Acadians To Celebrate

In 1758 one of the most memorable pilgrimages to Nova Scotia ended on the picturesque shore of St. Mary's Bay. Three hundred and fifty families, expelled from their beloved Nova Scotia in 1775, walked the entire distance from Boston, during the summer of 1758 finally reaching the district now known as Clare where they determined to start a new and happier life.

In time villages grew and became known as Meteghan, Saulnierville, Comeauville, Church Point, St. Bernard's, Belliveau's Cove, etc., with church spires clearly marking each settlement.

With the towns closely interlinked the 32 mile stretch from Yarmouth County through Digby county along the shore became known as the "longest main street in America", peopled by Acadians who cherish their mother tongue and keep alive their traditions and customs which they inherited from their ancestors who settled the shore almost two centuries ago.

This year the villages of the area plan a grand Acadian Festival, one which is planned to be the first of an annual event.

Through August 8 to 15 both young and old will dress in their colorful Basque, Bretagne or Ile de France costumes, walking along the highways, dancing and taking part in the many events scheduled for the gay week. The French shore of St. Mary's Bay will look like "Old France" with the tri-color flags adding additional colour to the costumed inhabitants.

Wednesday, August 8, a program of Acadian folksongs sung 'round a huge bonfire on the historic 'Point', near the light house will start off the celebrations.

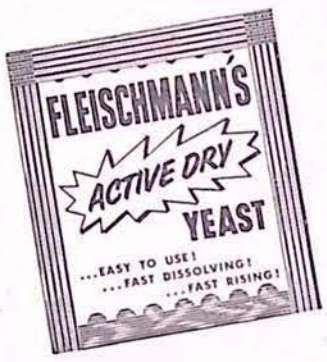

On Friday at a dance at Meteghan, "Evangeline" and "Gabriel" will be chosen to reign over the festival.

Sunday will see a grand Acadian Festival parade from Saunierville to Church Point ending on the grounds of St. Anne's College where also will be held the first "Clare Industrial Exhibition"—an exhibition of the products of industries of the area and also displays of handcrafts, paintings, etc. This will be continued on Monday which will feature at St. Ann's College a festival banquet the guest Flavien Melanson, Yarmouth.

The festival will close Wednesday, August 15 with the celebration of Mass on the college grounds of St. Anne's at nine o'clock in the evening.

Those who attended the service at Black River United Church, Sunday Evening at 7.30 had the unusual privilege of listening to a Gaelic Service. The recording was made at the Scotch Presbyberian Church in Boston, early in May of this year, when Rev. Norman MacQueen, formerly of Cape Breton, preached his last Gaelic Service.

The sermon taken from the book of Revelations was most impressive and the singing of the psalms and parafaces, took us back to yesteryears, when the church inside, and the air around, would be filled with the voices of those who now are at rest. A number of Anthems were also rendered by noted Gaelic singers and were much enjoye.d

The recorder, which is the property of John N. Campbell, of Brookline, Mass., served a worthy purpose, in the absence of our regular preacher, Rev. R. H. Humbey, who is now enjoying a vacation in his native Newfoundland.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Whidden and family, Halifax are visiting Mrs. Whidden's father, J. D. Calder, St. George's Channel.

Mrs. Catherine Partriquin, of Boston, Mass., is vsiting at St. George's Channel.

It was a pleasure to see so many old acquainta ces, at the church. Among those were: Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie MacDonald of California, who are visiting friends and relatives in Cape Breton. They were accompanied by Mrs. MacDonald's mother, also Mr. and Mrs. Dan A. MacDonald of Hawkesbury.

James R. Morrison of Lynn, Mass., is here on vacation and dropped in to see us.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Parker, North Sydney are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Campbell, The Points.

Miss Faye MacLeod daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan A. MacLeod of Framboise and John MacLeod of the same place spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Alex MacLeod at the Points.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan N. MacDougall, motored to Orangedale, on Sundap the 29th and visited Duncan MacLean, who is now vacationing with his mother in the old home.

