Richmond County Council K. of C. Receives Charter

Knights of Columbus from many parts of Cape Breton and the mainland gathered at West Arichat on Sunday, July 27th in the evening for the presentation of a Charter to Laurence Kavanagh Council 4607, Knights of Columbus and the blessing of the new council's headquarters.

After he had blessed the building, Bishop MacDonald reminded the Knights that the purpose of the bulding was to be a centre for good and that they must exemplify in practice the ideals of charity, unity and fraternity enjoyed by the Knights of Columbus.

Grand Knight J. H. LeBrun, welcomed the guests, including Bishop Landry, priests from Richmond County parishes, wives of council members and officials of the Knights of Columbus.

The new council—named after the first Catholic to sit in the provincial legislature—serves all Richmond County and was formed two months ago from clubs which previously were affiliated to Port Hood and Sydney councils.

After congratulating the Council on the attractive, new quarters, the Bishop said:

"Council Rooms of the Knights of Columbus serve a useful purpose as a centre promoting unity and fraternity among the Council members.

"Unity and fraternity are not sterile words. Unity expresses strength. Fraternity in its Christian sense means brotherly love or Charity. Understood in this way fraternity is the split animating, or giving life to unity. "Behold how good and how pleasant it is," says the Psalmist, "for brethern to dwell together in of fraternity, says: "It would see unity." And St. Paul, speaking you unwearied in activity, aglow with the Spirit, waiting like slaves upon the Lord: buoyed up by hope, patient in affliction, perservering in prayer, providing generously for the needs of the saints, giving the stranger a loving welcome." Romans 12:11014.

"That unity and fraternity will flourish here and overflow throughout all Richmond County, is my wish, with the Church's I bless these Council rooms.

"May these rooms be the dynamic centre of good works. The measure of good works attempted and accomplished here in unity and fraternity will determine the value of this centre to the Church, to the civil community and to the members themselves. Through the years to come may an impressive record of service be written by Laurence Cavanagh Council into the history of Richmond County."

Other speakers were Bishop G. L. Landry, a Past Grand Knight; Council Chaplain Rev. A. Doucet; Past State Deupty S. J. Khatter; State Deputy Hugh MacDonnell; District Deputy Fred Musgrave; and District Deputy J. Frank Chisholm (termed the "godfather" of the new council) who presented the Charter to Grand Knight J. Harold LeBrun.

A social program followed under the convenorship of Lecturer J. Emile Benoit, with Xyste Landry providing the musical selections.

The new headquarters is the former Acadiaville School which has been totally renovated by Knights and contains a council chamber, club room, reading room and all facilities attractively laid out in the two-storey structure.

TEXT OF ADDRESS

Mun-Clerk Doyle Thanks Red Cross

Mr. Chairman, Your Excellencies, Rev. Clergy, Rev. Sisters, Hon. Ministers, Distinguished Guests; Ladies and Gentlemen:—

As already announced in the Press my duty at this moment, on behalf of the five communities of Richmond County directly concerned, is to publicly extend to the Canadian Red Cross, an important member of the renowned International Red Cross Organization, our sincere thanks for having established and maintained efficiently, during the past eleven years an out-post Red Cross Hospital at Arichat.

Some five years previous to that time, we of this area, assisted by our absent friends, had managed to acquire a suitable property and to erect it as the nucleus of our dream—to establish an hospital in this, the shiretown town of our County. However, the latter accomplishment but served as an awakening to the fact that financially we were unable to move on to the second stage of our hospital project, which was to provide the essentials embodied in the practical functioning of a modern hospital. The costs of the necessary equipment salares of efficient nurses, general staff and maintenance were factors far beyond our purse. Our venture after all our preliminary work now viewed in the realm of reality was yet but a dream.

Still, we had hopes of better days to come and in searching about for the proverbial ray of sunshine the aurora of the great Canadian Red Cross Organization provided us the solution. Through the channel of its able and zealous Commissioner, Mr. Illsely, whom we regret is not here today, our Hospital move-

Sisters Take Over Red Cross Outpost Hospital

ARICHAT—The Red Cross outpost hospital which has served Ile Madame and Louisdale for the past 11 years was officially handed over to the local communities Sunday afternoon, July 27, in special ceremonies at Arichat.

Two Bishops, many priests and several hundred persons from surrounding areas joined Red Cross authorities and officials of the new hospital board for the event.

The ceremonies opened with Solemn High Mass in Notre Dame Church (the one-time cathedral of the diocese) sung by Very Rev. A. P. Poirier, P.P., Arichat and dean of Richmond county. Assisting Father Poirier: were Rev. A. Doucet, P. P., West Arichat; and Rev. C. P. Girrior, P. P., Louisdale as deacon and subdeacon respectively; Master of Ceremonies was Rev. A. J. MacLeod.

TWO LANGUAGES

Bishop MacDonald spoke to the large crowd in the church in English; while Bishop G. L. Landry delivered the sermon in in French.

