resides with her son-in-law and daughter at The Points suffered a slight stroke during the week.

We are glad to report that all three patients are somewhat improved.

SYMPATHY EXTENDED TO LOCAL MEMBER

The following was taken from the "Bulletin", Bridgewater.—

"The sympathy of the Community is extended to Hon. Robert H. Winters and family on the sudden passing of their thirteen-year-old son, Richard. He passed away at a Colorado Hospital, where he had been taken in an attempt to correct a heart condition. The operation seemed to be satisfactory but the young lad passed away shortly afterwards. Funeral services were held in Ottawa."

The Record joins with the "Bulletin", in extending sympthy to Hon. Mr. Winters and family.

Symbol of Planned Saving

To city people the silo is a symbol of farming. But to farmers, it's a symbol of saving, too—planned saving. Like a Savings Account at the Royal Bank, it's a practical way of storing up wealth for future use. It takes careful planning, though, to make both bank account and silo serve you to best advantage.

Whenever you're working out your farm plans, feel free to come in and discuss them with your Royal Bank Manager. He knows a lot about farming matters, especially the financial side. So regular chats with him can be very much to your advantage. Drop in next time you are near the branch. He'll be glad to see you.

USE THE ROYAL BANK FARMERS ACCOUNT BOOK to keep records of all departments of your farm business. It will show you which operations are profitable—help you to run your farm on a business-like basis. The booklet is free of course. Ask your local Royal Manager for a copy.

Finds Cannon Ball

Louis Richard, while digging clams at Jerseyman's Island in Arichat Harbor, found a large cannon ball recently.

Louis called at the Record office to enquire if we knew any history pertaining to Jerseyman's Island.

The only bit of history we read about the Island was the time John Paul Jones, the American privateer looted and destroyed the fish plant of the Robin, Jones located on the Island and operated by "jerseymen" for the Channel Islands. Possibly this was one of the cannon balls fired from John Paul Jones' pirate ship.

The story of John Paul Jones goes further, when, we are told, he attacked the fish plant of Capt. Clement Hubert. But here, he nearly met his doom. When Capt. Hubert's garrison opened fire on the noted privateer he scurried from the harbor to the open sea.

We have been told Capt. Hubert, a wealthy jerseyman, had a small fort on his property manned with British troops and paid by him for protection from pirate ships who preyed on shipping and business firms along the Atlantic seaboard at that time.

Louis find may be the means of uprooting one of our many famous historic tales of the "Days of Wooden Ships and Iron Men" and when Arichat was a foremost seaport in Eastern Canada.

BUILDING CHARACTER

• • • •

Oh, did you know the little thoughts
That flutter through your mind
Are always either good and pure
Or selfish and unkind.

And did you know that what you think
And what you say today
Will make you what you are to be
Because you grow that way?

Your life is built just like a house:
The things you think and do
Are like the bricks the builders use,
For they are building you.

The bricks that crumble, none would want
To build into a wall,
Because when winds began to blow
The house would quickly fall.

And so, to build your character
And build it strong and sure,
Use pleasant words, do kindly deeds,
And let your thoughts be pure.

Career Men in Khaki

The Signalman

"Get it there first; but first, get it right."

Signals — nerve system of the Canadian Army — a high-speed, accurate combination of radio networks, telephone and teletype systems and motorcycle despatch riders.

The Royal Canadian Corps of Signals, with other corps, offers hundreds of good-paying, lifetime careers. The opportunities for advancement, special training and travel are many. A visit to your Army Recruiting Station will soon show, without obligation, how you can fit in.

Remember, in the Army you team up with men and leaders you can rely on — right down the line.

SERVE CANADA AND YOURSELF IN THE ARMY

To be eligible you must be 17 to 40 years of age, skilled tradesman to 45. When applying bring birth certificate or other proof of age.

Apply right away. Write, 'phone or visit the Army Recruiting Station nearest your home.
