Canadian Legion News On Physical Fitness

YOUTH 64 PER CENT UNFIT TESTS SHOW

An item in the current issue of THE LEGIONARY magazine points out the alarming fact about the physical fitness of our youth. In recent tests conducted in New Brunswick 64 per cent of the school children tested failed. They could not cope with the basic exercises which measured physical efficiency.

"Sixty-four per cent of the children tested did not have the physical efficiency required to support normal, sedentary living", reported one official of the New Brunswick department of Education:

As the Legionary article points out, the alarming aspect of this situation is not that so many children failed—although that is alarming enough. But three out of the four group were from small towns. They were from centres where there is still room to play baseball on a corner lot, where a hike can begin down at the end of main street. This is the type of enviroment which has traditionally been "healthier for the kids", and there is no doubt but what it is.

However, if 64 per cent of those tested from such desirable communities failed the tests, how would the youngsters from city streets show up? If 64 per ecnt of failures is the semi-rural picture what would the national average be?

For many years Canadians have listened wih a smug ear to the reports of declining physical fitness in the United States. In actual fact it appears that the only difference in the fitness picture of Canadian and American youngsters is that the latter picture is better documented. At least they know what their situation is. We can only guess.

In New Brunswick the Canadian Legion is helping to take some of the guesswork out of physical fitness by assiting hte department of edcuation in training and testing youngsters. The first of the answers came in the report quoted above. But through training, the situation can be improved, and in conducting hese courses the Legion is performing a public service of the first magnitude.

April Report Fish Landings

Fish landings in the Maritime Provinces in April were officially recorded at 27.8 million lbs., valued at $1.7 million, the Department of Fisheries and the Dominion Bureau of Statistics announced on May 15th. For the same month last year, the figures were 32.8 million lbs. and $1.9 million, thus indicating a decrease of some 5 million lbs. and $0.2 million.

The most important species by volume landed during the month was cod, being largely of offshore origin, amounting to 10.2 million lbs. Lobsters with landings of 1.3 million lbs., valued at $600,000 was the most valuable species landed.

A very significant decline occurred in the landings of haddock in April. Only 5.7 million lbs. were landed as compared with 12.7 million lbs. in April last year. This has been attributed to scarcity of supplies on Nova Scotia offshore banks.

Other variations in landings were relatively small, both in volume and value, and were seasonal in nature.

As in March, fishing was largely concentrated in Nova Scotia. Landings of Nova Scotia fishermen amounted to 23.8 million lbs. or about 85 per cent of the total.

Antigonish County Man Appointed Director of High School Testing

An Antigonish county man at present employed by the Nova Scotia Department of Education has been appointed Director of the C.A.C. Carnegie High School Testing Project. He is John Ross, a cum laude graduate of Saint Francis Xavier University and a holder of an M. A. degree in Guidance from Columbia University, New York.

Since 1950 Mr. Ross has been assistant director of guidance with the Department of Education where he has had wide experience in the use of standardized tests, including the administration in the testing program of the Nova Scotia Standards Project.

His new appointment, for which the Department of Education has released him temporarily, will be for three years and is under the Ceneral Advisory Committee on Education for the Atlantic provnces. A large contribution towards the cost of the project has come from the Carnegie Corporation of New York.

Mr. Ross's first job is to make arrangements for the testing of students in the last years of high school in the four Atlantic provinces. It is expected that this will be completed by the end of April.

To each student will be applied a scholastic aptitude test, a test of English and a test of mathematics. First purpose of the program is to compare results in the Atlantic provinces with results from the same tests in the United States. As some 15,000 students will be examined, it is clear that Mr. Ross will have considerable work to do. Luckily the test papers will be mechanically scored in the United States and the results forwarded to Mr. Ross's headquarters, which will be in Room 3 of the Arts and Administration building, Dalhousie University.

It is expected that by the fall of 1958 it will be possible to establish a pretty good idea of the general scholastic aptitude and proficiencies of our students in the Atlantic region.

Later on, it will be Mr. Ross's job to follow up as many students as possible, especially those who proceed to university, to find out what happens to them and to discover, if possiloe, the best predictors of future university success. In doing this Mr. Ross will have not only the test results but also marks from other examinations such as those of the Atlantic Provinces Examining Board and the New Brunswick Matriculation Board. In fact, the explorations possible are innumerable.

It is obvious that, in the later stages of the program, Mr. Ross will have to call on the help of many people and institutions, including the universities. Through the Central Advisory Committee, this help has been assured already.

