Joseph Leo Boyd Killed in Accident

The parents, relatives and friends of Joseph Leo Boyd, were shocked to learn of his death in a highway accident at Senaperre, Que., when a jeep in which he and a companion were driving left the highway and rolled over an embankment several times, pinning Boyd and his companion.

Boyd was instantly killed and his associate miraculously escaped a similar fate.

Joe was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Boyd, of River Bourgeois, was a general favorite of everyone in the community. An industrious boy he joined the C.N.R., last year and was a member of the railway construction crews working in several Quebec areas.

Besides his parents he is survived by five brothers, Charlie, a twin brother, who is employed with the Nova Scotia Power Commission at Goshen; Hervey and Gerrard at Goose Bay, Labrador, now at home; Kevin with the C. P. R., in Toronto; Maynard at home.

The whole-hearted sympathy of friends go out to the bereaved parents and brothers, in their great loss of a beloved son and brother.

Gaelic Mod To Honour Doctor Bell

ST. ANN, Cape Breton.—Scots here for the annual Nova Scotia Gaelic Mod, August 8-13, will dedicate their first day's program to the memory of Alexander Graham Bell, who spent his summers in this area for nearly 30 years because Cape Bretons highlands reminded him of his native Scotland.

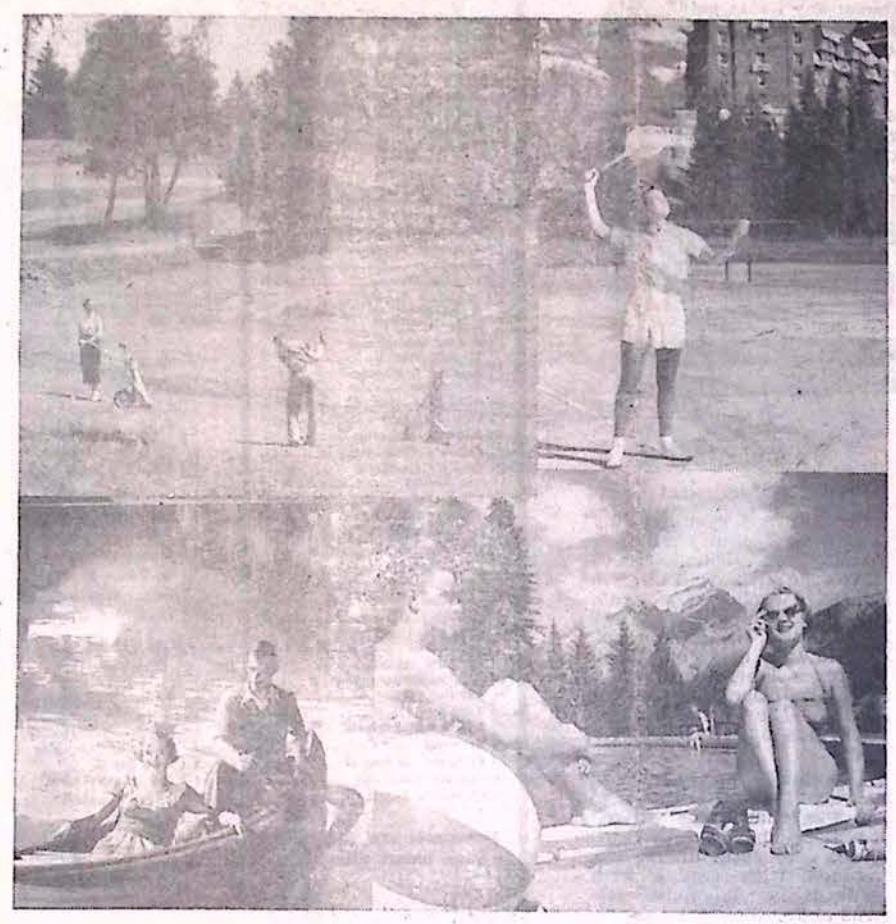

The tribute here will anticipate the dedication of the new Bell Museum at Baddeck, August 18. Doctor Bell engaged in some of his most important research during his visits to Cape Breton Island and was buried near his home, Beinn Bhreagh (Gaelic for "beautiful hill") near Baddeck.

