Annual Holiday

J. W. CORBETT, Manager
Royal Bank of Canada, Arichat

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Corbett and family are spending their annual holidays in Prince Edward Island where they will visit Mrs. Corbett's parents in Charlottetown and her beloved grandfather, Dr. MacDonald of St. Peter's Bay, who celebrated his 100th birthday anniversary earlier in the year.

Friends will join with us in wishing both Mr. and Mrs. Corbett and family a very happy holiday in the "Garden of the Gulf."

During Mr. Corbett's absence he is being relieved by Mr. Hall a retired banker who makes his home in Baddeck, he is being accompanied by Mrs. Hall, both of whom have been coming to Arichat for the past few years and are warmly welcomed by their friends and acquaintances.

River Bourgeois Ripples

On August 15th thirteen years ago people rejoiced when news was received of the end of world War II. On the same date thirteen years later at approximately 8.30 p.m. a time switch automatically illuminated the war Memorial on which the names of our dead heroes are engraved. This flood-light will be a reminder to the citizens of this community as well as others passing through our beautiful village of the sacrifice made by these courageous men for our country. Each evening at the time mentioned above this light will come on and at 1.00 a.m., it will go off accordingly. We had this project in mind for quite some time. It is a permanent job and the system is connected to the Parish all by means of an underground leaded cable. The cost of installation was $77.50. We now have a deficit of $45.00. The money derived from the sale of the Round-Up and contributions will go towards defraying the expenses and the up-keep of this illumination.

On Sunday July 27th., Sisters Gustave and Eugenie of Stella Maris Convent, through the kindness of Dr. Digout and Mr. Thomas Lafford were conveyed by car and motor boat to Chapel Island in the Bras D'or Lakes where the Indians of the Micmac tribe annually celebrate the feast of St. Ann. The senior editor of this news letter was very fortunate to witness this ceremony for the first time. The ringing of the church bell announced the beginning of the procession which was led by a senior member of their race carrying the processional cross. This was followed by Fathers MacNeil and MacDougall of St. Peters; Father MacPherson of Eskasoni and Father Roach of St. Anthony Daniel's Parish, Sydney; also Chief Silliboy and Captains of their tribe who sang hymns in the Micmac dialect in honor of St. Ann. They carried an elaborately decorated statue of their patron saint and one of them, a venerable old man, scattered rose petals from a basket as he proceeded in front of the statue. A beautiful banner with purple streamers held by six little Indian girls wearing white dresses and veils, depicting a phase in the life of St. Ann was also carried in the procession. After reaching the site where the first Mass was offered for the Micmacs one hundred years ago. The chief and priests spoke from an outdoor pulpit, after which the procession and congregation continued to the church where the veneration of the relic of St. Ann took place. Many Micmacs came from surrounding reservations and erected wigwams on the Island to attend the four-day mission which was terminated by this ceremony. The first Micmac's were converted in 1610 by the Missionaries through the intercession of St. Ann whom they adopted as the protectress of their tribe. The Sisters were deeply impressed by the loyalty and devotion shown by these people.

Three of our local boys, namely: Billy Samson, leading cadet Peter Robertson leading cadet and Arthur Dorey able cadet, attended a 2-week period at Point Edward Naval Base near Sydney. These bbys engaged in several sporting events. Leading Cadet Robertson came first in the 100 yard dash in which 12 competed. He also came second in the one-mile race. Leading Cadet Samson was successful in attaining second place in underwater swimming. They also competed in dinghy racing, softball, volly ball and

Premier Endorses Children's Aid Drive

Endorsation of the Premier, the Honourable Robert L. Stanfield, on behalf of the Children's Aid Societies' Financial Campaigns in Nova Scotia:—

The Children's Aid Societies throughout Nova Scotia are conducting their annual campaign for funds from September 15th to October 4th. Many of these Societies have been in operation for close to fifty years and are now well known.

