Wedding

McNEIL — McDONALD

St. Agnes Church, Halifax, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday, August 25th at 8 o'clock Mass, when Muriel Nancy, youngest daughter of Alphonse McDonald and the late Mrs. McDonald of Halifax, formerly of D'Escousse, became the bride of John Wallace MacNeil, son of Mrs. D. P. McNeil and the late Mr. McNeil of Halifax. Rev. Father McCarthy officiated at the double ring ceremony. The church was decorated with Pink Gladoli and White Pams.

The organist was Mr. LesGoodyer. The soloist, was Mr. Moran.

The bride given in marriage by her father, looked charming in her white strapless waltz length gown, styled in layers of nylon tulle and chantilly lace.

The chantilly lace jacket had high collar and fitted sleeves. Her fingertip veil of tulle illusion was gathered by a headpiece of pleated nylon with sequins trim.

The bride carried a nosegay of mixed flowers. Miss Rita MacNeil, sister of the groom was bridesmaid and wore a shrimp colored crystal charm waltz length gown, on princess lines, with sweetheart featured short sleeves and styled neckline. She carried a nosegay of mixed flowers.

Douglas Baccardax was best man.

Mrs. Leon Baccardax, the bride's only sister wore a street length dress of aqua crystalette with matching accessories. Her corsage was pink and white carnations.

Mrs. MacNeil, mother of the groom wore grey printed taffeta with matching accessories. Her corsage being pink and white carnations.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to the immediate families at the home of the bride's sister, 35 Doug Smith Drive.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Father McCarthy and responded to by the groom.

The happy couple left by car for such points as Long Island, New York and Cambridge, Mass.

For travelling the bride wore a shrimp white dress with white accessories. Her corsage white and pink Gladiolii.

Upon their return the couple will reside in Halifax.

The Record joins with the many friends of the young couple in wishing them both a long a happy wedded life.

Sporting Mountain Echoes

At Petit de Grat on the morning of August twenty seventh, Rev. Father Forrest officiated in the marriage of Lucille Martell of Little Anse and Alfred Boudreau of Seaview.

There was rejoicing on either side of the Passage during the day, but in the evening all roads led to the spacious Boudreau home where a vast crowd assembled for a typical old time wedding which prevailed throughout the night.

We know the bride but, by good reputation, but had occasion to be familar with the groom from the cradle up.

We extend hearty congratulations and wish the happy couple long and pleasant sailing on the matrimonial sea.

50th Wedding Anniversary

Congratulations are being extended to Councillor and Mrs. John Doiron, of Port Royal, on their 50th Wedding Anniversary, which was celebrated on Sunday, at their home when members of their family and neighbors gathered to congratulate the happy couple.

The following members of their family of ten children were present for the happy occasion: Mrs. Miley Benoit, (Marie), of Halifax; Mrs. Wilbert Murray, (Lillian), Mulgrave; Mrs. Hubert Forgeron, (Margaret), Mrs. Anthony LeBlanc, (Irene) and Mrs. Numan Bona, (Evangeline), all of Port Royal; Clement of Moncton, Fred of Halifax, Wallace and Vincent of Port Royal. The youngest member of the family, David, employed in Ontario, was unable to attend.

A purse of money and a T. V. Set was presented the couple as well as many other gifts.

The following clipping taken from the "Richmond Record" of 50 years ago appeared in the Port Royal Notes."—

"The marriage took place on Wednesday, the 5th inst., in the Church of the Immaculate Conception, West Arichat, of John Doiron and Miss Clara Boudreau, both of this place. The bride looked charming in a dress of lilac silk with hat to match. The groomsmen were: Capt. H. Poirier, Principal Doucet and L. A. LeBlanc, while Misses Lily Boudreau, Bella Terrio and Leda Forgeron, assisted the bride. The happy couple left same day by the S. S. Pretoria for Boston, where they will reside for the winter.'

Former Pastor Visits Arichat

Former parishioners and friends of Col. the Rev. William Rippon, of French Village, were cheered by his presence over the week-end. Accompanied by his good wife and daughter, Rosemary, they had just returned from a motor trip over the Cabot Trail and were thrilled by the scenic beauty of our Northern Cape Breton National Park.

Col. Rippon was a former beloved Rector of St. John's Parish, Arichat, where eh was ordained to the priesthood, by Rt. Rev. Bishop Waterman, in 1951—this was the first ordination ever to be recorded in the history of the parish which dates back to 1828.

During their short visit they visited as many old friends and acquaintances, as time would permit.

After serving the Parish of St. John's for nearly three years, he was placed in charge of the large parish of French Village where he has served ever since.

Sure to please!

Easy to make... and sure to please the fussiest appetite! You'll make them often... these light tender buns with a delicate orange flavor. For finest results when you bake at home, always depend on Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast!

