SUGAR and SPICE

By Bill Smiley

Loug winter got you down? Feel a bit frazzled? Ulcer acting up? Worried about the bomb? Let's take a straight look at things, and see how we feel.

If people paid any heed to the warnings, dire predictions and appalling statistics with which they are assailed on every hand, the human race would be up for drivelling cowards, cringing under their respective beds.

Reach for a coffin nail with your morning coffee and paper, and a headline hits you between the eyes: SMOKING, LUNG CANCER LINKED TESTS . PROVE Turn on your car radio as you drive to work and the announcer tells you, triumphantly, that week end fatalities hit 72, betting last year's record by eight. He sounds happy about it.

Just look as though you feel like a beer, and somebody, probably your wife, will start reeling off the latest figures on alcoholism.

Start putting away some thing for your old age, and some cheerful vulture will inform you, with ill-concealed satisfaction, that the human race will be obliterated by unclear weapons within the current decade.

Put in an honest, hard day's work, and some magazine article will trumpet the news that you're heading for a coronary.

Besides these fairly deadly forecasts, we are subjected to a barrage of minor threats and insults, most of them of a personal nature. The ads leave nothing sacred. They shout that we have: body odor; loose scaly dandruff; unpleasant breathe; slipping dentures; treacherous kidneys; acid stomachs, and that we are badly in need of a new truss for that old hernia. They don't leave a stone, not even a gall-stone, unturned. They imply that we are sickening creeps.

Fortunately, there is a wonderful cluelessness, a deliberate obtuseness. in human nature, that makes us go blithely on our way, recking nought of the Cassandras in our midst. And a jolly good thing too, or life would be not only frightful but also frightening.

There is something gallant and dashing about the two-decks-a-day man who reads the lung cancer story, pales slightly, then lights a fag and blows out the smoke with the devil - may - care smile, the quizzically - lifted eyebrow, of the condemned spy facing the firing squad.

There is something heroic in the man who hears the week end fatality figures while driving to work, and merely set his jaw, tramps on the gas, and bulls through the traffic, with all the skill, enthusiasm and disregard for danger of a Ben Hur at the reins of a chariot.

You can't help admiring the cool concern of the heavy drinker as he peruses the article on alcholics, while getting through his fourth rye and water, "Trouble is a lotta these people are weak, and they get too fonda the stuff and they can't hannel it," he muses, as he reaches for the quart and knocks the lamp of the end table.

It is difficult to withold applause at the spectacle of the type who disdains the imminence of sudden annihilation by H-Bomb because he's too busy figuring out angles to diddle the government out of death duties on his estate.

And surely one cannot refrain from a rousing cheer for the man with a bum ticker who, retired after thirty years in a sedentary job, immediately starts slaving like a navvy, building, tearing down, fetching and carrying, shoveling snow and cutting grass, and generally showing a fine scorn for living to a ripe old age.

It must be horribly exasperating to scientists, traffic authorities, temperance people, tax collectors, and doctors, but there's something unbeatable in human nature. It's a sort of massive, charming stupidity a superb recklessness, that has made people ignore all warnings and deliberately seek out disaster, ever since the day Eve was warned not to fool around with that apple.

CLERK-TREASURER 1961 REPORT IN PART

"To comply with the requests of the Finance Committee at various times during the year, I have taken steps to adopt some changes in the disbursements and receipts registers in the Municipal Office. The new registers will enable the Municipal Office to provide the Council and Finance Committee with a detailed breakdown on receipts and expenditures in the Auditors' Report.

This year was the first year that we have been asked to break down the revenue and expenditure accounts as for example: maintenance municipal buildings into telephone, fuel, light, heat, janitor, major and minor repairs, etctra. This change requires a more detailed book keeping system and more book-keeping work in the Municipal Office. A similar system has been adopted by other Municipalities. To bring about these changes I am requesting this Council to empower the Clerk to purchase and, if necessary, have printed any book-keeping materials which is required for the exercise of his duties. This is done in all municipalities I have been in contact with.