These Societies are private organizations controlled by a local Board of Directors. In many instances the Children's Aid Society is the only professionally staffed welfare agency in the community. Although the Societies are responsible for carrying out much of the child welfare legislation of the the Province and receive some financial support from both Provincial and Municipal Governments, they are not government agencies and receive the greater part of their financial support from the citizens of the communities they serve. This support is obtained by means of an annual campaign for funds.

Through the years the Societies haye amply demonstarted the value of their work on behalf of underprivileged and unfortunate children. In a democracy such as ours, it is desirable that our citizens should have an opportunity of working together for the welfare of their communities and I am sure the work of the Societies will be more effective under local management with their major support from the communities they serve.

I am happy, therefore, to commend to you, the citizens of our Province, this annual campaign for funds for the Children's Aid Societies. Your ensuring the future well-being of many children in Nova Scotia.

St. Peters Notes

Miss Margaret Madden, teacher at the St. Peters School, has taken up residence in the A. A. Morrison house.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles MacDonald and Mr. Alex Morrison attended the marriage of Mr. Billy Pearo in the Province of New Brunswick. Friends here will join with us in congratulating Billy and his bride and in wishing them many years of happy wedded life.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Morrison have returned from a delightful motor trip to Toronto where they visited their son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. J. Kemp Morrison.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Ross of West Bay have purchased the Pearo property and will take up residence in this town in the near future.

Miss Janie A. MacCuish has returned home after spending several days visiting friends in Port Hastings.

Rev. and Mrs. John MacLeod of Port Simpson, B. C., are visitors to this place. The reverend gentleman was a fomer pastor of the United Church here.

Rev. Father J. H. MacEachern of Passachendale was a visitor to St. Peters on Labor Day. Father MacEachern was a formed pastor of St. Peters Church here.

The Labor Day concert sponsored by the local club of the K. of C., was a noted success and much enjoyed by all. After the dinner a dance was held in the County Hall.

Many summer visitors have returned to their homes after visiting friends and relatives at St. Peters and adjoining districts.

St. Peters offers the summer tourist a delightful resort with its beautiful Bras d'Or Lakes and the wide expanse of St. Peters Bay offer bathers and yachtsmen a haven from the rush of the busy city.

Sporting Mountain ..ECHOES.. By D. A. S.

D. A. MacLEAN

We had occasion to be sincerely sorry for the recent passing of Dan Alan MacLean on the other side of the continent.

At the turn of the century we were familiarly known to each other, and were fast and faithful friends.

We compliment the writer of that inimitable obituary notice.

While in the vicinity Rev. John MacLeod late of St. Peters, but now of Port Simpson, B. C., was a motor visitor to our little domicile by the roadside.

We were surely glad to see the genial gentleman in whom there is no gulle and for whom we have always cherished true respect.

St. Peters grand old man, Angus Ferguson, accompanied the reverend gentleman and we appreciated a visit from the venerable nonagenarian.

Mrs. Mary Bell Farr of Somerville, Mass., recently made her second visit to her native Seaview.

Mrs. Farr was the youngest daughter Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rose (Kate Sutherland) who moved to Massachusetts some sixty years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Beaver, Barrington, R. I., Mrs. Annie Kelly, Brookline, Mass., and Michael McIntosh Jr., Newton Centre, Mass., were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McIntosh, St. Peters.

On Friday at dusk the entire household comprised a motor party to Seaview and favored us with a most enjoyable social evening which was a telling stimulant to our depressed morale.

W. L. McPhee of the Dept of Customs, St. John, N. B., is a veteran of World War One and previous to that one of our pupils in Seaview School.

Through all the years that have intervened "Wilfred" has been our constant friend and annual visitor.

Thus it was pleasing when Mrs. Henry Pottie (Florence McPhee) and little daughter Annie Marie, piloted a quartet of his descendants to our door the other day.

They included:

Mr. and Mrs. J. Alexander McPhee, Miss Jacquelis McPhee and Joseph J. McPhee.