Orange Blossom Buns

1. Scald
½ cup milk
Stir in
½ cup granulated sugar
1½ teaspoons salt
⅓ cup shortening
Cool to lukewarm.
2. Meantime, measure into bowl
½ cup lukewarm water
Stir in
2 teaspoons granulated sugar
Sprinkle with contents of
2 envelopes Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast
Let stand 10 minutes, THEN stir well.
Stir in lukewarm milk mixture and
2 well-beaten eggs
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
Sift together and stir in
2 cups once-sifted all-purpose flour
½ teaspoon ground mace
and beat until smooth and elastic.
Work in an additional
2 cups (about) once-sifted all-purpose flour
3. Turn out dough on lightly-floured board. Knead until smooth and elastic. Place in greased bowl. Brush with melted butter or margarine. Cover. Let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour.
4. Punch down dough. Halve the dough; form each half into an 8-inch roll. Cut each roll into 8 equal pieces; form into smooth balls. Place in greased muffin pans. Brush with melted butter or margarine. Cover. Let rise until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour.
Dip
16 cubes of sugar
one at a time, into a little orange juice
and press a cube into top of each bun. Bake in a moderately hot oven, 375°, about 25 minutes.
Yield—16 buns.

BOUCHER — DeWOLFE

Miss Talida Deolfe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred DeWolfe, of Arichat, became the bride of Raymond Boucher, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Boucher, on Monday, in Our Lady of the Assumption Church, Arichat. Rev A. P. Poirier, performed the ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass in the midst of relatives and friends.

The bride was attired in a blue suit with white and navy accessories and a corsage of white roses. She carried a white prayer book with white and blue streamers.

Mrs. Elias Boudreau, sister of of the bride, was bridesmaid and wore a light blue suit with pink accessories and corsage of pink carnations. She also carried a prayer book with streamers.

The groom was attended by his brother, Peter Boucher.

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Jeffrey DeCoste, to close relatives of the bride and groom. Rev. A. P. Poirier was in attendance.

They were the recipients of many useful gifts.

The bride previous to her marriage was employed as a bookkeeper with an Industrial Contractors Firm in Union City, N. J., for the past three years. Mr. Boucher is employed as carpenter foreman with Acadia Fisheries, Ltd., at Mulgrave.

They will reside at Arichat.

We wish both Mr. and Mrs. Boucher, many years of happy wedded life.

Very Rev. P. A. LeBlanc 88, Dies At Cheticamp

One of the oldest priests in the diocese of Antigonish, the Very Rev. Patrice Abraham LeBlanc, 88, died Tuesday at Sacred Heart Hospital, Cheticamp, Inverness County, where he lived since his retirement from active priestly duties in June 1953.

His death followed a period of ailing health and removed from the Diocese one of the most beloved clergy and from the French Acadian population of Nova Scotia one of its dominant figures.

Father LeBlanc enjoyed the unique distinction of having served in only two pastorates during 48 years of active parochial duties. His first parish after his ordination in 1905 and from 1909 until his retirement in 1953 he labored at Cheticamp.

His pastorate at Cheticamp was identified with the establishment of Sacred Heart Convent and later Sacred Heart Hospital and these were just several of a long line of parochial and community projects that were marked by his earnest and fervent leadership.

Inverness County has gone into deep mourning over the passing of this lovable priest whose works and deeds will ever be enshrined in the memory of those with whom he labored for over half a century of priesthood.

Father LeBlanc was born at Belle Cote, Jaunary 6, 1868, a son of Abraham LeBlanc and Margaret Thompson.

Educated at St. Francis Xavier University and at St. Ann's College, Church Point, N. S., he entered Grand Seminary of Quebec for his theological studies and on August 5, 1905, was ordained at St. Ninian's Cathedral, Antigonish, by Bishop John Cameron.

Following his ordination he was immediately posted to South Ingonish and believed to be the first full time pastor stationed in that district.

In July 1909, he was transferred to Cheticamp where he remained for the rest of his life.

In June 1953, ailing health forced him to give up his pastoral duties, but he never moved from the parish and instead took up residence at Sacred Heart Hospital where the end came.

In June 1950, he was signally honored and recognized by the diocese and vested with the rank of Very Reverend Dean of North Inverness, and which he retained the remainder of his life.

Little Children Need Your Help

(The following true story will give our readers an idea of just how the workers of the Children's Aid Society of Cape Breton are helping unfortunate children who have been deprived of a home and the loving care of parents. We heartily endorse the campaign for funds to help assist this Society in their great work.—Editor.)

"I can still remember a feeling of complete loss, on the day the Social Worker ushered my three sisters and myself up the stairs of the "orphange". Although we all knew we would be in the institution for a few months only, until mother was well and able to care for us again, it did not help to overcome the complete depression I then experienced.

