SIXTY-FIRST YEAR — ARICHAT, CAPE BRETON, N. S. SEPTEMBER 14, 1957 — No. 2

A Delightful Trip To Montreal

We left Brewer, Maine, on Sunday morning, heading for Calais, the American border town facing the town of St. Stephen, in the province of New Brunswick.

The drive from Brewer to Calais, is very scenic and en-route can be seen large areas of blueberry country. The one particular farm we did not wish to by-pass, was the Government Experimental Blueberry Farm, at "Blueberry Hill", in charge of Mr. Irving Mason, whose wife is the former Beatrice Parker, of Arichat, and our good friends. After driving for some miles you come to open country, much like our barren lands, but not so hilly and more productive. A well-kept dwelling and Laboratory Building soon enters into sight and as some of the party had already been here, this was indeed Mr. and Mrs. Mason's home. On entering the driveway, we soon learned our good friends were not at home. Mr. Mason is a graduate of a leading Arricultural College in Maine and is an authority in blueberry culture.

The State of Maine, particularly the section in which the Mason's reside is noted for high quality blueberries.

Unable to wait for their return, we motored on driving through towns and villages and for the first several miles kept a sharp outlook for any sign of the Mason car.

Shortly after noon hour we drove up to a roadside table near a stream and enjoyed a lunch cooked on a Coleman Gas Stove — these open air meals are very appetizing. All the tables at this spot were soon filled and everyone seemed to enjoy the outing and more especially the children. Massive cedar trees shaded the tables and it was only then we realized how big these trees grow. The foliage crops out on the upper part of the tree and leaves the greater portion bare and when sawn into lumber is minus knots. Cedar poles are also used for power and telephone lines.

We arrived at Calais about 4 p.m. The scenery before arriving at the border is very beautiful and here summer resorts seem to be flourishing.

Arriving at the border, we were not detained at the Canadian Customs at St. Stephen, N. B. Here is where our old friend Wilfred Boutin, operates the "Queen Hotel", and we had little trouble finding the genial Wilfred, as he was sitting out on the veranda of the hotel. Accompanied by our brother we walked across the street from where the car was parked and greeted Wilfred. It wasn't long before he detected who we were. Wilfred, is the son of the late Capt. and Mrs. Frank Boutin, of West Arichat, and has been engaged in the Hotel business for many years. He enquired of old friends on Isle Madame and sends best wishes to all.

Leaving St. Stephen we headed for St. John, but hearing so much about St. Andrews by-the-sea, all agreed that we make the few extra miles off the main highway and visit this much talked off resort. On entering St. Andrews several beautiful homes are seen and a large hotel for summer visitors. Good bathing beaches, boating, golf course and tennis courts are the main attractions.

After viewing St. Andrews we felt Arichat could also be made a summer resort and the catch line "Arichat by the-sea", could be used as when you talk of sea you get just that on Isle Madame, at both tides, not enjoyed on the Bay of Fundy coastline.

We must admit, however, that St. Andrews is a very pretty and much visited resort, by tourists from all over Canada and the U.S.

We left St. Andrew's and returned to the main highway, where farms skirt either side. Arriving at the shoreline, fog set in and when we say fog, we mean just that—because driving was made quite difficult by poor visibility and with a new piece of highway under construction added to the hazard of motoring.

Along the shoreline, we believe, the sardine fisheries are a great source of income to fishermen engaged at this industry. Close to the shore large weirs are used to catch these silver tid-bits, put up by Connors Bros., who enjoy a good market for their products.

Coming close to St. John, you drive through new housing development, with modern dwellings all nicely painted and grounds well plotted and cared for.

Crossing the bridge where the Reversing Falls can be seen, a large look-off has been built here by the Tourist Department of the government of New Brunswick and is much in demand.

The fog being quite thick we drove into the city to locate our cousin, Dave MacKenzie and his good wife. A very courteous police officer guided us with his patrol car right to their street.

That lap of the journey over, we were glad to drop anchor at Dave and Jean's home, where we met their son in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tufts, who have since being blessed with a new son and heir. Congratulations Ray and Jeannette.