Whilst Mr. and Mrs. Vitus Burke (Irene Morrison) and son, Dennis Joseph of Halifax were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morrison and son George Arthur at River Tillard, both family trios, comprised a motor party to the house by the side of the road.

We had occasion to be especially glad to see Mrs. Burke whom we had known through youthful years and adult life.

She is a choice product of Sporting Mountain and we doubt if its summits, or its slopes or its shadows ever nurtured any nicer than Irene.

Mrs. Fred Digout opened school here Sept third.

Mrs. Digout is neither a novice to the profession nor to Seaview School.

Dan T. Grant of Port Hawkesbury was a recent visitor to the old Grant home and contacted the remnant of his old neighbors on Seaview all of whom were glad to see him.

Dan T. is one of the spare gang on the C. N. R. and speaks well of his associates.

John N. Morrison motored up from St. Peters a few days ago to enjoy a chat reminiscant of lifes heyday in Seaview.

Alan Tousenard was a business visitor to Seaview the other day day and took time off to spend a social spell with us.

Mr. Touesnard generally makes a success of anything he attempts we were glad when he told us he purposed starting a blueberry plantation on the sun-kissed slopes of Sporting Mountain.

Speaking of blueberries Ann Burke, Marie Dorey and Anna Dorey of Cannes spent a couple of days at the Boudreau farm went home with a generous supply.

We shall tell you about our trip to Isle Madame in another conribution.

COUNCIL HOST TO COLLEGE STUDENTS

The Laurence Kavanagh K. of C. Council No. 4607 was host to approximately 40 Catholic students from Richmond County, who are attending or will be enrolling for college courses during the coming year, in the Council Rooms, West Arichat. The large number of fathers and mothers, students and knights present were welcomed by the Grand Knight, J. Harold LeBrun.

The program chairman, M. A. MacNeil, Louisdale, introduced the Council Executive, the college students and Chaplain A. Doucet, P. P., West Arichat, who in his usual eloquent manner addressed the undergraduates. This phase of the program was followed by a social with music provided by Fulbert Boudreau and his orchestra.

...so both are borrowing from a bank

When borrowing is sound business practice, it is a simple, straightforward process to arrange a loan from a chartered bank.

Every day, in every part of Canada, the chartered banks are lending money to farmers, fishermen, producers, manufacturers, processors and other commercial customers, large and small...to meet payrolls, buy raw materials, market goods and meet a multitude of financial needs.

A bank manager is constantly on the lookout for opportunities to make such loans —that's his job. Bank loans are an essential part of the process that provides the goods and services that make life better for all Canadians.

DON'T QUIT

When things go wrong as they sometimes will,
When the road you are trudging seems all up hill,
When the funds are low and the debts are high,
And you want to smile but heave a sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit;
Rest, if you must, but don't you quit.

CHILDREN'S AID WORK OUTLINED

50 years ago, before the Children's Aid movement began in Nova Scotia, hundreds of children did not have a place they could call home. For them there was not the love, understanding and security that every child needs. These children had committed no crimes. Some could not get along with their parents, some had been deserted, others had been born out of wedlock. They led bleak lives in orphanges or poorhouses.

Today many family difficulties can be ironed out, and a real home provided by the child's own parents. As advisor and friend, your Society Worker stands ready to help the family with whatever troubles may appear. Family difficulties may or may not be temporary. But as long as there is the chance that the child may some day have a real home, your Children's Aid Society is on hand.

Unfortunately many broken ties can never be mended. A new permanent home must be found No stone is left unturned to find the right parents for the right child.

Whether in homes or in institutions, the children get assistance and treatment from your Society. They receive the guidance and friendship that is necessary until they can take their normal place in society.

Help the Children's Aid Society of Cape Breton" with your contributions when collectors call on you shortly.

The other day Sam's little boy was being shown his new baby brother and the boy seemed kind'a taken by the baby's lack of hair.

