Tales, Tidings And Tidbits From MacTavish

WE GALLOP TO BOSTON TO SEE AN OLD FRIEND, BEFORE WE LEAVE BEANTOWN WE MEET THIRTY AND TEN.

We use the word galop in the above caption for it reminds us of the ancient North Church which still stands in the pulsating heart of Boston; and from its stately steeple many years ago a lantern was swung, this signal starting America's revered Paul off on his furious ride arousing the countryside with the cry: "The British are coming!' The British are coming!" Heroic Paul did not tell the whole story. In all fairness he should have added: "AND THE CAPE BRETONERS TOO!"

Lady MacTavish and I spent four happy days with old friends, Kaye and Hector Matheson in Boston's new residential district of Norwood. And on a Saturday evening there was a gathering of the Clans. But a definite tinge overshadowed the evening and the naturally glad heart of our Highlanders were subdued....An aged friend had passed away that morning. Mrs Angus MacLeod (the former Sophia MacDonald of Mount Auburn.) Ample evidence of her sterling character and worth was evident as we met and talked to friends that evening and the two days following.

We met D. J. McDermitt, big, deep chested, with a custom built voice for songs of the Hills; and his wife Florence who hails from Maine and a particular friend of former St. Peterite, Sybil MacAskill. We met Rod Ferguson and his good wife Marion (Sydney district) who bakes the best bread in all Boston.

While my Lady spun old yarns with Kyte MacKillop and Henry Shaw, your old MacTavish paid particular attention to their wives, Grace (Whycocomagh) and Zeta (Havre Boucher)—And as I swung pretty Chris (MacLeod—Grand River Falls) I winked at her good natured husband Whitey Andersen. And all the while we were close indeed to old friends "Compositor" Neil and brother John Eric Ferguson—and their ladies, (Bea Perrin—MacIntyre's Lake and Lorraine (L'Ardoise Highlands).

We dropped in to chat with Allan Morrison, happy and comortable with his Flora in Watertown (Flora MacKay — Grand River)—And a pleasure it was to sup with Archie MacDonald (West ay)—and his Annabel (Cameron —Grand River) and their two fine sons Ian and Allan....

We renewed fellowship after several decades with Rev. Robert Ross, now of Chatham, N. B.—and met once again his sister Anna....Almost forty years have passed since meeting up with old schoolmate, Willie MacLeod (Mount Auburn) and we shook hands with Hughie Ferguson Hughie R), just missing Hughie D. J. And we chatted with their sisters....Catherine (Mrs. James Ross) and (Mrs. John MacDonald) and with John—and recently marrned daughter, Isabel. And Mary (Mrs. Clarence MacAuley)—And we met for the first time Calder MacDonald (West Bay Road) and his good lady.... And there was Dick Morrison—Malcolm's brother with a twinkle in his eye and a ready smile.... And others we can't quit name—like the late Sandy MacDougald's younger daughter....Your A. F's sister....

As we rolled homewards towards the high hills of New Hampshire and over the granite clad mountains of Vermont to the shores of Lake Champlain and into this delightfully French flavoured Provnce of ours, I turned to my Lady.

"Well, a good visit?"

"Wonderful, I really enjoyed every mnute of it."

And she sat up in the seat. "You know MacTavish", she said, "I'm glad that Revere chap didn't warn the Yanks about the Cape Bretoners."

"For Goodness sake why?" I enquired.

"What would we have done without them in Boston?", she said.

"Well, we could have visited some historic spots, like Bunker Hill, The Old South Meeting House....the birth place of this there seemed to be a pensive quality to her voice. "I remember well the Highland Homes on our Island of Cape Breton. Why one of the most soul stirring things I have ever witnessed was a funeral service held under the blue of the sky, the light wind rustling in the orchard by the house and the early afternoon sun glistening on the still waters of the Grand River—and the gaelic singing....One week-end I spent at Kennie Hughie.....

"MacTavish", she said, and Paul Revere and....

"Ferguson?", I interrupted her. "I know," I continued, "Our Highlanders in Boston carried with them a splendid heritage."

"And they have a very special culture all their own", my Lady added. "It's too bad we've lost them to the Yanks."

"Ah, well", I sighed. "Good things must be sperad around—And we do have some, including Kennie Charles Strachan and his better half Eunice (Ferguson)—not forgetting John Eric—in our beautiful city of Montreal.

Bon jour.

Societe St. Pierre Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Societe St Pierre was held recently in the Consolidated School of St Joseph du Moine.

