Sporting Mountain Echoes

Date of writing is May third, and once again mute and material things resurrect and rejoice around and about us in accordance with the promise that while the earth remaineth seed time and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease.

Lloyd McRae, of Newcastle, N. B., was a week-end visitor to his family in Seaview.

John N. Morrison motored up from St. Peters Tuesday morning and called upon some of his friends on Sporting Mountain.

We were sincerely glad to see our old neighbor who for some forty years was a citizen of Seaview and always associated with every obligation that pertained to the welfare of the community.

We had occasion to appreciate a visit from Mrs. A. W. H. MacDonald Tuesday afternoon.

We had a birthday recently. It was not our first, but our seventy-sixth. However, the cake (a product of her own well known domestic skill) which Mrs. McDonald brought was our first birthday cake.

We hope Mrs. McDonald is destined to have many happy birth-days.

Florence LeBlanc has accepted employment at the Cozy Corner.

St. Peters thus gets one of Seaview's best girls.

Diann and Leona McLennan were week-end guests of their youthful friends at the LeBlanc and Burke homes.

Roy Wright (Lands and Forests) contacted us Thursday evening.

We were very favorably impressed by Mr. Wright and glad to give him the information he was seeking.

"Politics and progress" was Rev. J. W. A. Nicholson's theme Saturday night and it was interesting to listen to this brilliant son of Richmond County.

It is a singular coincidence that the Urquhart blood which courses through the veins of our outstanding M. L. A., also warms the veins of Rev. J. W. A. Nicholson, M. A.

CELEBRATE
FOUNDERS DAY

The Knights of Columbus, Arichat Club, celebrated Founders Day on April 15th. This was necessary as weather conditions did not permit holding this celebration during the month of March as previously planned. The days activities began with Corporate Communion at the Immaculate Conception Church at West Arichat at 8 a.m., followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at the Lady of Assumption Church, Arichat, at 7 p.m., after which a social was held at the Arichat Convent Hall with most of the members and their wives present. Very Rev. A. P. Poirier, in his usual friendly manner welcomed all and then delivered an address on the Founding of the Knights of Columbus. Rev. A. Doucette, Chaplain of the Club congratulated the members for the effort shown on that day and expressed his hope for a continuation of the good work. Playing cards, Sing Song and a lunch which was served by members of the club comprised the evenings entertainment.

MONTHLY MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of the Arichat Club Knights of Columbus was held on April 26th., at 8 p.m. Reports from the Chairmen of the various committees were read. The President conveyed instructions to the new members present at this meeting. A lengthy discussion took place dealing with the possibility of having a club room. After exchanging ideas with one and all it was decided to defer the matter for a later date.

Mr. A. A. LeBrun who is a member of the Knights for the past thirty years or more advised his intent to generously donate a parcel of land to the club which could later be used to some good advantage.

The meeting was then addressed by the Chaplain, Rev. A Doucet who reminded the members that Communion Sunday is on the first Sunday following the first Friday of the month.

Very Rev. A. P. Poirier also spoke on what the Church expects of the Knights of Columbus and asked for the full support of the Club.

The meeting then adjourned with prayer by Very Rev. Father Poirier.

And MacTavish--Was There
Cape Breton Pipers On Bluery Street

We had to be persuasive to gain entrance through the heavy oak doors of the famed Black Watch Armoury on Bluery Street in this city, Saturday evening the seventh of April....

"No room", the khaki clad guard barked.

"Aside man, we're from Cape Breton". The words worked magic and we entered and stood tip-toed and peered over the heads of the sardined spectators; and we could see the tams and tartans, and the pipes were blowing and the drums beating as the beautiful lassies from our Island swung into action and held the audience in the palms of their hands....

And Monday morning's Gazette of this city splashed the pictures of DRUMMER SYLVIA SHORE, DANCER ANN JACKIE ORAM,. PIPE MAJOR HEATHER MACKENZIE,. GRAND. CHAMPION MABEL.. MACINNIS.. and DRUMMER AVON BURDGE ..across the top of page one section two, and the headlines stood out in bold black type, "TUTTI-FRUTTI COULDN'T BE KEENER"....Which of course was an obtuse comparison.

