On Hotel Supervision

Associate professor of Cornell University's school of hotel administration, DR. ROBERT A. BECK, will address delegates attending the annual Hotel Short Course in Halifax next week. Topic of his talk Wednesday morning will be "Effective Supervision". Dr. Beck has been on Cornell's faculty since 1954, and also is consulting training director to the Houston Club of Houston, Texas. At the recent 31st annual conference of the Club Manager's Association held in St. Louis, Missouri in Februaryh he was the featured speaker. The short course, sponsored by the provincial Department of Trade and Industry will be held at the Nova Scotian Hotel, March 25-27.

River Bourgeois Ripples

We are happy to bring the following news items from River Bourgeois and as the boys inform us that the River never froze over this winter, we take the liberty to use the above heading: "River Bourgeois Ripples". This heading appeared in the Record some years ago.

The Lenten Season was ushered in with an evening Mass and the distribution of the ashes in St. John the Baptist Church, celebrated by the Pastor.

Old times were revived here when certain homes were visited by Mi-Carèmes; however, we regret this old custom is going out with the years, and is being replaced by Sputniks and Satelites.

Tony Koninng, one of our Dutch immigrants visited with his parents in Babberich, Holland. Having made this trip by plane, he is now in Toronto after visiting a friend in Halifax. Tony is a member of St. John the Baptist Church choir.

Anthony Burke motored from Halifax accompanied by Germaine Digout and Betty Ann Rent. Germaine had spent two weeks visiting in Halifax. Betty Ann, a former pupil of Stella Maris School has a soft spot in her heart for River Bourgeois. She is employed as a telephone operator in the Capital City.

Alfred Sampson has obtained a visa and has gone to reside in Boston, Mass. Prior to his departure, he was employed by the Hopper Well Drilling Company and had just completed two wells, one for James Sampson and the other for Stanley McPhee.

Dan Boudreau of Petit De Grat was visiting his son, George at River Bourgeois. Amable I. Burke and Dan both claim to be champions at cribbage so Fraser Boyd and Georgie were no match for these two leaders.

On February 16, onlookers spotted a deer swimming across the River from Thomas Sampson's to the late Sebastian Bouchie's shore. This graceful swimmer did not seem to mind the icy water and hurridly leaped over fences to disappear in the woods.

A favorite winter sport enjoyed by both young and old is eeling on False Bay. Recently three members of a party namely Lawrence Pottie, Anselm Burke and Amable I. Burke had the misfortune of falling through the thin ice while spearing. Despite this mishap, all were successful in holding on to their catches. The previous day Amable Beranger suffered the same fate as his fellow fishermen. Highliners were Josime Burke and Clarence MacPhee who each caught over one hundred eels.

Another fishing expedition com-

Red Cross Appeal

This is Red Cross Month—a time of year when we focus attention on a great international organization

The importance of the 1958 Canadian Red Cross campaign for funds should be apparent to every citi en of this County.

The budget of the Red Cross for 1958 in Nova Scotia is $219,400, and there is only one source for the money to allow the Nova Scotia Division Canadian Red Cross Society to meet its humanitarian obligations for another year. That money must be provided through the generosity of the people of Nova Scotia.

The Canadian Red Cross means many things to many people. In this Province the Red Cross means free free blood transfusions for everyone. When disaster strikes at home or in any part of the world we know the Red Cross will be on the job doing the things we would like to do if we had the opportunity. In remote areas of the Province a string of Red Cross Outpost Hospitals provide care and treatment.

Through our Red Cross we are assured that our veterans are not forgotten men and women. They receive regular visits, see current movies, enjoy the pleas-Lodge and spend hours that ant atmosphere of the Red Cross would normally hang heavy over their heads in the pleasant pursuit of the Arts and Crafts programme.

Through the Junior Red Cross our school children are learning to become better citizens and gaining an understanding of their counterparts throughout the world.

One of these days a volunteer canvasser will call on you to request your financial support. Answer that visit with a generous donation and you will have the inner satisfaction of doing your share to help others.

Plan Now For Better
Lobster Fishing

THE TRAPS are set . . . a new catch of lobsters is already on its way to market . . . in some districts canneries are working again . . . it's lobster season here in the Maritimes!

Let's hope it's a good season, a profitable season for everyone in the lobster industry. And let's plan now to make it an even better season next year.

Here's how: Throw back the "berried" lobsters and give them the chance to reproduce. Throw back the shorts. Next year they'll have grown 15% longer and 50% heavier—they'll bring you a much better price. Do that, and the lobster crop will thrive and grow.

A bit of quick, easy money in your pocket today isn't much comfort if it means battling for a living tomorrow. Plan for even better lobster catches. Practice the simple methods of conservation. Then the lobster season can always be a good season for you . . . year after year after year.

