Just A Little More

Give a little, live a little, try a little mirth;
Sing a little, bring a little happiness to earth;
Pray a little, play a little, be a little glad;
Rest a little, jest a little if the heart is sad.
Spend a little, send a little to another's door;
Give a little, live a little, love a little more.

BILLY RICHARDS — The first time Ottawa-born Billy Richards appeared on a stage he broke down and ran crying into his mother's arms. But that was when he was 2 1-2 years old. In the years that have followed he has more than made up for this early setback, and has built a reputation as a successful entertainer on both radio and television. He is seen each Saturday leading a 14-piece orchestra in Swing Easy, a CBC-TV summer show.

PIANIST WELCOMED — Miss Eleanor M. Ritcey, Cole Harbor, who recently returned from three years of piano study at the Royal College of Music, London, Eng., is shown being welcomed by the Premier, Hon. Robert L. Stanfiled. Premier Stanfield is president of the Nova Scotia Talent Trust, an organization which assistted Miss Ritcey in her final two years of study.

SAFETY FIRST

A man walked into a barbershop and asked for a shave. The barber's new assistant, a youth still in his teens, pulled on his boss' sleeve and whispered:....

"May I try shaving him? It will be good practice for me."

"All right, go ahead," the barber said. "But be careful. Don't cut yourself."

It CAN Happen To YOU

(Hants Journal)

Every day the papers record tragic accidents, fatalities on the road, on the water and, while we are duly shocked at the time, there still stays with us the firm belief that such a thing could not happen to us. Unfortunately it CAN happen to YOU and it is just because of this complacent feeling that carelessness enters into the picture and allows these accidents to happen.

We are coming into the season just now when parents are looking forward to the holiday visits of their children and cherished grandchildren. Don't be content with putting your cherished figurines, vases, etc., all out of reach of those exploring little hands. Take time today to make a round of your kitchen, for example search the shelves of your lower cupboards and remove bottles and cans of detergents and other things which might be harmful to the child.

Don't let your carelessness result in tragedy. And don't put it off. Do it today because it CAN happen to you.

Schools Re-Open September 8th.

HALIFAX — The first school date of the 1859—1960 term in Nova Scotia will be September 8, the Department of Education has announced.

In the past it has been the practice to open schools on Wednesday following Labor Day. This year they will open a day earlier to allow more time for Christmas vacation.

If schools were to remain closed a day longer in September, the full year of 190 teaching days could only be provided by allowing the minimum of five regular school days for Christmas vacation in addition to Christmas and New Year's days.

Parents with children of school age and teachers in the public schools who expect to be away from home during the latter part of the summer should keep in mind the fact that school begins the day after Labor Day, the Department said.

A school board may obtain permission from the Minister of Education to open the school or schools under its jurisdiction before Labor Day.

Preparing For Record Enrolment

HALIFAX — The Adult Education Division of the Nova Scotia Department of Education is preparing for record enrolment at the School of Community Arts, to be held at Tatamagouche August 12 to 22.

To date, 53 registrations have been made and one class—with a limit of 20 students—has been closed for more than two months.

The two painting classes lead in numbers of registrations; professional painting has a full complement and 17 others have signed up for general painting sessions under John Cook and Elizabeth Annand.

Application forms have been received for community music, woodworking, folk and square dancing, leathercraft, dramatics and social dancing.

Last year a record 168 students attended ten-day summer courses at the 12th annual folkschool of the arts.

HOST OF NEW RADIO SHOW—Host for CBC radio's new series, Festival in Sound, is Clyde Gilmour, newspaper columnist nationally known for his syndicated movie and record reviews. In Festival in Sound, he will present some of Canada's top vocalists and instrumentalists in the popular music field, including artists such as Phyllis Marshall, Phil Nimmons, Sylvia Murphy and Moe Koffman. This new program is broadcast twice a week, on Tuesday and Friday evenings, over the Trans-Canada network of CBC radio.

WHICH IS WHICH?—Sailor or cloche? CBC commentator Byng Whitteker hasn't the foggiest idea which hat is which. What man has? That's why Joy Davies (left) in the sailor, has been employed by the CBC as fashion consultant for radio and television coverage of the royal visit. One of her main jobs will be to brief commentators each morning on the fashions the Queen will be wearing that day. Pretty Toronto model Dorothy Fraser (right) models the cloche.