Present also in the sanctuary were former long-time Petit de Grat pastor Msgr. A. A. Boudreau, P. P., Margaree; Rev. Chas. Forest, P. P., Petit de Grat; Rev. W. A. Boucher, P. P., D'Escousse; Rev. T. J. Power, P. P. Lower River Inhabitants and Rev. A. Poitras, C.S.C. of Moncton, N. B. The children's choir sang during the Mass.

Father Poirier welcomed the visitors to Arichat and said that St. Anne's feast was an appropriate day on which to elebrate the transfer of the hospital newly named in her honor.

In his remarks at the Mass, Bishop MacDonald said:

"The basis and inspiration for hospital work under the aegis of the Church is found in Our Lord's own example. Ferquently, when He was on earth, our divine Lord healed the sick and, for all time, He made the care of the wounded traveller an example of the meaning and scope of love of neighbour. Furthermore, he listed practical concern for the sick as one of those corporal works of mercy which He takes as done to Himself and for which He will give an everlasting reward. "Believe Me," Our Lord will say at the last Judgment, "when you did it to one of the least of My brethern here, you did it to Me."

"It is therefore easily understood why all across Canada and around the world, Religious Communities of Sisters devote themselves to hospital work. Isle Madame is fortunate in securing for its hospital the Filles de Jesus whose wide experience and devoted spirit eminently qualify them for this duty.

"Although the new hospitalization plan will enable people to finance their stay in hospital, there is need of continued interest and financial support by the people on the whole served by the hospital. Only with this interest and support will the Sisters be able to provide the efficient and modern hospital service which they desire and which the sick need and deserve. Judging from the past record, it can be assumed that St. Anne's Hospital will receive this support.

"It is fitting that the transfer of administration of the Arichat Hospital should be marked in this public way.

"This Formal Opening of the Hospital under new auspices affords the opportunity of expressing public thanks to the Nova Scotia Branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society for having staffed and aided this hospital for eleven years; and, at the same time, of extending a cordial welcome to the new administration provided by the Religious Congregation of the Filles de Jesus. With God's blessing, through the intercession of St. Anne, now the heavenly patroness of the hospital; with the co-operation of the public; may St. Anne's Hospital expand its necessary and useful service for the people of Isle Madame; and may the dedicated staff have satisfaction and success in their great work of Christian Charity."

Bishop Landry in his sermon, paid tribute to the Filles de Jesus, administrators of the hospital, for their well-known work with the education of youth. He expressed confidence, also, in their work for the care of the sick, an avenue of charity in which they have already proved themselves at Cheticamp.

RECALLED JUBILEE

The Bishop recalled that he had three or four years ago given the sermon to mark the jubilee of the arrival of the Filles de Jesus at Arichat. At that time, he had spoken of the value of education and the great work accomplished by the Sisters in this field.

"No one is more qualified than religious to provide such education," he said, "and the Church has confided this beautiful work to the Sisters because they do it so well."

On this occasion, Bishop Landry continued, "I am here to share with you in the inauguration of another work of mercy—the care of the sick. For this work, also, the Sisters are very well qualified."

Most of the miracles recorded of Our Blessed Lord were wrought on the sick—the sick of body and the sick of soul, went on the Bishop. Jesus Christ often used the sickness of the body to get at the real sickness of the soul and cure it.

Even today, he said, the only way to get at certain souls is through the sickness of their bodies. And at this task the Sisters excell because they are so zealous and so dedicated. The worth of Sisters in hospital work, he noted, was being recognized throughout Canada, where more and more hospitals were being confided to their care.

Following Mass the guests adjourned to the hospital entrance where Robert Matheson, supervisor of outpost hospitals presented a plaque to Charles Gordon, Hospital Board Chairman, in memory of the 11-year operation of the hospital by the Red Cross.

Father Poirier praised the contribution made by the Red Cross to the area. The oranization had provided hospital facilities and funds in excess of $100,000 over the past 11 years, he said, and the whole area owned the Red Cross a debt of gratitude which the plaque would commemorate.

E. C. Doyle, Municipal Clerk expressed the thanks of the community to the Red Cross. A text of Mr. Doyle's address will be found elsewhere in this issue.

Superior of St. Anne's Hospital is Sister Edilturude, formerly superior at Saired Heart Hospital, Cheticamp.

The hospital itself is located in the building originally built for the Bishops of Arichat. Father Poirier noted in the course of remarks that the 15-bed building was already outmoded and that efforts would be made to provide bigger and more modern facilities.

Date of writing is August first and haymaking is the order of the day in this area.

It is written that he who watches the clouds will neither sow nor reap.

Well in the wonderful weather that prevailed during the twenties of July there were no clouds to watch.

We had a profusion of visitors this season and still they come.

The last shall come first and we acknowledge a brief visit from Rev. Parker Matheson and Mrs. Matheson, who were leaving on their annual vacation which we throughout.

trust will be an enjoyable one

We were glad to have our old neighbor Johnnie Angus Murray of Oban, whose years coincide with our own, spent a recent Saturday with us. Glad to see our veteran visitor Cameron Boyd of Cannes when he came and glad to have Samuel Taylor of West Bay an over the week-end guest. Sam is an authority on dates, and often makes us feel ashamed in that respect.

ment after so many vicissitudes was finally launched out upon the broad bosom of mercy and charity to labour in behalf of us all.