The whole project, for which the first plans were laid over a year and a half ago, is a very timely one at this period when educational systems are being closely observed. In the Atlantic provinces education has always been a matter of public concern; at the present time the public is even more interested than usual. Ths project, directed by Mr. Ross, will undoubtedly supply information which will settle many arguments and indicate lines of future educational progress.

Mr. Ross's endeavours will be guided by an Advisory Board, on which are representatives of all four provinces and whose chairman is Prof. Alex S. Mowat of Dalhousie University.

Mr. Ross attended New Glasgow high school and after graduation had extensive teaching experience in Junior and Senior High Schools, including Saint Vincent's Boys' High School in St. John, N. B. He also served as an Instructor in the Veterans' Training Centre, Pictou.

T.V. Close-Up. Robert Service

HALIFAX — One of Canada's best-known poets, Robert W. Service, has agreed to a filmed interview to be carried shortly on CBC television's news and interview show, Close-Up.

When approached by he show's production staff, Mr. Service said: "I am most eager to meet Pierre Berton in front of Close Up cameras. At 84, this may be the last chance I have to get on television."

A four-man team from Close-Up has flown to Monaco, where Service now lives, to spend a week interviewing the man who wrote so much about Canada's north. The teams consists of Berton, who will interview the poet; Pat Watson, associate producer of Close-Up, who will supervise filming; camreaman Bill Duncan, and sound-engineer Fred McCord.

They plan to shoot about two hours of conversation with Service, part of which will be shown on Close-Up. The remainder will be placed in film archives.

Service is one of the world's oldest working poets. Recently, he wrote a poem dedicated to the celebration of the British Columbia centennial. His first poems, The Shooting of Dan McGrew and The Cremation of Sam McGee, are perhaps his best known. His book of verse, Songs of a Sourdough, published in 1907 and later renamed The Spell of the Yukon, sold more than one and one-half million copies.

Shut-In's Day

Through no fault of their own, many Canadians are confined to their homes, and in some cases, to a single room for long periods of time. While our modern world can in many ways, make it possible to pass the time enjoyably by reading,, pursuing a hobby watching television or listening to the radio, it must be remembered that these are only a substitute for the companionship and excitement found by most of us in our day-to-day living.

Shut-In's Day is our opportunity to remember those less fortunate than ourselves. A visit, card, letter or gift from you will make a "shut-in" much happier. Your remembrance and understanding will be gratefully appreciated.

WHAT A JOY

Think of feet that cannot go
Where the woodland flowers grow;
Think of the eyes that rarely see
Bud ofblossom, bird or tree
Think of the hands that palsied lie
As the years creep slowly by.
What a joy to send the flowers
That shall brighten pain-filled hours.
What a joy to open doors
For a few bright happy hours.
What a joy to see eyes shine
As you spread God's love Divine.

Fisheries Meeting

Delegates representing 11 nations will assemble in Halifax on June 9th for the annual meeting of the International Commission for the Northwest Atlantic Fisheries. The sessions will be hald at Dalhousie University and will continue until June 14.

This year marks the third time the international fishing body convened in Halifax. The first meeting there was in 1954 and the second one in 1956. Last year the Commission met in Lisbon, Portugal.

Chairman of the Commission torate of Fisheries, Bergen, Noris Klaus Sunnana, Director, Direcway. G. R. Clark, Canadian Deputy Minister of Fisheries, Ottawa, and J. Howard MacKichan, United Maritime Fishermen Ltd., Halifax, represent Canada on the Commission. Other government participating in the Commission include Denmark, France, West Germany, Iceland, Italy, Norway, Portugal, Spain, United Kingdom and the United States. This year's meeting will mark the first time that West Germany will sit on the Commission as a participating member. Prior to its admittance last year, West Germany had observers attending Commission meetings. Russian interest in Northwest Fisheries has developed in the last few years as Soviet trawlers are now operating on the fishing banks of the Northwest Atlantic.

Fisheries International Commissions have been asked to send observers as has also the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations.

A lengthy agenda has been prepared for the six day meeting. Annual reports will be presented and there will be considerable discussion on the research projects undertaken during the past year and planning research for future years.

The seven-year old organization held its first meeting in Washington, D. C., in 1951. Its headquarters who moved to Halifax in 1953 where its business is being administered by Dr. Erik. M. Poulsen, Executive Secretary. Dr. Poulsen is a native of Denmark.