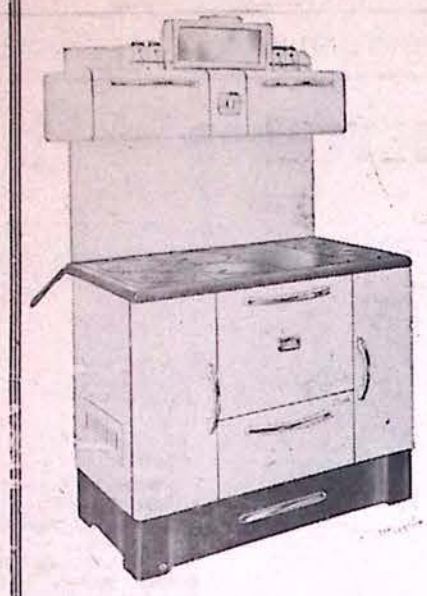

The first day in our new "home" was certainly an eye-opener. Much to our surprise, we found many girls our own age, playing and laughing together, and before the day was out, we, too, had become members of this big, happy family. Adjustment came quickly, and this new experience did a lot to impress in my mind forever, just how lucky my family was.

I recall now, with admiration, my "orphaanage friends" who were not as fortunate as myself, who could not claim a mother and father of their own, or a feeling of parental affection. To us, who can count on this everyday, it is not unusual, but to a child who is not endowed with it, it becomes something big and very, very important both in their PRESENT life and their FUTURE.

Your contribuions enable the Children's Aid Society to provide this natural home setting for Cape Breton Children under their care. Will you deprive a child of love, affection, and a chance for real happiness? or will you support your Children's Aid Society during its annual Campaign for Fund!

Our old friend, Mr. John C. Abbott, J., of Fort Lee, N. J., is a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Linden, West Arichat.

We were pleasantly surprised to have a call from Mr. Abbott, but were also disappointed to learn his son, John never made the trip down with him. Now we will be forced to answer John's letter, long overdue however we were happy to learn that our brother printer, was doing well, in fact so well, he couldn't accompany his Dad on the trip.

Mr. Abbott, a retired Commissioner of Schools, is looking hale and hearty and still as jovial as ever. Before leaving us he left a few jokes—maybe we'll publish them sometime and by so doing increase our circulation.

Felix Linden, better known as (Frenchy) by Mr. Abbott, tells us his old friend sent for him to rid the bay of some big codfish, a sport Mr. Abbott, enjoys very much.

JOHN H. FORREST

One of Everett's best known and most popular residents, 75-year old John H. Forrest of 149 Hancock Street, was killed recently when a staging from which he was reshingling a Chestnut Street home collapsed.

The victim fell 15 feet with his head landing on concrete front steps. He never regained consciousness and was dead on arrival at Whidden Hospital.

Badly injured in the staging collapse was his 15-year old grandson, Daniel Forrest of Saugus, who was a helper on the project. The youth suffered a broken left arm and other multiple body cuts and bruises. He was detained at Whidden Hospital.

Mr. Forrait and his grandson were working on the property of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Darragh, Sr., who were not home at the time of the accident. Neighbors who saw the mishap called police.

The funeral was held from the Immaculate Conception Church, with a Solemn High Mass. Burial was at Holy Cross Cemetery.

The late Mr. Forrest was a native of (Lochside,) Arichat, had been a carpenter for more than 50 years. He retired five years ago as construction foreman for United Cork Company of Watertown, where he had worked for 34 years. Since then he had been doing odd carpentry jobs.

He leaves a wife, Delia, two sons, James H., of Everett and John A., Saugus, a daughter, Mrs. Rita Leighton of Everett, several grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Daniel, a son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Forrest, is a sophomore at Saugus High School.

Angling for a "compleat" car?

Two pets—both frisky! "Dachsy's" tricks are fun, but this Pontiac has some tricks up its fenders, too. Pleasant tricks with your budget . . . and some startling road performances. Your dealer can show you.

Best catch of the day! Oh, we're not talking about the fish . . . it's only average. It's that Pontiac, and the smiles are for the car, not the fish. See it at your dealer's.

A GENERAL MOTORS VALUE

Seems like everyone's looking for the perfect... the "compleat"... car! And it's no farther away than your nearest Pontiac dealer. You'll find proof that Pontiac combines grace, beauty, prestige and performance and reasonable price . . . a "compleatness" that goes far, far deeper than mere looks or accessories!

Then—Enjoy a Demonstration Drive in this car of cars. Believe us, you'll relish the way it hugs the curves, slides smoothly up or down hills, takes every straightaway with supreme confidence. The ride's the thing . . . and with Pontiac what a wonderful ride it is.

All this is very exciting . . . but the best part of all in this "compleat" Pontiac is its price. With all of Pontiac's pleasure and prestige, it's still easily within anyone's budget, priced right down with the lowest. Yes—just like a trout to a "Royal Coachman" . . . that's how you'll rise to a Pontiac. Be sure you do—soon!

As Izaak Walton put it; "Tis a wondrous fine catch to be sure."