We stayed at St. John Sunday night and as our cousin, Dave is noted to be one of the best trout fishermen in New Brunswick, he persuaded our brother, Earl, who also likes fishing to stay over an extra day and try his luck. On Monday morning they set out for one of New Brunswick's streams—and during the day we got the frying pan ready for the catch and were rewarded with a treat of speckled beauties.

While Dave and Earl were on their fishing trip we sauntered around the city, while Dinty and Ina did some window shopping. We called at the Lingley Printing Company, where we had the pleasure of meeting Miss Lingley and her foreman, Mr. Weaver, whom we had met on a previous visit. The Lingley Printing Company have a very well equipped shop.

At the time we visited St. John, very little shipping was entering this port and we were told that the port is used to a greater extent in winter and much employment is in evidence at that time of the year, especially along the waterfront.

On Tuesday morning we left the hospitable MacKenzie home and headed on the last lap of our journey. Before arriving at the Nova Scotia border at Amherst, you go through many pretty towns such as Sussex, Moncton, Memramcook and Sackville.

At Sussex we called at the Kings County Record, one of the best equipped printing plants in the Maritimes, where we saw the manager, Mr. MacKenna, who by the way has been appointed to the executive of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association at their recent annual meeting in Banff. Mr. MacKenna, is a war veteran and as our brother was attached to the staff of the Canadian Army newspaper "Maple Leaf", in Europe, they had a very friendly chat about personnel on the staff of that newspaper. We believe Mr. MacKenna was also connected to Public Relations overseas.

At one tme our good friend, Bill MacLeod, new director of services, in the Nova Scotia Department of Agriculture, was editor of the Maritime Farmer, published at this plant. Mr. MacLeod's late father was also the editor of this publication during his lifetime.

Arriving at Amherst early in the afternoon we headed down the Sunrise Trail, a nice piece of highway along the Northumberland Strait, a very scenic drive. It's not too long before you enter the outskirts of Pictou and from there you take a paved highway that takes you out to Alma and route 4 on the Halifax Sydney highway, toward the Road to the Isles and home.

Canadian Legion B.E.S.L. Petit De Grat Branch No. 150

Branch No. 150 at Petit De Grat is probably one of the youngest branches of the command. A Charter was granted on July 4th, 1956 after an application by some 15 ex-service men from Petit De Grat, Arichat and West Arichat was approved. Most of these members are former members of the Arichat Branch No. 65. Great progress both in boosting membership and building has been made since the granting of the charter.

An old store was purchased by the Branch in October of the year 1956. Members pitched in and the work of re modelling the old building began immediately.

During the winter months card plays and Bingo were held. To all those who patronized these activities a hearty thank you.

With the building partly remodelled during the month of June, plans were made between Executive members of the Legion and the Ladies of the Home and School of Petit De Grat to have a lobster supper on the 1st of July. This was well patronized by people from all over Richmond and other Counties. Merchants and outside business firms contributed generously to this worthy cause. A most delightful Lobster Supper was served and was much enjoyed by all who were so fortunate to be present at the supper.

At the regular monthly meeting held on September 4th members authorized the Executive Officers and the Building Committee members to purchase a piano, make plans for a new Oil Furnace and complete a new recreation room. Work on these projects have already begun and the next two months should see most of them completed. A new leather covered Chesterfield has been ordered and should arrive soon.

In the new recreation room when completed will be a pool table, ping pong table and dart games.

The membership now totals 62 from Petit De Grat, Arichat, West Arichat also River Bourgeois and St. Peters.

Today Branch 150 can boast of having one of the finest Legion Halls in the province. The hall has new wash rooms, tile floors, canteen, kitchennette, range in kitchen, hot and cold water and many "more" accommodations. There are books to read, euchre checkers, cribbage and other games for members. With the new recreation room completed it is hoped that members will, with plenty of practice be ready for the next provincial Dart Tournament which will be held sometime in June next year.

If there are any readers who have some discarded books in their attic or basement and would like to put them back into use the branch will gladly accept any of these should you wish to clean your attic or basement.