It was good to listen to the clear resonant voice of Rev. A. W. R. MacKenzie and the applause was louder by far than the wail and the drone of the pipes.

And as the performers were announced we caught the name MARY MORRISON, from St. Peters, our home town, and a tingle tripped up our spines and we thought of and appreciated the great pride Allan D. and Bertha the parents....And we applauded loud for Pipe Major Heather MacKenzie, beautiful and talented, and for Pipe Major Mabel MacInnis of Antigonish; we felt good and marvelled at the skill of the youngster Emile Murphy of her sterling performance in the Irish Jig and applauded loud indeed with the others so that she came back alone and pleased us once more; and the Bag Pipe Solo by the ten year old Adeline Farrel, New Waterford and we would forfiet Denny Vaughn, Shirley Harmer and the Ed. Sullivan Show just to hear Piper Gwen Jones sing "Jock MacKay", "Bonnie Lassie" and "The Tourrie on his Bonnet"; and we tapped our toes and stood straight shouldered as the Drum Section beat with precision and purpose ruffling our very souls.

And there was the Gaelic singing, so that we were once again among the hills and in the halls and the rough cloth beat upon the smooth table top and verse after verse was sung and improvished as the homespun smoothed to the joy of a Milling Frolic..

And our hearts were full and memories fresh and sweet as Mr. MacDonald sang the Twenty Third Psalm..and we could sense the scent of the firs and the pines and see the adherents as they worshipped beneath God's Cape Breton Skies at their Sacraments in Loch Lomond and Framboise, Black River and a dozen other places--in a day now past.

Hats off to the Rev. MacKenzie and all others down there who have made this venture possible and a warm thank you to the parents who guidt and support their offspring in the process of acquiring knowledge and skill which enables them to bring to life again the very spirit of our ancestors.

"Why didn't you tell me,", has been the cry from friends when they were told about the invasion of Cape Breton Lassies.."We wouldn't have missed it for world's."

And now "MacDonald's Hundred" take a tip from a weathered exile and come back to Montreal again, soon, with your colors and your courage and your tunes and your dances and drumming....but for the love of your lakes and your hills and your talent let us know before you cross the Strait and we'll rent the mighty Forum and fill it with highland hearts that beat for Home.

Bonjour

ICEBREAKER
"N. B. MacLEAN"

Completes Nova Scotia Assignment

Ottawa--A variety of task ranging from freeing icebound shipping to trnsporting the sick to hospital marked the tour of duty of the Department of Transport's icebreaker "N. B. McLean" at Sydney, N. S., during the ice break-up season.

In the 76 days the vessel was based at that port, it logged over 5,400 miles before returning to its home station, Quebec City.

It was shortly after arriving at Sydney from Quebec, early in February, that the vessel responded to an emergency call from Scatari Island where a young girl lay seriously ill, and brought her to hospital in Sydney. In mid-April, the "N. B. McLean" picked up a sick seaman from a French trawler three miles north of Low Point and brought him into port for hospitalization.

Over 40 vessels, ranging in size from large tankers and freighters to small fishing craft, were assisted through the ice packs which sporadically block the harbour at Sydney and nearby shipping lanes during the early spring.

One trip to the Magadalen Island resulting in the freezing of four sealing vessels which had imboilized by heavy ice jam. On another occasion the Transport Deparment's veteran icebreaker sliced a path through ice clogging Glace Bay Harbour and enabled a group of fishing boats to proceed to the fishing grounds.

The "N. B. McLean's" last assignment in its capacity as icebreaker before returning to Quebec City was to assist the tug "Bansturdy" through the ice from the Canso Causeway to west of Cape George on April 21.

Annually, the Department of Trnnsport renders icebreaking service in the Nova Scotia area during the spring break-up. In command of the 3254-ton "N. B. McLean" is Capt. W. Dufour, veteran skipper in battling ice hazards on the east coast and in northern waters. The vessel carries a crew of 52 and will shortly go into dry dock for inspection, repair and overhaul preparatory to carrying out duties this summer in northern waters.