In the absence of Jean Roland Aucoin, President, who was attending Summer School in Antigonish, the Vice-President, Msgr. A Boudreau, P.P. Margaree, presided.

The report indicated that the Board of Directors had met four times during the year, and that much business had been discussed.

The various committees presented their reports, and they indicated that the Society had known a very active and interesting year.

Approximately twelve young Universities and Training Schools men and women were attending on Scholarships received from the Society. Since its foundation in 1947, the Society has helped fifty-one young men and women to continue their studies beyonl the local school.

The Nominating Committee brought in the following slate of officers:

Chaplain: Very Rev. A. P. Poirier, P. P. Arichat

Honorary President: Dr. J. G.

McGEAN — McNEIL

A lovely summer wedding was solemnized in St. Peters R. C. Church, Ingonish when Marie Louise, daughter of Mr and Mrs Malcolm MacNeil of LArdoise, became the bride of Amos Edward McGean in a double ring ceremony performed by her cousin Rev. Father John B. Kyte of Bras DOr.

The Church was decorated with baskets of pastel hydrangeas while summer flowers in gay rosettes marked the guest pews.

Mrs. Earl Donavan played appropriate wedding music and hymns were rendered by her husband Mr. Earl Donavan.

The bride, married from the home of her sister, Mrs. Gordon Doucette was given in marriage by her uncle Mr. George Boyd of Pointe A Pitre, French West Indies. Her model gown of oyster crystalline was fashioned on empire lines favoring back fullness with lace bodice and fitted sleeves ending in silhouette points at the wrist. Her cha- was held by a Mary Stuart cir-

LeVESCONTE — MacLEOD

The marriage of Jesslyn Margaret MacLeod daughter of Mr. and Mrs Murdoch A. MacLeod, Orangedale, and John William LeVesconte, son of Mr and Mrs John C. LeVesconte, St Peters, was solemnized in the United Church, Orangedale on July 25. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Harold Hilder assisted by Rev. D. J. MacLeod. The Junior Girls' Choir who were pupils of the bride during the past school year sang The Lord's Prayer and O Perfect Love accompanied by Mrs. D.J. MacLeod, organist.

For the ceremony the church was decorated with summer flowers and the guest pews were marked with white satin bows and carnations.

Given in marriage by her father the bride looked charming wearing a gown of silk organza with embroidered neckline, long sleeves tapering to points at the hands and full skirt with court train. A crown of pearls and sequins held her finger tip veil which she wore over her face entering the church. She carried a white Bible, gift of Rev. Hilder topped with red rosebuds and white streamers.

Miss Sally MacLeod attended her sister as bridesmaid. She wore a ballerina length gown of flowered sheer with turquoise cummerbund, completing her ensemble with a white picture hat and a colonial bouquet of yellow and white mums.

Little Miss Cathy MacLean was a charming flower girl in a dress of white nylon with white flower bandeau. She carried a basket of yellow and white mums.

Kenneth LeVesconte, brother of the groom was best man. The ushers were David Clare and John Allan MacDonald.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church hall. The parents of the bride and groom received with the bridal party. The bride's mother wore a dress of rose beige lace over taffeta with matching accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother wore a flowered summer silk with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The Women's Association catered for the reception. Baskets of red roses decorated the bride's table which was centered with a three tier wedding cake.

Mrs. Clive Clare, aunt of the groom and Mrs. Rod MacInnis, aunt of the bride poured. Serviteurs were Mrs. Douglas Landry, Joyce Cameron, Laleah LeVesconte, Mrs. Ross MacLeod and Mrs. Earl MacDonald.

The guest book was attended by Isabel Cameron.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Hilder and responded to by the groom.

For their wedding trip through the province the bride chose a beige sheath with three quarter length walking coat lined with mint green with which she wore mint green accessories.

Special guests were Mrs. William LeVesconte and Mrs. Olive Mauger grandmothers of the groom, Mrs. Jessie Doherty, aunt of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. of the bride, of Sommerville, William Trask, aunt and uncle Mass.

We wish the young couple a long and happy wedded life.

Mrs. A. B. MacDougall

The death of Mrs. Annie Bell MacDougall occurred at St. Martha's Hospital, Antigonish on August 1 following an illness of three weeks.

The deceased was in her 87th year and was the daughter of the late Neil MacMillan and Annie Ross of Cape George Harbor. Her husband the late Alexander MacDougall predeceased her in 1931: a daughter Hughena Ann is also predeacesed.

Surviving are John Calder, Grand Anse, N.S. Daniel N.; Murdo A.; Norman, Bert, and Lawrence of Brookline; Annie F. (Mrs. Hugh MacInnes) Dundee; Cassie Emma (Mrs. John Campbell) and Nellie Jane (Mrs. Alex MacLeod) Brookline, Mass.