C. N. SHIPS TO BE SOLD

MONTREAL, May — The Canadian National (West Indies) Steamships Limited management has decided to sell the assets of the company, including its eight vessels strike-bound since last July 4.

J. A. Sauve, general manager, in announcing the decision stated preference would be given to any Canadian company which intends to operate the vessels in the Canada-British West Indies trade.

"In view of management", said Mr. Sauve, ". . . the outlook for the future made it most unlikely that heavy operating losses could be avoided. Private carriers have expanded their schedules and extended their routings to cover the services previously provided by the C. N. S."

A Huge Electric Motor Installed At Sydney Billet Mill

The biggest electric motor in size ever shipped by the Canadian General Electric from their Peterborough, Ontario, factory has been installed at Sydney by Dosco and is now operating satisfactorily. The 18 ft. diamter, 60-ton electric motor has been installed to replace the previous Dosco Billett Mill Drive.

The biggest in size ever shipped by the Canadian General Electric Company Limited from their Peterborough, Ontario, Factory, the motor is a 4500 H. P., 94.7 cycle machine and is an open type synchronous motor with shaft to fit existing pedestal sleeve bearings. The motor is designed for full voltage starting and is suitable for jogging in either forward or reverse directions.

The rotor weighs 69,500 pounds, while the stator weighs 63,000 pounds. Overall dimensions include, height 27¾ feet, width 33 feet, shaft length 19 feet, diameter of rotor over poles 17 feet 10 1-2 inches.

The Dominion Iron & Steel Company Billet Mill at Sydney was the second of that plant's mills to be electrified. Utilizing a motor taken from the Plate Mill, hte Billet Mill was electrified shortly after World War One, and another interesting peculiarity about the project was that the existing bearings and base of the original motor. Like other modern installations of this type, the motor is equipped with temperature detectors and is supplied with space heaters to prevent moisture condensation when the moto ris not in use.

The new electric motor drives Dosco's seven stand continuous or tandem-type billet mill. All stands are powered or driven by the one motor. Costing $200,000 the new nstallation is designed to insure the continued efficiency of Dosco's billet production. Because of the size of the rotor bearngs and casings, the roof and walls of the room where the motor was installed had be demolished and reconstructed, and the entire project was completed in only two weeks.

HYACINTH SAMSON

The passing of Hyacinth Samson, of Petit de Grat, occurred at St. Martha's Hospital, Antigonish, on Friday, after a brief illness. His passing came as a great shock to his family and his many friends in the community of Petit de Grat and throughout Isle Madame, where Hyacinth was held in high regard. He was in his 53rd year and had resided at Petit de Grat during his lifetime where he engaged in the fishing industry.

He is survived by his wife, three sons and three daughters; also his father, who is one of the oldest residents of Petit de Grat.

The fueral which was held at Petit de Grat from St. Joseph's Church, with Rev. Father Forrest, Parish Priest, as celebrant at the Requiem Mass. A large attendance at the funeral attested to the esteem in which the deceased was held.

To the bereaved widow and family and to the father we extend our heartfelt sympathy in their great sorrow.

EFFECTS OF LIGHTENING STROKE

In a British study of 50 lightening stroke survivors, one third complained of headache, numbness, paralysis, hysterical or anxiety states, fatigue, limb and neck pains which persisted for six months. One woman, previously hospitalized for a mental condition, made a good recovery when the lightening stroke acted as an electroshock treatment.

DIET AND ARTHRITIS

Research has failed to show any relationship between nutrition and hte cause of rheumatic diseases, reports Lawrence Galton in the May Canadian Home Journal. They are essentially diseases of the supporting structure of hte body—the connective tissue. If a diet is prescribed for an arthritic patient, it will be for another reason, such as overweight or a deficiency of vitamins or minearals.

FOR ALL YOUR PRINTING NEEDS SEE THE RICHMOND RECORD FIRST. OUR WORK MAKES A GOOD IMPRESSION.

WHICH WAY WILL HE GO?

IT MATTERS TO YOU

Of course the lobster matters to you. He's your job—your living—he can mean hard times or good times for your family. But the lobster isn't a wizard. He can't protect himself. The lobster depends on you—the lobsterman—to stop waste and shortage—to make sure next season's catch is a good one.

Here is what you can do. Throw back the shorts—next season they'll be 15% longer and 50% heavier and so bring you a better price. Let the "berried" lobsters reproduce so there'll be lobsters to trap in the future.

Do this—and you'll be helping the lobster industry along the path that begins with conservation, leads to a good living for you, and greater prosperity for the Maritimes.