The address honouring Doctor Bell will be made by the Premier of Nova Scotia, Hon. Henry D. Hicks.

As usual, the Mod will have distinguished guests from Scotland, as well as visitors of Scottish descent from many parts of Canada and the United States. The Marquis of Huntly, Douglas, world chief of the Clan Gordon, will be guest of honor.

VACATION TIME

Golf, swimming, tennis and canoeing, these are a few of the outdoor attractions to be found this summer at Canadian Pacific hotels across the nation. Upper left, a slick approach shot is made to the green at St. Andrews, N. B. Upper right, a young miss trys her hand at some tennis at Banff Springs Hotel, Banff, Atla. Lower left, the clear waters of Lake Louise, Alta., make for smooth canoeing. Lower right, a young couple bask in the sunlight and scenery found at the Banff Springs Hotel. These and numerous other outdoor activities are typical of the summertime attractions at Canadian Pacific hotels throughout Canada.

"MacTavish" On Holiday

J. W. (Bill) Calder, now visiting his native St. Peter's paid us a friendly call one day this week and it goes without saying that we were delighted to see him.

Better known as "MacTavish", by our readers his human interest stories are much enjoyed and always receive favourable comment every time they appear in in our columns.

He was accompanied from Montreal by his wife and son and are the guests of a broher, James Calder and family also his step-father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Cotton, St. Peters.

May their holidays be filled with joy and gladness.

First Nova Scotia Festival of Art To Be Held At Tatamagouche

This is the spacious location at Tatamagouche on the rural high school grounds where thousnds will come on Aug. 13 and 14 to see, hear and take part in the first Nova Scotia Festival of Art. The scene will have a carnival air on Festival days when there will be pipe and and brass bands, flags, bunting and decked tents housing top displays of paintings, crafts, photography and antiques and concerts and recitals featuring outstanding Nova Scotia performers in music, dancing and drama, staged in the auditorium of the school. Talking over the coming event are left, Ray Curruthers, of Festival council and right. Thomas Pugh, president of the council. The cairn in the foreground commemmorates a naval encounter in 1745 when the British drove ashore the French, who were getting supplies in vessels that came from Louisbourg.

Societe St. Pierre Annual Drive For Funds

The Directors of the Societe St. Pierre have fixed the date of their annual campaign for funds for the week of August 15th. This coincides with the usual celebrations which are held on or around the 15th of August. This is the date on which the Acadian population honors its patron saint, Our Lady of the Assumption. The campaign last year brought the good sum of approximately $2500, the largest sum for the past two or three years. With the maximum of efforts by all concerned, the Directors are setting their goal on the sum of $3,000.00 for this year.

Canvassers will be appointed in each Acadian parish to solicit donations to the Society to enable it to continue its work of educating our young men and women in all walks of life. Since its organization in 1947 , the society has helped over 38 young men and women to achieve their goals of obtaining secondary and professional education. It now counts among its alumni doctors, priests, lawyers, teachers, inspectors of schools, nurses, domestic science teachers and others. Each year there are more demands for financial help than the society has funds at its disposal to allot into scholarships. These scholarships are usually in the amount of $250.00 and are interest free until the recipient begins to earn his living. With the growing demands made by the business world for trained personnel in all walks of life, the work of the society takes on added signifinance. So, when you are approached by canvassers on behalf of the societe St. Pierre the week of August 15th give and give generously. There is no better investment than investing in the youth of our country.

(The Record wishes this worthy cause every success in their campaign. Results of the campaign will be published. See that your district lends its support.—Ed.)

DUNDEE DEW DROPS

It is almost unbelieveable, that so much of the summer season is passed and already many vacationers have left the country, but yet, they keep coming.