"Where did you say he come from, Mom?" asked the boy.

"From Heaven, dear."

"Well," pondered the youngster, "they sure give close haircuts in Heaven, don't they?"

Good news this week about more fire protection for national forests in the U.S. Eight Navy Avenger torpedo bombers (TBM-3's) have been transferred from the Navy to the Forest Service.

All but one plane will be used for fire fighting in the West, particularly out California way, where recent tests showed that showering of water or chemicals from "air tankers" helps bring forest fires under control.

The eighth plane will be used for research in forest insect spraying.

A professor down at an Eastern college says that a tree 35 feet high with a leaf surface of two thousand square feet (wonder who did the measurin') can perspire over 35 gallons of water per day in midsummer, or over a thousand gallons during the hottest month of the year.

May seem kind'a strange but the best place to begin operations when planning a woodlot is in the air. Yessir, I said the air. It's the only way to see a woodlot in its entirety and all at one time.

'Course if you don't happen to own a helicopter best thing is an aerial map. You can buy an aerial survey map of your territory from the government.

Ask for the 40" by 40" photographic enlargement. That's big enough for you to see roads, buildings, fences and water features. Best thing to do is make a tracing of your property and use streams, roads and interior fences as boundaries for working units.

Splitting up your woodlot like that is useful 'cause of differences in soil and plant life that require different forestry methods.

Scottish Concert A Noted Success

ST. PETER'S — Approximately 350 people attended a Scotch Variety Concert in the St, Peter's Parish Hall, St. Peter's, as part the Labor Day Program sponsored by the St. Peter's K. of C. Club.

Master of ceremonies was Rev. J. H. MacEachern, P. P., Passachendale and former pastor of St. Peter's Parish, assisted by Rev. Hugh MacDonald, P. P., Louisburg, who delighted the audience with his piano selections, and Rev. D. M. Rankin, P. P., Creignish. Besides local talent, the following out-of-town artists participated: Mr. Alex A. MacIsaac and his daughter, Dianne, Nova Scotia's "Step-Dancing" champion, from New Waerford; Miss Deanie Munroe, Salem Road, who played the bagpipes and danced the "Sailor's Hornpipe"; and Mrs. Alex McEachern, Creignish, who sang gaelic songs, assisted in a duet by Rev. D. M. Rankin. Highland dancing featured the four Chisholm sisters: Mary, Anne, Patricia and Margaret Jean, from Barra Head.

Violin music for the concert and for the dance was held in the county hall, following the concert, was provided by 'Buddy' MacMaster and his sister, Lorraine. Prior to the concert and dance, a turkey dinner was served by the wives of K. of C. members to approximately 250 people.

Patrick Butler, age 8, St. Peter's was the holder of the $500 "lucky ticket."

REST AT EVENING

Before you lie down in the evening, banish from your heart whatsoever grudge you bear against a fellowman, saying: "I forgive all that have offended me." Be thou rather of those that are cursed, not of those who curse; of them that persecute; Whosoever takes an offense in silence; he who does good because of love; he who is cheerful under his sufferings—they are the friends of God and of them the Scripture says, "And they shall shine forth as does the sun at noonday."

To the Electors of District No 11 County of Richmond

On Tuesday, October 21st of this year the Electors of District No. 11 will be asked to go to the Polls and elect a Councillor to represent them in the Municipal Council for the next three years.

I have been approached by several taxpayers in the District and asked to allow my name to be placed before you as a candidate in this election. After some consideration, I have decided to offer as a candidate, in this forthcoming Municipal Election, and through the medium of the Richmond County Record, I am asking for your support on Election day.

As most of you already know I have always taken a keen interest in the affairs of our community. I have never failed to support or take responsibility in any organization which meant good for the community as a whole. If you place your confidence in me on election day and elect me as your representative in the next Municipal Council, I can assure you, that I will discharge my duties to the best of my ability and will always strive to do what I think is best for the betterment of the taxpayer and the Municipality as a whole.