We extend an invitation to ex-service men from this area who have not yet joined the Legion and the former members of the Arichat Branch No. 65 to do so and enjoy these privileges.

This may be done by contacting the Secretary of Branch 150 Canadian Legion, Petit De Grat.

Morrison-MacLeod Wedding Solemnized At Glace Bay

GLACE BAY — A lovely summer wedding was solemnized in Knox United Church at three o'clock on Saturday, August 24th, when Ruth Margaret, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Angus MacLeod, MacLean Street, became the bride of Alexander Allan, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Morrison of St. Peter's. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. George MacLean assisted by Dr. H. F. Kemp and Rev. J. P. Parker Matheson.

The church was decorated with gladioli in pastel shades and the guest pews were designated with bows of white satin, ribbon and tiny white flowers. Mr. Wilfred Compton, church organist played as the processional Lohengrin Bridal Chorus and the Wedding March from Mendelssohn for the recessional.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father and wore a portrait gown of embroidered nylon tulle over white bridal satin, featuring a floor length bouffant skirt with Princess line front panel. The basque waist with its nylon tulle yoke and embroidered tulle stand up collar buttoned down the back with a myriad of tiny self covered buttons, which were, also, featured on the long lily point sleeves. Her chaped veil of imported tulle illusion fell softly from a dainty Juliet cap of irradescent pearl sequins and silver seed beads. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink sweetheart roses nuzzled with white baby's breath and maiden hair fern. Her only jewelery was a pair of pearl earrings.

Miss Inez Halliday as maid of honor wore a Princess line waltz length gown of cotillion blue crystal charm featuring scallops on neckline and cap sleeves. Her Jillies cap and gauntlets were of a matching blue and her bouquet

Dundee Dew Drops

By A. F.

Philip A. MacInnes, had his 90th birthday on Sunday August 25th. Although confined to bed with a heavy chest cold, he was able to eat a piece of the beautifully decorated cake brought to him by Mrs. Leo Lovelace of Sydney and her son, Jim, who was visiting his parents at that time. Mrs. Lovelace was formerly Miss Jessie Cameron, whose parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Dan Cameron were close friends and neighbours of Mr. MacInnes and the late Mrs. MacInnes, when they resided on adjacent farms on the summit of South Side, St. George's Channel. It can truthfully be said "There are no friends as dear as old ones."

The last of our summer visitors took their departure on Sunday, September 1st, when two cars carrying Mrs. John N. Campbell, Norma Campbell, Mrs. A. E. MacDougall, Bert MacDougall and Alex MacLeod motored to Brookline, Mass. Leaving Dundee, at 9:30 Sunday A.M., they arrived at Brookline, Mass. 6 P. M., on the following day.

During the latter part of the month season we were visited by Mr. and Mrs. Ewen MacKinnon and family of West Bay Centre; Mrs. Florence MacLeod of Boston and Mrs. George MacLean of Sydney, also Effie MacCuspic of Boston, Mass., Steward MacInnes and daughter, Jane Marie of Sydney, Dan MacKenzie, Sydney and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Shaw, Mount Auburn.

Earlier Daniel MacDougall, of Brookline, Mass., and daughter, Jean of New Hampshire, spent two weeks stationed at Dundee, but motored to many places in Cape Breton.

Mrs. Katherine Patrigeon, her sisters, Miss Helen MacInnes, R. N., and Miss Barbara MacInnes, R. N., of Boston, called to see us while spending a vacation at their new summer cottage on St. George's Channel.

The recent electrical storm ripped a transformer at Dundee. Power was servered from that area, "for a time," until a member of the N. S. Power Commission arrived to battle the issue. The heavy rain that accompanied the electrical storm did good to the thirsty vegetables and flowers. Our row of sweet peas which are sixteen feet in length have climbed on poultry netting to the height of five feet and are still producing an abundance of blossomes in a beautiful variety of colors.

CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY GIVES GUIDANCE

The following is one of many human interest stories, where the Children's Aid Society, has helped confused families with their domestic problems. Let us all help in the campaign to raise funds for this worthy organization, to continue to carry on their noble work.—Editor.