Mrs. Coe, accompanied by Mrs. Eula Cox and Miss Gladys Cox of Miami, Fla., have arrived at "Rainbow Haven", Dundee and are enjoying a real vacation after an absence of two years.

Among others who are here on vacation are Mrs. John N. Campbell and daughter Norma, also Bessie MacRae, all of Brookline, Mass., who motored home on June 23rd and are occupying their summer Cottage at Dundee. Bessie is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest MacRae.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex MacLeod and Mrs. Christine MacKenzie arrived at The Points, on Tuesday and left on Saturday for a visit to Sterling and Framboise.

Mrs. Allan (Tailor) McDonald, formerly of West Bay accompanied by her daughter, Margaret and her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Hector MacDonald with their family at West Bay and adjoining communities, when they arrived from a week's vacation from Boston recently. It was their first visit there since they left Cape Breton and they found many changes in the little village. Among those who were greatly missed was the late C. R. Leonard, who was a close friend of the MacDonald's.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Henderson of Nattic, Mass., have opened their summer home at Lime Hill.

We were pleased with a visit, during the week from Mrs. Alex Sinclair and charming little seven month old baby, Laura, of Melrose, her father, Mr. J. J. Russo and aunt, Miss Hughena Campbell, arrived for a short vacation here.

Friendly calls were also received during the week, from Miss Emma Pringle and Mrs. Jerry Kacheanias (Jessie MacKay) of Boston, Mass., who are visiing with Mr. and Mrs. Will Pringle and Mr. D. D. MacKay, respectively.

J. H. MacIntosh has been taken to the City Hospital, Sydney, for treatment. We sincerely trust that Mr. McIntosh will improve by close medical attention.

The many friends of D. D. MacKay, The Points, are sorry to hear of his sudden illness. Mr. MacKay suffered a shock and has not responded to medical treatment. His duaghter, Mrs. Jessie Kachianas and granddaughter, Coleen arrived home recently from Allston, Mass.

(Word has been received that Mr. MacKay, has passed away. A fuller obituary will appear in later issue.)

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Grant, Halifax, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hoare of Truro, made a friendly call on Thursday. They planned a visit to D. A. S., before returning home.

Your correspondent had a break in a long seige of domestic responsibilities and crossed the "Canso Causeway" for the first time since the Construction of The Beautiful "Road to the Isles". It is really a dream. With Bert MacDougall as driver, we visited the towns of Antigonish and New Glasgow, dined at McCarron's Tea Room and arrived back to Dundee at 6 p.m., in the cool of the evening after enduring much heat, shopping in the crowded stores.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel MacDougall and Miss Ann MacCuish of Brookline Mass., arrived here. After spending the night at The Points, they left for Mira, where they will visit for a time.

A strawberry festival was held at St. George's Channel on Saturday Eve and was attl tended by a generous crowd. Proceeds netted $67.00 and will go towards church funds.

We are always pleased to read about "MacTavish" in Montreal and hope to see him now that he is on holidays in his native St. Peters.

Wedding

Fleet-MacDonald

On Saturday evening, July 14th a very pretty summer wedding was solemnized at St. George's Anglican Church, Halifax, when Mary Jean, daughter of Mr. and the late Mrs. Hugh N. MacDonald, became the bride of Alvin Lawrence Fleet, son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Fleet, Ecum Secum. The marriage was performed by Rev. B. Williams.

The bride was given in marriage by Earl Baimbridge and was charmingly attired in a floor-length white gown of net over satin underskirt, trimmed with sequins with net form diamond-shaped patterns above the skirt flounce, and a long sleeeved bolero with sequin trimmed collar, and she wore a three-quarter length veil. She carried a bouquet of red roses. Mrs. Ernest Fleet, cousin of the bride was maid of honour wearing a full-length gown of blue nylon and carried a bouquet of carnations. The bridesmaid was Thelma Fleet, mauve gown of net over satin niece of the groom wearing a underskirt with a lace bolero and carried a bouquet of carnations.

