Diary of a Vagabond

BY DOROTHY BARKER

THE MONEY GOES

Disneyland wasn't at all like I expected this fantastic enterprise would be. I knew a large amount of money could be spent on the grounds, but I thought the healthy admittance fee covered the hours that would be enjoyed roaming from Fantasyland to Tomorrowland, or the fun of getting lost in the maze of Adventureland.

Instead there is a charge for everything. A pocketful of 10 cent coins can disappear as fast as the line of waiting humans can be lowered into the hold of an imitation submarine, or filed into the capsule of a spaceflight contraption. And the funny part of it all is, you are happy to pay, to wait and be consumed with anticipation, for there is the assurance that the imagination that created Donald Duck and Mickey Mouse has something gay and wonderful in store for you.

Walt Disney has said that Disneyland will never be finished. I can well beleive this. Even as Rickey sailed on a raft to an island where he lost himself for 45 minutes in the caves and caverns of Tom Sawyer's Hideaway, I watched men at work on a gigantic Swiss Family Robinson tree hut being constructed in the biggest tree on the grounds. Below them in the making I saw a huge pool where 20 elephants will cavort after July 1st.

Around the island the old river boat puffs and chugs its way, tooting to the little old fashioned engine pulling its capacity load of laughing passengers, enthralled with the animated animals realistically grazing in the nearby wood that separates the mainland from the river.

One enters Disneyland on Main Street. This is true reproduction of a Gay Ninties home town street scaled down, so that the imagination of a child can orient him at once with his surroundings. Sleeping Beauty's Castle, theMatterhorn even the stockade in Frontierland is built on the same scale.

POTENTIAL MOVIE STARS?

Our guide, a pert miss in a fantastic costume which in itself set the theme of fantasy, said it would take 72 hours to see all Disneyland and particpate in every one of the games and rides. The average spent, if the grounds are not too crowded, ranges around the twenty dollar mark per person, she informed us. These guides meet every bus. They are personality types with rich tans, pearly white teeth, shiney hair and pretty legs. They wear culottes of red plaid barely covering their knees, huge red capes and of all things, black velvet riding caps.

We stood in line for everything from a ride at a whiz on the monorail to the purchase of a nickle popsicle. And all we did was sigh with pleasure. We were, in Rickey's estimation, really living it up.

This we could easily realize, was the land of make - believe brought to life. We didn't mind being bumped and jostled;we did not fret at the long waits; we hardly noticed the droves of humanity, or assessed the artificiality of this papier - mache world. The mind that created all this has given the children of earth a dream that is real and wonderful, exciting and satisfying.

Poor Khrushchev! He wasn't allowed to enter this kingdom of fantasy when he visited California. What a pity! It might have given him a dream to hang onto, instead of a missle with which to threaten the world.

From Disneyland our bus whisked us over another thruway to Knott's Berry Farm. Unlike Disneyland, every attraction here is free. As a consequence, another cool million or so bodies panned for gold, applauded cowboy singers in the old covered wagon corral, wandered down the mouth of a gold mine shaft, and tickled the nose of the old prospector's donkey. It is done well and is making a million for the Knott family who turned their orange grove into this authentic reproduction of an old gold mining ghost town.

Where do they make their money if everything is free? They sell jams and jellies presumably made from Knott - grown berries, delicious chicken dinners and, you guessed it, souvenirs and gifts.

KEEP YOUR RED CROSS ON THE JOB

TO TAKE POST GRADUATE COURSE AT HALIFAX

Dr. Herman Samson, who graduated from the University of Ottawa in medicine in 1961 was visiting at the home of his brother, George Samson at Petit de Grat. He was accompanied by his wife and arrived from Detroit where Dr. Samson served as an Interne in a hospital in that city for the past year.

Dr. Samson will spend the next six months in Halifax where he will take up Anesthesiology at the Halifax Infirmary.

On the completion of this course he will return to Cheticamp where he will join the staff of the hospital at that place and will also carry on a general practise. He will also serve as a Anesthesia physician at Inverness Hospital.

We wish the genial and studious young doctor every success and may he and his young bride enjoy every happiness throughout their wedded life.

APPOINTED PRESIDENT OF LOCAL FIRE DEPARTMENT

PAUL C. DOYLE, Barrister of this town has been appointed President of the Isle Madame Fire Department at an official meeting held at Petit de Grat on Sunday.

