WHO INTRODUCED STEAMSHIPS ON THE ST. LAWRENCE?

John Molson, brewer and banker. In 1809 Molson built the Accommodation, the first steamboat in Canada, for service on the St. Lawrence River. She was launched on August 19 of that year and began her maiden voyage to Quebec on November 1. The Accommodation was a wooden paddle steamer 85 feet in length. Three years later Molson built the Swiftsure, 140 feet long, which served as a troopship in 1813-14 and was probably the first steamship ever to be used for troop transport.

Molson, born in England in 1763 and orphaned at the age of seven, migrated to anada in 1782 and settled in Montreal. In 1786 he began the production of Molson's ale, which has been produced continuously ever since. He established Canada's first luxury hotel in Montreal and served as president of the Bank of Montreal from 1826 to 1830. He died in 1836.

WHAT WAS CANADA'S FIRST OIL DISCOVERY?

At Oil Springs, Ont., 30 miles southeast of Sarnia. Oil was first discovered and produced here by Charles N. Tripp of Woodstock, who exhibited asphalt from his wells at Paris, France, in 1855, four years before the strike at Titusville in Pennsylvania, site of the first oil well in the United States. A commercial oil well was in production at Oil Springs in 1858.

WHAT WAC CANADA'S FIRST NEWSPAPER?

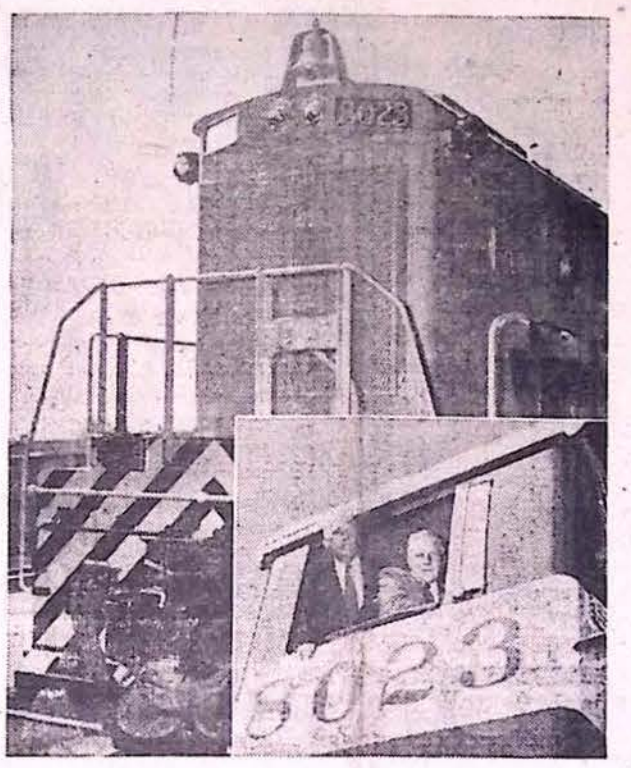

The Halifax Gazette, on March 23, 1752, John Bushell brought out the first issue of the Gazette, the first news sheet to appear in what is now Canada. It depended heavily upon government patronage and much of its space was devoted to government proclamations and official advertisements. However, the first issue contained what we could call classified ads, including one that read in part: "At the Sign of the Hand and Pen, near the South End of Granville Street, are carefully taught, by Leigh and Wragg, Spelling, Reading, Writing in all its different Hands, Arithmetic in all its Parts, Merchants Accompts or the true Italian Method of Book-keeping in a new concise Manner."

Fish Catch For August Good

August was a month of good fishing in the Maritimes, Landings—126.4 million lbs. valued at $5.4 million—were well above those of July and exceeded those of the month of August for a number of years. At the end of the month the total quantity of fish landed this year was, for the first time, greater than that landed during the corresponding period of either 1958 or 1957. These facts were released jointly by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics and the Department of Fisheries on September 18.