The old assessment roll has already been abolished and a new roll similar to that used in other Municipalities has been adopted with the approval of Mr. Harrington and the Finance Committee for 1962.

We do not have an accounts payable and accounts receivable register. Thus we had no way of knowing the accurate amounts of accounts receivable and payable within the year as there was no possible way to balance a handful of bills to any controlling account. This problem will now be solved by the use of a voucher register which I expect I will have in operation the first of March.

The general ledger is also in the process of being changed so as to be in complete conformity with the requirements of the Department of Municipal Affairs.

We also require in the Municipal Office other necessary records such as a record of vested properties sold and a record of vested properties still owned by the Municipality. This would require one new leger.

Mr. Warden and Councillors, this is the report which I respectfully submit..

R. J. LeBLANC,

There are at least 10 million blind people in the world, about 650,000 of whom are children. Some experts put these figures much higher, at about 15 and one million respectiveley.

MRS. EVA JOLLYMORE

The passing of Mrs. Eva Jollymore, occurred at her home in Boudreauville, on March 12, in her 68th year. The late Mrs. Jollymore was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alex F. Boudreau, of Petit de Grat.

The late Mrs. Jollymore, was a devout member of St. Joseph's Church, and was a faithful member of the various organizations.

A good mother and kindly neighbour, her passing will be greatly felt by her family, relatives and friends.

Her late husband, Percy Jollymore, a veteran of the first World war, passed away a few years ago.

Surviving are four sons: Percy, Office Manager, at the Booth plant; Joseph, George and Alfred with whom she resided; also five daughters: Marcella, in Ontario; Mrs. Gus Marchand, (Lucille); Mrs. Albert Forgeron, (Katherine); Mrs. Godfrey Boucher, (Noretta); Mrs. Henry Fortune, (Mildred.)

She is also survived by four brothers and one sister: (Bertha) Mrs. Alex Boudreau, Boudreauville; Dominic and Lawrence Bras d'Or: Alex and Amadee of Boudreauville.

The funeral was largely attended and attested to the esteem by which the late lady was held. Rev. John MacDonald, pastor of St. Joseph's was the celebrant at the Solemn High Mass. Bishop Landry, Monsignor Boudreau, Father Doucette, and Father Gerrior, were present in the Sancturay.

The pallbears were: Allister and John Jollymore, grandsons; Mark, Colin, Wilfred and Timothy Boudreau, all nephews of the deceased.

We extend our deepest sympathy to the bereaved family, brothers and sisters.

ALEXIS MEUNIER

WEST ARICHAT. One of our best known and highly respected citizens, Alexis Meunier, passed away suddenly at his home here on March 6th. The late Mr. Meunier, was a veteran of the first World war and served in the 22nd. Canadian Battalion on the Western front. He was a devout member of the Catholic faith and was in his 65th year.

Surviving besides his wife Elizabeth is one son, John, of this place; also a step-son, Paul Bonin of Halifax; two brothers, Alex and Howard of Providence, R. I.; and three sistrs, Lavina, Evelyn and May in Flordia.

The funeral took place from the church of the Immaculate Conception with Rev. Father Doucet, as celebrant at the funeral mass.

Comrades of the Petit de Grat Branch 150 of the Canadian Legion, were in attendance and conducted the Military service at the grave. The pallbearers were veterans of the second World War followed by honary pallbears of the first World War.

C. A. Boucher, of Arichat, was in charge of funeral arrangements.

To the bereaved family we extend our sincere sympathy.

LEONIE ALLEN

Leon Allen, a native of Isle Madame, passed away at Gloucester, Mass., recently. The late Mr. Allen resided in Glouceter, the greater part of his lifetime, where he engaged in the fishing industry. He was in his 74th year and is survived by his wife the former May Briand of Cape Auguet. A sister, Mrs. Joseph Bonin, is a resident of this town.

Leonie was well and favourably known here and at Gloucester, having sailed out of that port in days of the sailing vessels and later he took up beam trawling and often in recent years, while en-route to the banks came into the port of Arichat and at which time he would make the rounds visiting relatives and friends. He never lost interest in his native home and here his friends always gave him a warm welcome.