Old Veteran From Louisburg

Alex MacKinnon of Louisburg, accompanied by his son, Aubrey, Fisheries Officer, Dept. of Fisheries, also of Louisburg, accompanned by Grant MacKillop of Grand River, were recent welcome visitors to our office.

The kind and hospitable Alex MacKinnon and his good wife, Sadie were our friends when we served in the Canadian Customs at Gabarus 25 years ago and their many acts of kindness will always be remembered and cherished.

Alex is a veteran of the war of 1914-18 and held the rank of Seargent-Major in the 85th batallion, Cape Beeton's first batallion in the first war.

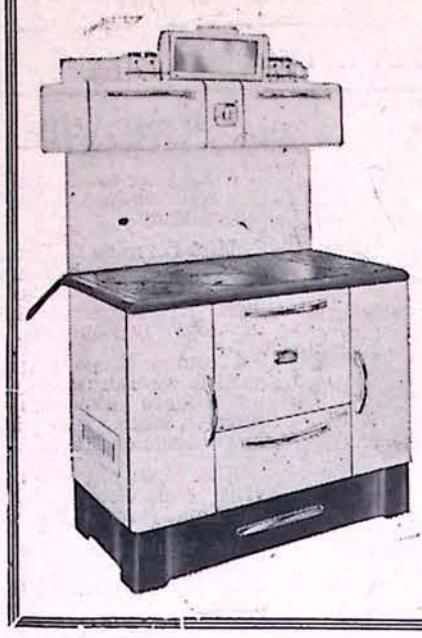

In watching our old friend, Alex walk across the street to his son's car, with head erect and no trace of stooped shoulders, we admired this well built highlander, whom we feel could still bark out cammands on the parade square and be respected by the Company in his charge.

General MacArthur was right when he said: "Old Soldier's Never Die."

Mr. MacKinnon's son Aubrey served in the last war.

Before returning to their home in Louisburg they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rod MacKillop, Ferguson's Lake. Mrs. MacKinon bing a sister to Mrs. MacKillop.

DRAGGER BURNT IN STRAIT OF CANSO

The 60-foot fishing dragger Gloucester XIV was destroyed by fire recently in the moved through the Strait of Canso bound for the fishing grounds. The owner and skipper, Martin Picco and his four-man crew landed at Jerseyman's Island, in Arichat harbor without injury.

The fire broke out in the engine room shortly after the dragger left Booth Fisheries Pier at Petit de Grat.. Abel LeBlanc, lightkeeper on the Island, saw the vessel break out in flames and rowed to the side of the $50,000 craft.

However, the crew managed to lower the dory from its location over the engine room before the flames enveloped the dragger.

The dragger burned for almost three hours before she sank. The crew lost all their personal belongings.

We understand that Capt. Picco will purchase a new dragger to replace the Gloucester XIV.

Meet the NEW boss of the family!

Are we proud of our new Pontiac? You bet! Every time I think about this Pontiac's superb performance I want to get in and start driving. And style! . . . comfort! . . real luxury! Well, just look at it! And when you get your Pontiac you'll say it, too. It's great . . . simply great!

Being a woman, I'm naturally attracted to color and style . . . and this new Pontiac of ours—as well as all the others we see on the roads—is teaching me lots of new tricks with color and design. Pontiac's trim good looks make it easy to "dress up" to. That's important and very pleasant!

Isn't it divine . . . I mean really! Absolutely everybody is proud of our new car—and not just because it's another Pontiac. It's because . . . well, it's a little hard to explain, but I guess it's because Pontiac this year is the most—a real cool car. I mean . . . really!

Gee whiz! I'm the most popular guy on the street—all the kids want rides in our new car. And no wonder, because—honest—it's a real honey! Dad's new Pontiac is even better than the last one...and he's been getting Pontiacs for a long, long time. When I'm old enough to own a car, it'll be a Pontiac, too!

Add a lift to your family living . . .