By comparison with the month of July, August landings were up by more than 48 million lbs. with a value increase of $2 million. Herring and lobsters were the principal contributors to both the volume and value increases. The main increase in herring landings occurred in New Brunswick with substantial increases in those of Nova Scotia. The improved lobster landings coincided with the opening of the season in the western end of Northumberland Strait. The over-all landings of groundfish remained unchanged from those of July although there were variations in individual species. Cod dropped 1000th DIESEL: — Termed a significant milestone in Canadian Pacific's system-wide dieselization program was the delivery Sept. 10 of diesel locomotive No. 8023, a 1,000-horsepower road switcher, which was the 1000th unit of the efficient diesel power to go into service on the C. P. R. Shown (INSET) in the cab making a final inspection of the unit at the time of its delivery to Windsor Station, the railway's Montreal headquarters, are C. P. R. President N. R. Crump (right) and G. W. Miller, president of Montreal Locomtive Works, builders of the unit. Several directors and officers of both companies were on hand to witness the acquisition by the CPR of its 1000th diesel, which brings toal dieselization of the 17,000-mile railway system a step closer to the 1961 target date set by Mr. Crump in 1955. The Canadian Pacific acquired its first diesel electric units in 1943.

New Paving Process From Coal Tar

HALIFAX — A new paving process using coal tar as a principal ingredient, if found feasible or use on highways and airport runways, could be a shot in the arm for Nova Scotia's coal industry.

Hon. G. I. Smith, Minister of Highways, said his department will send an Engineer to Kentucky this month to study a new process now undergoing tests there.

"If there is a possibility that the process can produce a better grade of pavement, then it is of the utmost importance that we study it," said Mr. Smith.

The process, known as the Curtiss-Wright process, utilizes the solubility of soft coal in coal tars to form an adhesive pavement.

Pavement made by this methdd would have the advantage of not being soluble in gas, oil or jet fuel. It could be used effectively on highways, airports and gas and oil depots.

Hon. E. A. Manson, Minister of Mines, said most coal mined in Nova Scotia yields approximately 1700 pounds of a semi-coke or char when treated at temperatures below those necessary to yield metallurgical coke.

The resulting products include 16 to 20 gallons of tar per ton and a substantial amount of commercial gas as well as the coke which is an excellent smokeless fuel for many purposes.

"Both the gas and the coke have a commercial value," Mr. Manson said. "If the coal tar could be used effectively in highway paving it could be a shot in the arm for the Nova Scotia coal industry."

Dr. J. P. Nowlan, Deputy Minister of Mines, said the Dominion Tar and Chemical Company did some research in coal tar paving and found that the province of Ontario used a coal tar material on some of its highways.

Dr. Nowlan quoted J. H. Kemper, research chief for the company, as saying that roads built of coal-tar material are among the best in the Ontario system. Mr. Kemper said, however, that the technique is quite different from that of asphalt paving in Nova Scotia.

Exhibition Of N. S. Paintings

HALIFAX — For the 13th consecutive year, the Adult Education Division of the Nova Scotia Department of Education is organizing a 1960 exhibition of paintings representative of what is being produced in the province.

The collection, like those before, it will be shown through the province next year. Thousands of adults and children will see the exhibition in large and small communities.

In response to a general invitation to all artists in the province, more than 100 pictures in a variety of styles and media are submitted and from these about 36 are selected by a committee representative of the Adult Education Division, the Nova Scotia College of Art, and the Nova Scotia Society of Artists.

Painters who live outside Nova Scotia may also submit their work, but these must have Nova Scotian subjects. Provincial residents are not restricted in any way in their choice of topic.

This year's exhibition, on show recently in the Halifax Memorial Library toured Western Nova Scotia in the late winter and Northern and Central Nova Scotia in early summer. It will be seen in Cape Breton during the autumn.

Each year, two or more pictures are purchased and the resulting permanent collection has aroused interest at a number of national conventions and other meetings held in Halifax during the year.

Both the Travelling Exhibition and the Permanent Collection are available on loan on application to the Adult Education Division The only expense to the borrower is the cost of transportation of the collection from the previous place of showing.

Robert Kennedy of Pictou, regional representative for the Adult Education Division, is in charge of entry forms for the travelling exhibition. The deadline for completion of entry forms is October 15.

SO YOU WANT TO DO IT YOURSELF

Plywood, mosaic tiles, adhesive —and your're on your way to owning the most beautiful table in your neighbourhood.

You will be familiar with the small, one inch mosaic tiles. You have seen them on the floor of bathroom, kitchen and hall of many of our finest homes. More recently imaginative architects have used mosaic tiles on the exteriors of some of Canada's most eye-catching buildings — salons, luxury hotels.

But the application that appeals to the creative woman is the current use of these adaptable little tiles as table tops for dining tables, end tables or coffee tables.