The late Mr. Allen was a veteran fisherman and like the many men who left here to follow their calling in the U. S. A., many years ago are not being replaced by men from here and our connecting link in this industry with our good neighbours to the South, will soon become a memory.

Today out of the port of Gloucester we have former natives of Isle Madame residing there and following their calling to mention a few: Capt. Alphonse Boudreau, Arichat; Capt. Edgar Boucher, Cape Auguet; Capt. Leonard DeCoste; Cape Auguet; Capt. Gus Doyle, Rocky Bay and Capt. Clifford Boudreau, Petit de Grat. No doubt other skippers of Isle Madame can be listed but at present that list is not available.

We extend our sympathy to the family of the late Mr. Allen.

BARBERSHOP WISDOM

"How would you like your beard trimmed, sir?" the barber in the story asked.

"In silence," the wit was supposed to have replied.

Good repartee, no doubt. The wit, however, missed considerable wisdom.

Barbers get to know a great deal about human beings. And a knowledge of humans, their virtues, their faults and foibles, is at least as valueable as book learning. Some of the "longhairs" I have watched and listened to on television and radio lately would probably do better if they spent more time in the barbershops, a haircut as a secondary consideration.

While this column is being written, there is a plethora of television commentators giving us the "inside story" of why Mr. Hazen Argue left the NDP. Each has a theory of some sort. None seems to have much understanding of the human being in question. My barber sounded more convincing to me than the lot of them. He said, "I guess Hazen figured the voters at home wouldn't back him in that Party. He wants to represent his constituency."

My barber doesn't think there is as much juvenile delinquency today as there

VARIETY SHOW A BIG SUCCESS

At the Parish Hall, Petit de Grat, Sunday evening a Variety Show, sponsored by the K. O. C., was much enjoyed by over 600 in attendance.

The Master of Ceremonies, Rudolph Boudreau, a St. F. X., graduate, did a champion job in presenting the players, mostly local talent.

A feature much enjoyed was the appearance of Ivan Burgess, from Bermuda, B. W. I., but at present an Arts student at St. F. X., University. Ivan will be remembered by many TV fans, when he was a winner on "Talent Caravan." A singer worthy of special mention on any program, Ivan won the hearts of his audience.

Another attraction was that of Bud Talbot, of New Glasgow, whose performance as a dancer, is well-known by his many admirers.

The exhibition boxing match of 4 rounds by George (Rock-a-bye) Ross former middle weight champion of Canada and his brother Ronald, was much enjoyed. The match was referreed by Francis Martell of Pondville and was an attraction and in being an exhibition match was declared a draw.

Fulbert Boudreau and the Landry brothers of Petit de Grat, turned in a good performance.

Albert LeBlanc of Arichat, in his vocal selections was as usual a favourite with the audience and in one of his numbers his singing and acting could be termed as professional.

Hank Boudreau, of Little Anse and Mark Boudreau, of Arichat were heard in vocal selections and were given a good hand by the audience.

The Boucher sisters, Betty Ann and Cornellia, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Boucher, of Arichat, put on a splendid performance with Betty Ann on piano and Cornellia on the drums. The latter in a vocal selection sang beautifully. Their father also performed on the drums.

Two young ladies of Petit de Grat, Doris Boudreau and Joan Boudreau,, in their vocal selections, really pleased the audience and are real favourites.

The following local step-dancers gave a good performance:—Nicholas Boudreau, Albert Boudreau and Leon Boudreau, all of Petit de Grat.

The orchestra under the direction of Fulbert Boudreau, on guitar; Rudolph Boudreau, an expert on the drums; Leon Boudreau, a newcomer to the band, showed fine talent on the Electric Guitar; Eddie Boudreau, the fiddler, was in exceptional good form; Jeerry Landry, good form; Jerry Landry, handled the keyboard to the delight of the audience. He was also heard on the violin and was accompanied by his brother Xyste Landry on the piano. Both Xyste and Jerry are talented musicians and uphold the tradition of the musical Landry family.

The Poirier twin sisters of D'Escousse, charming little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Poirier, won the hearts of everyone, in their vocal selections. They were accompanied by their father on the guitar.