Surviving also are two sisters Mrs Christena Jones, Michigan; and Mrs Tena Murray, Glace Bay; one brother Dan N. MacMillan of Glace Bay.

The funeral took place on Tuesday, August 4 from Black River United Church. Officiating were Rev. Mr. Snow and Rev. R. Humby.

The choir was in attendance and Mrs. W. S. Urquhart was organist. Rev. R. Humby san a solo "Jesus Keep Me Near the Cross'. Other hymns were What A Friend We Have in Jesus and The Lord is My Shepherd.

Pall-bearers were R. J. Urquhart and Peter Campbell, Grand Anse; Reuben Ross, West Bay; John A. MacInnes and Hector MacRae, St. Georges Channel; and Finlay A. Ross, St. Peters.

A crowded church, a lovely collection of flowers and sympathy cards were proof of the esteem held for the elderly lady.

Interment was in MacKay's cemetery, St. Georges Channel.

We extend our sincere sympathy to the bereaved family, brother and sisters.

LIME

AN AID TO BETTER FARMING

Lime can make all the difference between a bumper crop and a poor one. What might have been a wretched crop of poor quality hay without lime, could be, with lime, an excellent crop running as high as 4 tons to the acre.

A SOUND INVESTMENT

Blast Lime: $1.50 per ton
Ground Limestone: $2.50 per ton.
in bulk carlots, delivered to your nearest railway siding. Transportation assistance on truck lots.
Good farmers find that lime is providing an investment return of about $19. for every dollar spent on lime!

ORDER NOW!

It is a good plan to spread your lime on sod land to be ploughed in the period immediately after harvesting. Nova Scotia's soils are sour, and need lime. The Department strongly advises you to order your lime NOW—to be sure of your best crop next year.

For information about the use and handling of lime, contact your local Agricultural Representative.

pel length veil of tulle illusion clet of seed pearls and she carried a shower bouquet of American Beauty roses, lilies of the valley and lace fern.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was Mrs James Brewer sister of the groom, gowned in turquoise lace with inserts of matching taffeta and ensemble hat in bonnet contour.

The best man was Mr John Pertus while the ushers were Mr. Gordon Doucette and Mrs. Jas. Brewer.

Mrs. MacNeil mother of the bride wore a dove grey silk organdy trimmed with matching french lace, dusty rose hat with toning accessories. Mrs. McGean, mother of the groom, wore a summer silk print in tones of blue with white accessories.

Following the ceremony guests were invited to a reception and luncheon at Ocean View Centre where Rev Father Dolhanty who acted as toastmaster called upon Mr. Boyd to propose a toast to the bride. Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. McGean left on a motor trip through the Maritimes and Quebec.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr and Mrs George Boyd of Pointe A Pitre, French West Indies. rMs. Arthur Mahon and daughter Deirdre of Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. John Pertus of Halifax; Mr and Mrs. Donald Parago; Mr and Mrs Ben O'Neil of Sydney.

In Appreciation

We, the family of the late Mrs Annie Bell MacDougall, wish to express our sincere appreciation and thanks to the many dear friends who sent floral tributes, cards and letters of sympathy or helped in any way during our recent sad bereavement.

To Rev. Mr. Snow who conducted the service and to Rev. R. Humby who assisted and sang a beautiful solo and to the organist and choir we are deeply indebted. Our sincere thanks to the MacDonald undertakers for their service and a special deed of kindness.

Our beloved departed mother would not want to forget the service and affection of the doctors, Sisters and nurses during her time in St. Martha's Hospital. Her keen sense of humour and Christian spirit which endured all through her illness, won the affection and admiration of them all.

Our special thanks to Rev. Mr. Archer of St. James United Church for his frequent visits and prayers offered.

Her passing is being keenly felt throughout Cape Breton and in the United States where she made friends during a stay of four winters. She was often referred to by close friends and acquaintances as a "Grand Lady" and a "Wonderful Neighbour". To us who have to live in the loneliness that is left, she was a precious mother.

The annual campaign for funds is now underway, and it is hoped that its success will be as good, if not better, than last year.

HOW MANY DEGREES? The only time "professor" Gordon Sinclair holds a degree is when he's got a thermometer in his hand. His national weather forecast is heard in 40 cities across Canada each night on CBC radio, in the Dominion network's popular show Assisgnment. He's also an expert on news events; CBC has just signed him for a two-year contract on television's Front Page Challenge.