First, buy a slab of ¾" plywood. (Half-inch is considered adequate, but the heavier ply will protect against warping). Now buy your adhesive. Be sure the label says "for ceramic tile"' A linoleum spreader will be handy for smoothing on your adhesive.

Finally, select your mosaic tile. Canadian-made mosaic tiles are available in a rainbow range of colours which are colour coordinated to other Canadian-made products for the home. The little tiles are mounted on square sheets when you buy them — this facilitates the ease and speed with which you lay them. Purchase the number of sheets of tile you require to cover your plywood surface.

First,, lay the sheets of tile on the floor and, if you want to build a design, pick out the tiles you want to replace and drop a tile of the alternate colour in its place. This is building your design "'dry".

Now spread your adhesive on the plywood and, sheet at a time, turn your tiles face down on the adhesive. Permit the adhesive to take hold, then dampen the paper backing and peel it off.

Leave for 24 hours. Next you need a supply of a white powder for 'grouting'. Simply prepare a moist paste by mixing the grouting material with water and, with a sponge, smooth the white material into the cracks between your little tiles. Sponge off the excess with your damp sponge.

Put a wood moulding around your table, screw your legs in the bottom and apply wax or stain to finish the wood.

It's completed!

You have a table you will use with pride. And to REALLY appreciate your hand-made masterpiece, try pricing a duplicate at your closest furniture shop!

Pessimistic Pearson

There is probably no man living who has a better knowledge of the work of the United Nations than the Hon. Lester Pearson, leader of the Opposition in the Federal Parliament, says the "Wolfville Acadian."

"During his long term as Canada's Minister of External Affairs, and a one-time president of the United Nations General Assembly, he worked indefatigably to advance its aims and objects, which were to ensure that very member country would work with the others to ensure peace in the world and to bring heavy pressure upon those who attempted to break it.

At last, Mr. Pearson has been forced to admit that his years of effort had been in vain and that the United Nations has fared no better than its predecessor, the League of Nations, the only vestige of which remaining is a multi-million dollar building at Geneva.

"It must have been a bitter blow to him to have to admit, as he did a few days ago in Vancouver, that "We based the United Nations Security Council on the idea that the countries in it could work together somehow. Well, they didn't."

"It seems to us that the average "man in the street" has been aware of this fact for a long time, and that the United Nations have become more and more disunited as the years passed by. But Mr. Pearson and some others like him have no need to blame themselves for this state of affairs. There are powerful countries who made it their business to see that there should be no unity if they could prevent it, and in this they have succeeded only too well.

"If, in years to come, somebody should sit down and write a history of the United Nations it will be found that the name of the Hon. Lester Pearson will stand high on the list of those who spared no effort to make a success of it. The blame for its failure lies elsewhere."

AUGUST FISHING REPORT

5 million lbs. but greater landings of hake and redfish made up the loss. Other species showing increases from July were mackerel with a gain of 1.2 million lbs. and swordfish with a gain of 1.6 million lbs.

The landings of fish in the Maritimes during August of this year were higher than those of August, 1958 by 34.8 million lbs. and higher than those of August 1957 by about 23 million lbs. The value increases over 1958 and 1957 were $1.7 million and $1.4 million respectively.

The cumulative landings to the end of August 1959 in the Maritimes, stood at 465.5 million lbs. In volume it was not significantly greater than that of the two previous years. Nevertheless the cash return to fishermen of $27.8 million was more than $4 million higher than they received in either 1958 or 1957. This gain continued to reflect the higher value received for fish which has been evident throughout this year.

LIME
AN AID TO BETTER FARMING

Lime can make all the difference between a bumper crop and a poor one. What might have been a wretched crop of poor quality hay without lime, could be, with lime, an excellent crop running as high as 4 tons to the acre.

A SOUND INVESTMENT

Blast Lime: $1.50 per ton
Ground Limestone: $2.50 per ton.
in bulk carlots, delivered to your nearest railway siding. Transportation assistance on truck lots.
Good farmers find that lime is providing an investment return of about $19. for every dollar spent on lime!

ORDER NOW!

It is a good plan to spread your lime on sod land to be ploughed in the period immediately after harvesting. Nova Scotia's soils are sour, and need lime. The Department strongly advises you to order your lime NOW—to be sure of your best crop next year.

For information about the use and handling of lime, contact your local Agricultural Representative.

For the land's sake—use lime