In the succeeding years, down to the date of change, which is to be announced by this meeting, the Isle Madame Red Cross Outpost Hospital served us broadly and well. No deserving person was ever turned from its doors. Kindness and solicitude for the comfort of the suffering ones dominated the atmosphere within its walls. Thus did this wonderful Red Cross Society, dedicated to the welfare of suffering humanity the world over, conceive and foster amongst that splendid tradition it now passes on to its successors, The Saint Ann Hospital. This is but one of the many benefits from them so received and for which we now say to them—Thank You—Thank You a thousand times.

It is meet at this stage and in the interests of the young generation, our men and women of tomorrow, to dwell for a moment upon a wider aspect of Red Cross labours in our county. Certain it is that, as it went about its noble work without stress or fanfare, it planted in our hearts and minds an hospital consciousness from which springs foundation upon which its successor, the incoming St. Ann Hospital, will rear its edifice of tomorrow. This truth constitutes another valid reason why today, at this very moment, we should again proffer the Red Cross—by medium of its official representative here present — another sincere and heartfelt thank you.

May we close, Mr. Chairman with quoting from Longfellow the lines we feel embody our emotions of the moment.

"Thanks, thanks to thee my worthy friend,
For the lesson thou has taught
Thus at the flaming forge of life
Our fortune must be wrought;
Thus on its sounding anvil shaped
Each burning deed and thought."

Dan Alan MacLean

TUSTIN, Calif.—The death occurred at his home in Fresno, California on July 23rd of Dan Alan MacLean, eldest son of the late Hugh MacLean of Balmoral, Richmond County, C. B. As a youth he attended school at Arichat and later taught school in various parts of Richmond and Inverness Counties. He was a real intellectual, a profound scholar, and although a man of infinite kindness and tolerance, he was a nonconformist during his entire life. He did his own thinking.

Dannie Alan sleeps in beautiful Belmont Memorial Park in the city of Fresno far from the green hills of his native Cape Ereton, and in spite of tears and fears and doubts and dogmas let us hope that he is better now.

The Chairman wishes to express his sincere thanks to all collectors and contributors for their splendid support towards this worthy cause.

Minister of Health Announces Hospital Loan Fund

During the official opening of the St. Anne Hospital at Arichat on Sunday, Hon. Richard Donahoe, provincial minister of health, announced that "the Government has taken a decision to establish a Hospital Loan Fund from which municipalities providing money for new hospital facilities will be enabled to borrow up to fifty per cent of the amount of the municipality's share of the cost."

Mr. Donahue was guest speaker at a banquet held in the convent hall, Arichat in the evening in conjunction with official opening ceremonies of the hospital, formerly a Red Cross Outpost Hospital, and which is now a community project.

Following a review of the background and other phases of the Hospital Insurance Plan, the health minister went on to say it should be clearly understood that the coming of the Hospital Insurance Plan, while it is revolutionary with respect to the cost of hospital care itself, effects no change whatever in the responsibility for the provision of of hospital facilities. These facilities in Nova Scotia, with one or two exceptions, have always been provided by the municipalities or by private organizations or individuals, and that position is unchanged.

"In spite of the extended assistance by way of grant, to which I have previously referred, in spite of the fact that the reduced municipal payments for hospitals will now be allocated directly to the hospitals for capital purposes, there still remains a very substantial financial burden for capital construction costs to be borne by those responsible for providing hospitals.

"With all the demands that are made on the credit of the municipalities at the present time, it appears that it will be difficult for some municipalities, where new construction is necessary, to raise the required sums of money to provide for hospital construction.

"Best estimates available indicate that by 1965 Nova Scotia's hospital facilities may have to be increased by as many as 1405 active treatment beds, 844 long-stay treatment beds, and 1180 nurses' beds.

"In the light of this demand and of the circumstances relating to municipal financing, the Government has taken a decision to establish a Hospital Loan Fund from which municipalities providing money for new hospital facilities will be enabled to borrow up to fifty per cent of the amount of the municipality's share of cost.

It is hoped and believed that this action on the part of the Government will simplify the raising of the needed capital in order that hospital services may be provided at a high standard and on an even basis for all regions of the Province," said the minister in his closing remarks.

The ceremonies Sunday were initiated by the celebration of solemn high mass at four o'clock in the afternoon in Assumption Church with the Bishop of Antigonish, His Excellency J. R. MacDonald, D. D., delivering a sermon in English, and His Excellency G. L. Landry, D. D., parish priest of Mount Carmel, New Waterford presenting a sermon in French.

Goyetche of Pearl St. Sister Sylvia is the former Bertha May Sampson a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence J. Sampson of Louisdale. She had been stationed in New Brunswick for some time but has been transferred to Alberta. She was accompanied by her sister Florence and her little niece, Sylvia Boyd from Mabou, C. B. They also visited in Warren, R. I. We wish Sister Sylvia every happiness in Western Canada and look forward to another visit in the not too distant future.