Mr. Doyle appeared on the television program "Focus" featured by TV station C.J.C.B. and outlined the efforts made to date in sponsoring a Fire Department for the Isle Madame area. and the type of equipment best suited.

Mr. Doyle and his committee have done much in organizing a Fire Department, which we understand will be financed on a voluntary basis and we do trust that everyone will contribute and help to make this much needed department one of the best in the rural areas of the province.

ON TOUR OF THE COUNTY

EARL W. URQUHART, M.L.A., Richmond County and Opposition Leader of the Liberal Party, in the Provincial Legislature, is on his annual tour of this constituency.

According to recent press reports it now appears that Mr. Urquhart is to the forefront as a likely choice for the leadership of his party at the nominating convention to take place in Halifax early in November.

A veteran campaigner and able debater he has devoted his time and study in political science since first elected to represent his native county in the Provincial Legislature on December 27, 1950.

A teacher, veteran of the R. C. A. F., in World War II, lawyer, M. L. A. and Leader of the official opposition are qualifications that should make him a favoured nominee for the Leadership of the Liberal party of this province.

SUGAR and SPICE

By Bill Smiley

It may seem a very poor attitude, when the financial experts are crying blue rain, the newspapers are demanding action, the Prime Minister is running a hockshop, and everybody is being warned to tighten his belt, but I'm just about to commence two months holidays.

There will be a short pause here while all of my old colleagues in the weekly newspaper business vent their feelings. I can hear the cries, just as well as though they were in the room, of, "Good old Bill, he deserves it!"; and "Congradulations, old boy, I hope you enjoy every minute of it!"; and a few other things. Never mind chaps, I know how you feel, and I appreciate it.

But I can't help it. Just because I decided my true vocation lay in guiding young lives, in nurturing the tender plants of our youth, in bringing to bloom the personalities of our richest resource, there is no need to carry on so.

* * *

And of course, you realize that these holidays are nothing but a nuisance to the dedicated pedant. We deeply devoted teachers feel nothing but intense irritation at this unfortinute summer interruption in our calling caused by the absence of pupils. Most of us can scarcely wait for Labor Day to roll around. After all, you can get pretty sick of tramping around some old golf course, day after day. And you can get mighty bored just sitting there in the hot sun, drinking beer and pulling in the bass.

* * *

Perhaps my real trouble is that I'm not used to holidays. As any weekly editor can tell you, they're almost non - existent in that game In fact , I haven't had a decent holiday in the last 15 years. I'm like a man who has never been farther than the next town, and who is suddenly offered a plane ticket to any place in the world he wants to go. He's bewildered. He's scared. He doesn't know what to do with it.

Because I know it's going to be a traumatic experience, I've had to do a lot of careful planning. Otherwise, I just know I'd crack up under the pressure of all that free time. At first, I planned big: write a novel; take a trip to the West Coast, or the East Coast; canoe through Algonquin Park.

But it wasn't long until I realized that sort of thinking was pure escapism, trying, as it were, to deal with the gigantic, menacing vacation with one blow. No, I had to face up to it. There was no easy way out. I knew I would have to suffer through every one of those sixty - odd days, as they advanced on me in Indian file.

It's taken me about a week of hard work, but I think I've come up with a creative, adventurous approach to the whole troublesome problem. The first thing I realized was that I'd have to keep busy every moment. With this in mind, I drew up the following schedule:

Leap smartly out of bed no later than 10, every morning, unless I'm tired. Straight out into the garden in bare feet and shorts, to read the mail while I drink my orange juice. Half an hour of meditation, watching the black squirrels eating wife's radishes.

Walk (no driving) down town, purchase morning paper, and peruse same over coffee in restaurant with prettiest waitress in town. Walk home under the maples, wondering what the poor people are doing today. Remove beaded bottle from refrigerator, detach cap, consume contents slowly. Lunch, in garden. Short nap in lawn chair while sun passes zenith.

* * *

Waken, shave, dress. Fulfill afternoon obligation — boat ride through the islands, game of golf, fishing jaunt, or swim and sunbathing. Home. Shower. Tall tinkling drink. Dinner, served outside, of barbecued steak, baked potato, fresh green beans or young carrots, salad. Coffee. Brandy.