"At nine, George K., is not a delinquent, but someone will have to take a close personal interest in him if he is to grow up to be a useful citizen.

Although it is two years since his alcholic father deserted his family, neither Georgie nor his mother, Mrs. Nancy K., 28, have been able to forget the drunken rages and brutal beatings they endured for so many months. Both are tense and easily irritated.

Mrs. K. manages on public assistance. With the care of her four children, she has little time to give her son the affection he craves. Georgie, feeling at loose ends, is restless and disobedient. He teases his sisters continually, and since he looks like his father, Mrs. K. often directs at him the bitterness she feels towards her husband. Recently she came to the Children's Aid Society she said she feared the boy would end up as his father did.

In the Social Worker who has been assigned as his counselor, Georgie is finding the understanding and firmness which will help him to straighten out his confused feelings towards the world. This relationship must be continued, and Mrs. K., must also have guidance, not only in dealing with Georgie but in learning to cope more effectively with her household responsibilities.

Many children like Georgie can be helped to become responsible citizens through the help of your Children's Aid Society. You can help the Children's Aid build our youth by letting your dollars speak for your desire to help. GIVE GENEROUSLY! !

THE LASS FROM ROCHDALE

GRACIE FIELDS, the famous singer, music-hall and broadcasting artist, recording an interview for the British Broadcasting Corporation while on a recent visit to England from Capri, where she now lives with her husband, Boris Alperovici.

"Our Gracie," as she is known to everyone in her home town of Rochdale in Rochdale. In 1818 she made a great hit as "Sally Perkins" in "Mr. Tower of London," a show that ran untill 1925; and it would be hard to list her successes, or calculate the sales of her records since those days. Despite the fame and fortune that has come to her, her successes in Hollywood, London and New York, Gracie, like the "Sally in Our Alley" of one of her most famous songs, has remained unchanged—frank, outspoken, and absolutely sincere, a supreme professional artist and a person who is welcomed with the warmest affection wherever she goes.

Gracie Fields first broadcast for the BBC in 1928, and her series of programmes "Gracie's Working Party," which began in 1947, will be particularly well remembered. More recently every visit to England has been marked by a number of broadcasts for the BBC both on sound radio and television. Many of these have come from the BBC North of England studios, for she never fails to visit her home town. Staff in the BBC's North Region recall a typical memory of Gracie when at the televised opening ceremony of the BBC North of England television transmitter at Holme Moss in 1951, Gracie shattered the formality of the occasion by an unrehearsed entrance, wearing a chrysanthemum in place of a hat.

SISTER EDILTRUDE MOVES TO ARICHAT

(Casket, Antigonish)

Rev. Mother Ediltrude, who has been at Sacred Heart Hospital, Cheticamp, for the last 7 years, the last six as superior, has been transferred to Arichat.

Mother Ediltrude was one of the first sisters to come to Cheticamp when the first Sacred Heart Hospital was opened in 1930 in a house formerly owned by a Doctor Plaet. In 1937 a brick hospital was erected and the old house converted to a nurses' residence.

Last year another addition was made to the hospital which now has 61 beds.

On the eve of her departure, in recognition of her long services in the community, Mother Ediltrude was presented with a typewriter, desk set and brief case donated jointly by the Knights of Columbus, Branch No. 32, of Canadian Legion, Assumption Society and La Societe St. Pierre.

Rev. Jules Comeau, P. P., in making the presentation for the group, cited some of the work done by the honored sister during her stay in Cheticamp.

Rev. Mother Ediltrude has been replaced as superior by Rev. Mother Emerenciennne.

COURTESY TO TOURISTS

(Digby Courier)

We have no intention of inundating our readers with an account of the editor's vacation tour through part of the beautiful and scenic Eastern Nova Scotia and Northern New Brunswick. However, anything which is beneficial to the tourist industry in Nova Scotia is worth mentioning here. One instance of doing the second mile to courtesy to tourists was noted at False Bay Lodge near Grand Anse, C. B. We stayed at a newly built motel where at nine o'clock a piping hot pot of tea and toast was brought to the door with the remark—just a courtesy to all our guests each night at nine o'clock. Needless to say, we will look again for the same motel when our vacation takes us to Cape Breton in the future."