I have several years experience in the field of accounting and financial matters and I feel certain, that this knowledge will be valuable when such matters are being presented to Council, thus assuring the taxpayers of our District—a better representation in the financial matters of our Municipality.

Since the past few years our Municipal Government. It is come big business. It is therefore very important to the taxpayers of our District that the candidate whom they elect as their Councillor possesses the capabilities and experience in business to enable him to understand fully the procedure and financial problems which arise in our Municipal Government. It is with this experience, that I ask your support on Election Day.

In a Democratic Country, such as ours, every person whose name appears on the voting list is entitled to vote. I trust that all those eligible to vote in District No. 11, will take advantage of this privilege and will make a determined effort to go to the Polls on Election Day and cast their ballot and before doing so consider carefully the capabilities of the candidate asking for your support and vote for the one who in your better judgment will give you the best representation in the next Municipal Council.

Thanking you, in anticipation of your support on Election Day.

I remain,
Yours very sincerely,
P. A. JOLLYMORE

boxing. One day was spent aboard the mine sweeper Resolute where instructions were given in compass reading, radar, etc. The three Cadets had an enjoyable two weeks at the Naval Base.

Among those who attended the pilgrimage to St. Ann de Beaupre and Cap de la Madeline were: Mrs. Pauline Bond, Mrs. Joseph Bouchie, Catherine Touesnard and Hilda Burke.

BIRTHS: Born to Mr. and Mrs. Bob Burke of Brantford, Ontario, a daughter, Michele Ruth; to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Richard, a daughter, Donna Bernadette; to Mr. and Mrs. Dave Touesnard a son, Paul Anselm; to Mr. and Mrs. Mable Burke a son, Peter Abram and to Mr. and Mrs. Estwood Davidson, a daughter, Verna Marie.

The marriage of Joseph Bouchie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bouchie, and Emily Landry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Landry took place on August 25, with Father Samson officiating. Father Gregory Samson, cousin of the groom was in the Sanctuary during the Nuptial High Mass. After the wedding breakfast served at the bride's home, the happy couple motored to different parts of Cape Breton Island. In the evening supper was served to over one hundred guests at the home of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Bouchie will reside in Halifax where the groom is employed in the taxi business. We extend congratulations to the newlyweds.

Mr. Isaac Rchard's house located at Barrachois, now known as Richard's Pond was moved by Mr. Fred Digout's 20 H. P. tractor together with another 40 H. P. machine owned by the Department of Highways. It was hauled to South River Bourgeois a disance of approximately two miles. This house is now between the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Samson and that of the late Mr. William S. Boyd. This is not the first time that houses were moved from this area. Some years ago five brothers, namely: Captain Abam, Charlie, Damien, Aimie and Cyprien Burke each had their homes removed from Barrachois to River Bourgeois. At that time mov ng was done by man power, when the men of the village gathered together and united their strength to remove buildings from one place to another.

A reunion of the family of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Sampson was held a few weeks ago, when their sons, Albert, Anselm and Gregory also their daughters, Mrs. Arthur Beranger (Madeline); Mrs. Leo Dorey (Lena), and Mrs. Edward Penticost (Mary Ellen), also Angeline and Brother Pius, sister and brother of Mr. James Sampson, Venerable Brother Pius of the Dominican Order who is in his 80th year visited all his relatives while at River Bourgeois. He entered the religious life in 1908 and this fall will have served 50 years in this noble profession. This was Brother Pius' third visit to his native village since becoming a religious. He is now at the Dominican Monastery in Sackville. Of Mr. Sampson's large family of 10 children, the youngest son Gregory is entering the Eudist Seminary in Quebec shortly to become a missionary priest. A social was held in the Parish Hall at which he was presented $125.00. Gregory wishes to thank everyone who attended this gathering in his honor.