The groom was attended by his brother, Ernest Fleet and Oscar Keefe.

A reception was held at the Horse Shoe Club. Jack Crocker proposed the toast to the bride and groom. The table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake and cut in traditional style by the bride and groom.

Outside guests at the wedding included Mrs. Gordon Mauger, Cape La Ronde; Shirley and Margaret MacDonald, sisters of the bride, Grand Anse; Anthony Burke, Grand Anse; Mrs. Isaac Fleet, mother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fleet, Cecil Pye, Freddie Fleet, Mrs. Basil Fleet, Ecum Secum.

On Tuesday the happy couple came to the bride's home at Grand Anse, where a reception was held in their honour the following evening. Many beautiful gifts were received. The table of gifts was centered by a beautifully decorated bridal cake presented by Mrs. Gerald Campbell. The address was given in honour of the bride and groom by Mr. W. S. Urquhart. Gifts were opened by Margaret Peeples and Margaret MacDonld; cards were read by Mrs. Gerald Campbell. Lunch was served by the ladies.

Outside guests were: Mrs. Edwin Peeples, Mrs. Earl Peeples, Anna and Margaret Peeples, Mrs. Robert Oliver, Pt. Tupper; also Wesley Peeples who is vacationing at his home at Pt. Tupper, from R.C.A.F. Station Centralia, Ont., Mr. and Mrs. Lennox Mauger, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Mauger, Cape LaRonde; Mrs. William MacDonald, Halifax; Mrs. Ranald Ferguson and daughter, Kathryn and Joe MacCormack, of Cleveland; Ruth and Gladys Gamblin, Sussex, N. B.; Mr. and Mrs. Ross MacIntosh, Hugh MacInnis and Bert MacDougall, St. George's Channel; Mrs. Gerald Campbell, Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Digdon, and children, Billie and Marlene, West Arichat.

We wish the young couple a long and happy wedded life.

Mrs. Archange Poirier

The whole village of Poirierville was saddened on the 19th inst., by the passing of a life-long and much esteemed resident, Mrs. Archange Poirier. Although Mrs. Poirier had reached the age of 85, until three weeks before her death, she was very active in both parish and community affairs.

Mrs. Poirier was taken ill on July 2nd and failed to recuperate. During her short illness she was cared for by her four duaghters, Eva, Corrine, Dora and Agnes.

Mrs. Poirier was a devout member of St. Hyacinth's Roman Catholic Church from where funeral services were held on Saturday, the 21st inst., with Rev. W. A. Boucher, pastor, as celebrant of the Solemn High Mass; Very Rev. A. P. Poirier, was deacon; Rev. A. Doucet, subdeacon; Rev. C. P. Gerrior, Master of Cermonies. Very Rev. A. P. Poirier officiated at the grave.

Les Filles de Jesus of O. L. A. Convent, Arichat played and sang for the funeral Mass.

"Madame Archange"' as she was familarly known will be missed by her many friends, but especially by those whom she leaves to mourn her death: Capt. Vincent Poirier, Wollaston, Mass, Raymond, East Boston; Charles, Boston; Docity, Poirierville; Mrs. Martin Baccardax, (Dora), D'Escousse; Mrs. Hugh Curry, (Eva), Sydney;

Mrs. Wilfred Cordeau, (Corrine), Poirierville; Mrs. Esau Haddad, (Mary), Sydney; one sister, Mrs. Annie O'Keefe, Bathurst, N. B.; 28 grand-children and 9 Great-grand-children.

The late Mrs. Poirier's husband predeceased her nine years ago; also one son, Lauchlin, in 1911.

May the soul of our dear mother and grandmother, "Rest in Peace.".

(The above obituary was written by a grandson of the deceased. We join in extending sympathy to the bereaved family.—Editor.)