Good Mail Service

Stanley Diggdon, who was awarded the mail contract between Grand Anse and Arichat about a year ago, is performing a good service.

Mr. Diggdon's mail contract was recently extended to Cape LaRonde via Rocky Bay-Pondville, thence to Arichat, West Arichat, Port Royal. This contract takes in the whole of the North Side of Isle Madame and all Post Offices on the South Side of the Island with the exception of Robins, Petit de Grat and Janvrin's Island. John B. Richard of Arichat, holds the contract for Petit de Grat and Robins and is giving a very good service. Clinton George is the veteran Janvrin's Harbour contractor and has served this route from Port Royal for many years and is also giving a good service.

This service is made possible in winter time by our snow plow operators, who keep the highways open and here again much credit goes to these men for performing a splendid service this past winter.

MULGRAVE

The big CNR ferry Carson is at present docking at the CNR pier at Mulgrave due to heavy ice conditions at North Sydney. The Carson has no difficulty plowing through the drift ice which gathered to the East of Green Island and as far as Arichat bay. We predict that boats in the Newfoundland service, will be making Mulgrave a permanent port of call in the winter and in talking to a prominent Hawkesbury citizen in that town recently, he suggested that Mulgrave could well be made a year-round port. With the Canso Causeway holding back the big northern ice the port has proven to be most valuable to the ships in the Newfoundland service.

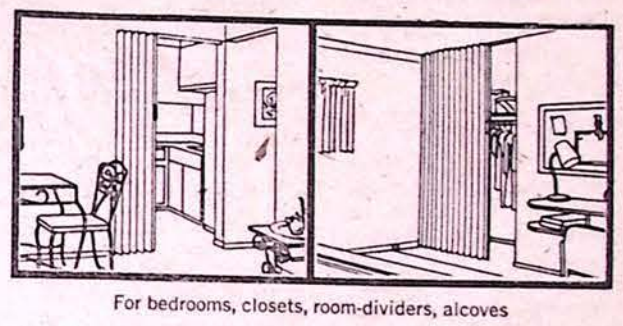

Mainland Visitors

Ralph MacInnis, of St. George's Channel, accompanied by his two attractive little daughters, Helen and Florence; also by his neighbor, Gerald MacIntosh, were motor visitors to Arichat on Saturday.

A 13 week filmed series reviving a significant decade in Canada's history, from 1936 to 1946, will be seen in Canada at War, each Tuesday on the CBC—TV network. The half-hour programs portray developments on the home front in addition to the role played by the armed forces in battle. Canada's distinguished record on the war fronts is recorded in films covering the Spitzbergen raid, Dieppe, Sicily, Italy Normandy, Holland and Germany.

A FEW FACTS ON BLINDNESS

The blindness rate in North America and Western Europe is about two per thousand of the population. In the rest of the world it is at least twice as high. In much of Africa and the Middle East the rate is from six to 10 times as high. In some villages of Northern Ghana one person in every ten is blind. Among the tribesmen in East Africa nine out of every 10 suffer from eye disease.

More than two-thirds of the cases of blindness in the world could have been prevented or cured. The same is true of all other vision defects that cause partial blindness.

was when he was a kid. " I have a lot of teenagers come in here," he said. "I've been cutting hair on Canadian youngsters for thirty years, in small towns and in the city. There's not a finer crop of kids anywhere than you get today. They tell you how they want their hair cut. Do it their way and they thank you; muff it by cutting it a bit too short, and they tell you about it politely. They don't thank you and then go out of the shop and criticize you. Their fathers aren't always as straightforward."

My barber likes people with honest views which they state forcefully. He often says things to stir up some talk. He is pretty disgusted when a customer would rather agree than have the gumption to argue.

I suppose the barber is wrong about some things. My guess would be, though, that his comments are usually close to the truth. He forms his convictions from a pretty careful study of human beings and what makes them tick. He doesn't accept everything he reads or hears. It has to jibe with human nature or he rejects it. Political commentators might do better if they would use a similar check chart.