(The foregoing is taken from the "Digby Courier", published by our good friend, Mrs. Edith Wallis. While on her visit to Cape Breton, Mrs. Wallis and her daughter, Miss Ruth, paid us a friendly visit. At the time we were leaving on a motor trip to the Eastern Shore and Springhill, and regretted we were unable to show them some of the beauty spots of Isle Madame, however, they promised to come again and the following editorial comment speaks well of Vic and Helen Green, who operate Motel Richmond, located at False Bay Lodge.—Editor)

PETIT DE GRAT BLUE BIRDS TAKE TWO GAMES

The St. Joseph's Blue Birds, Petit de Grat's two month old Baseball team played host to Rocky Bay and Louisdale in a double header on Sunday afternoon on the Petit de Grat diamond where fans saw the Blue Birds take both games. Peter Marchand went the distance for the Blue Birds in the first game when he pitched a 6-4 victory against the Rocky Bay "Rockets".

Rudolph Boudreau the Blue Birds right hander was the starter in the second game of the afternoon and pitched five innings against Louisdale, allowing no runs to be scored against him. Meanwhile he and his teammates picked up five runs. Vernon Boudreau relieved him in the first of the sixth but because of he young rookie's difficulty in controlling the ball, Manager Fulbert Boudreau sent in Wilfred (Lopat) Boudreau who also had difficulty with his control leaving Peter Marchand to take charge of the situation which he did very well.

With two out in the last inning and two on Edward Samson of Louisdale hit a fly ball in shallow left to Walter Boudreau who chased it and pulled it down for an easy out. The final score was 6-5 for the Blue Birds.

Umpires for the afternoon were Claude Boudreau for the first game and Stanley Boudreau for second game.

Labor day saw the Blue Birds in action again, when Wilfred (Lopat) Boudreau pitched a 17-1 victory against the Rocky Bay Rockets. This was the young left hander's first victory so far. The Blue Birds will be short one pitcher when Rudolph Boudreau leaves for St. Francis Xavier University shortly. Manager Fulbert Loudreau says he hopes to have at least two more pitchers ready for mound duty in next year's line up.

The Record congratulates Fulbert Boudreau, Manager of the Blue Birds and his team and also congratulates the Rocky Bay Rockets and Louisdale teams for their efforts in bringing baseball to the forefront and at the same time offering clean healthy sport to the young people of the County.

A reception for eighty guests was held in the parlors of Knox Hall, where the bridal party was assisted in receiving by the parents of the bride and groom. The bride's mother was gowned in dusty rose nylon lace mesh. She wore navy accessories and a corsage of pink talisman roses. The groom's mother wore a gown of dior blue chiffon, navy and white accessories and fur stole and corsage of American roses.

The bride's table covered with a handsome Queen Anne lace cloth was beautifully appointed. The four-tier wedding cake trimmed with pink roses and topped with a miniature bride and groom centered the table arrangements, which included two silver services, tall white tapers in silver candleabra and pink roses in tall crystal bud vases.

Presiding over the silver services was Mrs. Everett Skinner, aunt of the bride and Mrs. W. B. Pearo, aunt of the groom. Miss Hazel MacDonald, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. J. The refreshment table was centered by a bride's cake made by Mrs. Everett Skinner, aunt of the bride, and was cut and apportioned by the bride.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. George MacLean to which the groom responded. After the traditional insert of a silver knife in the wedding cake it was apportioned by Mrs. J. Parker Matheson, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Charles MacDonald, sister of the groom. The guest book was attended to by Mrs. William Moffatt, cousin of the bride. Congratulatory telegrams were read by Dr. J. Morrison, best man and brother of the groom.