River Bourgeois

prising of Whitney Boudreau, Gilbert Burke, Lawrence and Peter Pottie motored to Judique. They were also favoured with a good catch of eels and the admiring glances of the pretty Scotch lassies of Judique.

Here at home Austin Burke was spearing on the lower end of the River. Being very proud of the large eel he had caught—Austin left it on the ice and scarcely was his back turned when a famished sea-gull made off with his prize.

Very few other winter sports were enjoyed this season due to unfavorable weather. However, on February 16, the younger generation enjoyed skating on Morrison's pond at the Brickery. A lively game of hockey was played by the local boys.

When there was sufficient snow, tobogganning was the main pastime for the smaller fry. While his grand-children, Margaret Ann and Norman McPhee were indulging in this amusement, Mr. Simon McPhee, despite his 82 years, decided to join in the fun.

It is interesting to note that five of the family of the late Joseph Bourque, all over 70 years of age are still living. They are: Mary, Mrs. Charles LeVandier of Wellfleet, Mass., 82; Lesime, 81 of of Qunincy, Mass., and of this place, Guilaume 79; Genevieve, Mrs. Ben LeBlanc, 75 and Julia, Mrs. Falcide Curdo, 74.

We would like to pay tribute to our oldest male resident of River Bourgeois, Felix Bona. Mr. Bona was born 92 years ago. In his younger days he was employed as quarter master on the old S. S. Halifax which sailed from Boston to Halifax. Capt. Simon F. Burke, of this place was at that time employed as boatswain on the same ship.

Mr. Bona married Bessie Jackson, North Side, near St. Peters in St. Cecilia's Church, Boston, Mass., 57 years ago.

Mr. Bona is still very active and attends church regularly. The Record joins with their many friends in extending congratulations to this splendid couple.

Mrs. Stella Bourque visited friends in D'Escousse recently.

We learned that the Reverend A. Butts who passed away at North Sydney at the age of 84, was a former school teacher at River Bourgeois. At that time he boarded with the late Mr. and Mrs. Eli Curdo who lived where Dan Landry is now residing. Two of Father Butts' pupils were Guillaume and John L. Burke.

Another prominent man, Dr. Murphy of Halifax who passed away recently was also linked with River Bourgeois. Having married Lena MacNeil, daughter of the late Inspector of Schools, M. J. T. MacNeil and Mrs. MacNeil, who lived on Church Point where Alex Boucher now resides.

Marie McPhee, who is employed at the Cameo Grill in Halifax and Wilfred McPhee spent the week-end at their respective homes here.

Nomination Day

The traditional nomination day proceedings took place at Port Hawkesbury on Monday when both candidates contesting the riding of Inverness-Richmond Cape Breton West in the present election were heard in joint debate.

The only two counties in Nova Scotia holding to this tradition are Inverness and Richmond and the interest of the electors has not shown any indication that this custom will soon be forgotten.

To our minds this is democracy at work and should be encouraged in every riding in the Dominion.

Gus Thibeau

Gus Thibeau died at St. Rita's Hospital, Sydney, on March 18th, at the age of 77 years. For the past several years he resided at St. Anthony's Home, Sydney.

The late Mr. Thibeau was a highly respected citizen of Arichat, South Side and in his youth sailed out of this port in the days of sailing ships. He could relate many interesting tales of the port of Arichat, when Robbin Jones opearted a large fish plant at Arichat South Side and more especially about the barks and brigs and in later years the three-masters that came from Jersey and carried cargo to all parts of the world, bartering dry cod for other commodities, such as molasses, sugar, salt and lumber. Mr. Thibeau for many years worked at the Robbins plant at South Side and after this firm left Arichat, he sailed with local Captains in the coastal trade.

The late Mr. Thibeau, was also employed on the C. N. R., as a Steward and later transferred to the Bridge and Building department, from which he retired on pension about ten years ago. He was highly regarded by everyone in the Eastern Division of the C. N. R.

His wife predeceased him only about a year ago. One brother, Dominick Thibeau, residing in the Annapolis Valley survives.

The funeral took place on Saturday, March 15th from Notre Dame Church, with Very Rev. A. P. Poirier, Pastor, as celebrant at Solemn High Mass, assisted by Rev. Albert Doucet as deacon and Rev. C. P. Gerroir, as sub-deacon.

The following were pallbearers: Joseph David, Alex Theriault, Alcide Marchand, Jessie Richard, Alex M. Boudreau and John Boucher.

C. A. Boucher, Funeral Director, who took the remains from Sydney, was in charge of funeral arrangements.
