Richmond County Council Home And School

Meeting in the school auditorium at St. Peter's on Wednesday for the Spring sessions of the Richmond County Council of Home and School Associations were delegates and visitors from local Associations throughout the County. Presiding at the meeting was Mr. M. A. MacNeil, Louisdale, Council President.

Invocation was given by Rev. Paul MacNeil, P. P., St. Peter's, and a warm welcome was extended by Rev. J. Parker Matheson.

Reports of Associations indicated that many worthwhile projects had been sponsored. Reports of special Council Committees also gave detailed accounts of Speech and Music Festivals held in the County this Spring.

Father MacNeil, reporting for the library committee, explained that due to County finances the project had not been realized this year. It was the decision of the Council of Home and School Associations to continue to work for library service in the County with the same core committee.

Mrs. W. C. Langley, Point Tupper, gave an interesting report on the Parent Education Conference sponsored by he Federation which she attended at Halifax.

In his report as President, Mr. MacNeil gave a clear picture of Home and School in the County. A new Association this year, Petit de Grat, was welcomed to the Council.

Mrs. Paul White, Regional Vice President of the Federation, gave a short summary of the Regional Conference held last Fall at Port Hawkesbury, and mentioned that reports given at all Councils she had attended this Spring were exceptionally good.

Following these reports, Mr. Joseph T. Chiasson, Adult Education Representative, Sydney, addressed the meeting. Mr. Chiasson suggested that Richmond County Council, which had excellent leadership, should encourage leadership training by continuing to sponsor, as they have in the past, students to the School of Community Arts and to Folk Schools.

During the afternoon session groups discussed the furthering of Music in the County, educational finance, and closer cooperation between Home and School Associations, local Trustees, and Municipal School Board. Reports on these discussions were read at the evening session.

On display in the auditorium was an attractive display of sewing, handcrafts, and art work by the school children of the County.

Special feature of the evening session was a panel discussion on Discipline chared by Mr. Joseph T. Chiasson. The panel members were: Rev. J. Parker Matheson, St. Peter's; Mrs. E. A. Martell, L'Ardoise; Miss Eva Maurer, Lakeside School; Mr. Carl Boudreau, Little Anse School; and Mr. Carl Boudreau, Little Anse School and Mr. Vincent McCarthy, Riverdaue School. The meaning of "discipline" and the difference between classroom and home discipline were brought out by the panel, followed by discussion from the floor.

Miss Barbara Adamsson, Chairman of the Courtesy Committee, extended thanks for the hospitality shown visitors during the day's sessions, and for the delicious supper served at the school by the local Home and School Association.

Before the close of the meeting announcement was made of scholarships to the senior school of Community Arts at Tatamagouche and to the new junior school at Big Cove, these awards going to Phyllis Cote, L'Ardoise, as senior student, and to Mary Pat Trowbridge St. Peters as junior student.

SYDNEY RCAF CENTRE BUILT BY

Stephen's Construction

One of the finest and most modern of its size in Eastern Canada is the new Recreation Centre of the Sydney RCAF base on Lingan Road which has been officially opened with an appropriate ceremony.

The centre is one of the latest major jobs of the prominent Stephens Construction Company Limited of Sydney. Fred J. Stephen is vice-president.

And the project throughout reflects the excellence of workmanship, quality and materials in planning and design.

The two outstanding features of the Recreation Centre are:

1. The gymnasium.
2. The swimming pool.

It can be stated without fear of contradiction that the gym and the swimming pool are the most up-to-date and elaborately planned—that is of their size—to be found in Canada.

The setup of the Recreation Centre covers a wide and impressive array of other interesting and important departments.

HELP KEEP N.S. CLEAN

Summer is coming to Nova Scotia once again and all the usual activities of picnics, band concerts, and ball games are beginning. It seems a good time for us to resolve to keep our parks, picnic places and beaches as attractive as possible, for our own pleasure and that of others. It only requires a little thoughtfulness on the part of all.

Surely it is not too much for anyone to leave such places as neat as we can. No one can really enjoy one's self in the midst of old paper, broken bottles and assorted litter. Trash containers are often supplied and are meant to be used. Rubbish that cannot be burnt or buried can be carried away for disposal. Especially at beaches broken glass is a menace to bathers and it is difficult to understand the mentality of those people who deliberately leave it there. They deserve severe punishment.

Let us one and all make a fresh resolution that we, at least, will not in any way mar the beauty of our lovely province.

N. B. DISTRICT WINS TROPHY

An outstanding safety record for the year 1956 which saw the New Brunswick district of the Canadian Pacific Railway win the the Vice-President's system trophy for the sixth consecutive year; the Woodstock division of the N.B. district win the system division trophy for the second consecutive year, setting a ranking injury ratio record of 0.7, lowest ever attained; and the running trades and maintenance of way employees of the division go through the year injury-free to win the eastern region trophies for these categories received fitting recognition at presentation ceremonies held at Woodstock N.B., recently.

The four trophies were presented before an audience numbering close to 200 who gathered in the Masonic Hall to see the four trophies presented.

PETER MANCINI ESTEEMED SYDNEY MINES, DIES

SYDNEY MINES — A host of friends will learn with profound regret of the death of Peter Mancini on Wednesday afternoon at his home on Atlantic street, Sydney Mines, after a few months illness at the age of 73. Mr. Mancini, who was well known and held in high esteem came to Canada from Italy in 1904, and except for a year spent in Pittsburgh and a return visit to Italy where he was married, had resided in Sydney Mines for nearly 50 years. A devout member of Immaculate Conception parish for many years and recently a member of the new St. Pius X parish, he received the consolation of the last sacred rites of his beloved faith.

A skilled carpenter by trade, he was also a master cement builder and performed in this capacity as foreman for the Provincial Department of Highways; he supervised the runways at Kelly's Beach, North Sydney during World War II, and did special work at the Thompson High School. He retired from active duties a year ago.

Mr. Mancini is well and favorably known in St. Peters where he built the new Cozy Corner Restaurant, for his nephew, Jos Mancini. He is survived by his widow, two sons and two daughters; also two brothers, D. V. Mancini, well known resident of North Sydney and Carlo Mancini, of St. Peters.

The Record joins in extending sympathy to the bereaved family and relatives.

Drive FORD—you'll drive a WINNER

It's North America's fastest seller!

Right from the start, Ford has set the 1957 sales pace. Since the new cars were first introduced Ford has consistently outsold every other car in North America. Sales figures quoted in leading automotive newspapers and journals give conclusive evidence of Ford's leadership.

No wonder the new kind of Ford is setting new records. Ford leads in styling—the kind of styling that's designed to last, because its long, low, "sculptured look" expresses elegance and good taste. Even standing still, the new kind of Ford looks as though it's going places in a hurry. And while we're talking about GO, we'd like to remind you that Ford set 458 speed and endurance records at Bonneville Flats—a classic demonstration, unequalled in automotive history. Indeed, Ford leads in the kind of performance (SIX or V-8) that takes nothin' from nobody and the kind of ride (Even-Keel Ride) that makes every road feel airstrip smooth!

You owe it to yourself to take ten exciting minutes to experience the sheer fun of driving the car that's new all the way through . . . the car that's the undisputed leader in style—in performance—in motorists' preference . . . the things Canadian motorists want most . . . the winner . . . the new kind of Ford.