Serving the guests were: Misses Rachael Ferguson, Harriette Townsend, Elaine Hines, Donna Wetherbee, Alice Logan, Beth Pearo, Laura Donaldson, Anna MacLeod, and Marjorie Morris. The bride threw her bouquet as she descended the stairway and it was caught by Laura Donaldson.

Mr. and Mrs. Morrison left on a honeymoon trip to various parts of Ontario and the U. S. A. For travelling the bride chose a sheath dress and duster of Copenhagen blue poodle linen. The duster featured a pink satin lining. Her shoes were of a matching blue nylon mesh and she wore a velvet and satin hat, nylon gloves and leather purse all in pink, and a brown squirrel neck piece. Her corsage was of pink roses. Prior to her marriage the bride, a graduate of Morrison Glace Bay high school and provincial Normal College had been on the teaching staffs of Glace Bay and Halifax respectively. The groom a graduate in Arts and Commerce of Mount Allison University, is assistant manager of Morrison's Stores Ltd., St. Peter's. Upon their return they will take up residence in St. Peter's, C. Sporting Mountain ..ECHOES..

By D. A. S.

On Tuesday, August thirteenth down on the spacious farm at River Tillard where he first saw the light eighty-six years ago, the spirit of Michael Kyte passed on.

He was the oldest of us all and thus familiarly known to us all.

A born wit with an ever ready fund of innate humor, it was always pleasing to contact him in the home or on the road, and he will be much missed from our community life.

The extended procession of cars that followed the remains to their last resting place the following Thursday reflected the sentiments of a widely spread area.

Interment was in the R. C. Cemetery at St. Peter's, Rev. Father Kyte and Rev. Father Sampson officiating.

Much sympathy is felt for the estimable Mrs. Kyte, the former Christena MacIsaac (nee Christena MacIntosh) whom we had occasion to know all her life, and to whom we have never heard another neighbour make reference other than to praise her.

Sister Mary Pathama (Ethel) of Antigonish and Charles at home are surviving members of the immediate family.

The MacIsaac offspring comperse Edmund MacIsaac of Halifax; Mrs. W. B. Pringle, The Points (Mary), and Mrs. Russell Morrison of Ance DeLoup (Hilda).

Both blended into one happy family circle and blossomed into adult life together; both were numbered among our most orderly pupils in Seaview School; and both have developed into worthy and desirable citizens.

The Kytes have been prominent citizens of St. Peters and vicinity since pioneer days.

Prominent? Yes, surely, for we were familiar with one who was an outstanding national figure in the annals of our nation, and subsequently conspicuous on either side the border line as a member of The Waterways Commission.

PEALING BELLS TO GREET QUEEN

All the bells and chimes in Ottawa are to ring out in welcome when Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip arrive in the capital Oct. 12 for a four-day visit.

Mayor George Nelms said all church bells and chimes throughout the city will be rung continuously for 15 minutes.

The bell ringing is to be timed so that it begins just as the Queen enters the centre of the city, en route from Uplands Airport on Ottawa's outskirts to Government House, where she and the Prince will stay during the visit.

Everything To Build Anything

For The Lands Sake

USE LIME!

Lime will make the difference between good and poor crops if your soil, like 95 per cent of the soils in Nova Scota, is sour and needs lime. Application of lime to soil which formerly produced nothing but weeds and hay of poor quality has often converted such growth to excellent clover as much as 4 tons to the acre. No wonder the farmers of Nova Scotia have increased their use of lime by some 27,000 tons annually in the last 20 years. Lime is the best buy on the market today for every progressive farmer, providing an investment return of $19 for every dollar spent.

Lowest Prices In Canada

Blast lime at $1.50 per ton, and ground limestone at $2.00 per ton, in bulk car lots is all that it costs a farmer to have these products delivered at his nearest railway siding. These are the lowest prices in Canada—take advantage of them. If you are within trucking distance, the same price will effect delivery at the plant or quarry.

Now Is The Time For Lime

This is an excellent time of the year to apply lime to your soil. You can have a car of lime shipped out to you immediately. Get it spread on the land as soon as you possibly can in order to be assured of better crops next year. For full details on this Department's lime policy finest of its kind anywhere.