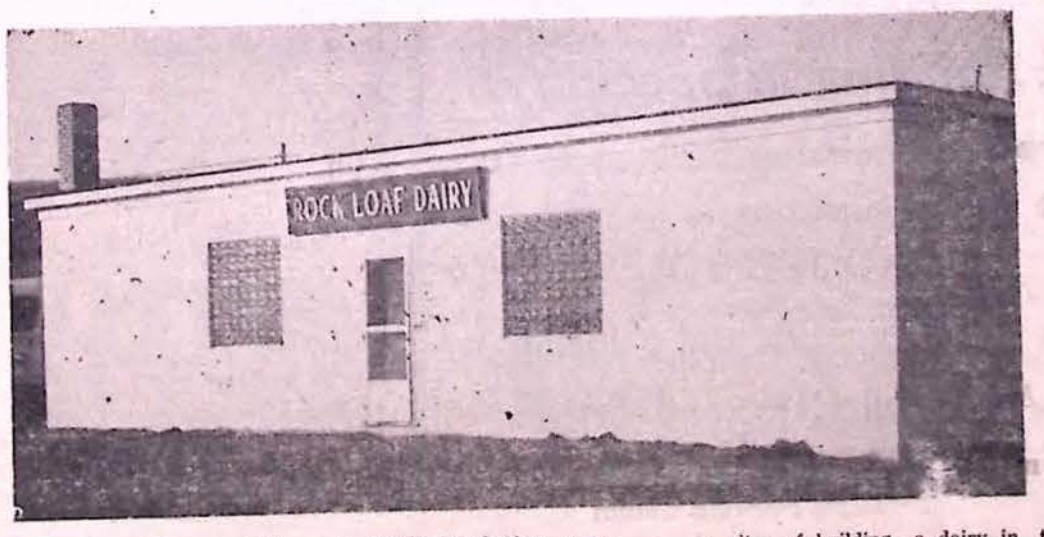

Read novel, under the oaks, lulled by sounds of summer evening—children's pping, birds' lullabies, distant band concert. Sit out until long after dark, somking good cigar and pondering ways of God and man. Go in, prepare small snack, retire to study, watch all late movies until all stations off air. Bed.

* * *

This, I know, is the only way

New Equipment at Rock Loaf Dairy

Rock Loaf Dairy which was established by Mr J. Emile Benoit of this town only a few years ago, has installed new units of machinery in the processing of pasteurized-homogenized milk and other dairy products.

The new units were installed by a Toronto firm and are modern in every respect and capable of producing a greater quantity of pasturized products, which was found necessary due to the increased demand throughout this County and in the Hawkesbury area.

This Dairy plays a dual capacity in the economy of Isle Madame farmers and in the employment of some 20 men who process and deliver milk for the large number of patrons throughout the area. Together with this Mr. Benoit operates the modern Rock Loaf Farm and also maintains a repair garage to look after the needs of his trucks and other equipment.

Mr. Benoit sensed the opportunity of building a dairy in this town prior to the opening of the Pulp Mill at Point Tupper and together with the Booth Fisheries plant operating at Petit de Grat gave his enterprise a boost and it now appears his efforts will be crowned with success.

Rock Loaf Farm is operated in conjunction with the Dairy and supplies a large percentage of the raw milk pasteurized at the Dairy. Isle Madame farmers have a ready market for their milk.

This farm is located on the late Saul Latimer property and was named Rock Loaf having gotten its name from the miniature mountain in the valley near the dwelling, which resembles a loaf of bread. Here on this farm you find registered Ayrshire cattle of Bowater stock numbering about 50 head. This herd is looked after by Leo Gallant, a highly qualified herdsman who came to the farm from Charlottetown, P. E. Island a few years ago.

Alphonse Marchand of this place is foreman of the Dairy and his assistant is Patrick Mury of West Arichat. Both these men are highly qualified in the operation of pasteurized equipment. Prior to coming to Rock Loaf Dairy, Mr. Mury was employed in a pasteurizing plant at Sydney.

The drivers of the milk trucks are: Leo Boudreau, of Arichat; Raymond Bona, West Arichat and Dan Babin of West Arichat and Leo Gallant makes deliveries on the North Side of the Island.

Ernest Paon is the efficient office manager of the Dairy.

Home industry plays a very important role in the economy of the County and every encouragement and support should be given by the people wherein such industries are established.

Of Many Things

By AMBROSE HILLS

THE CANADIAN TEAM

While we differ a lot among ourselves, politically, socially, and religiously, most of us can agree that we want Canada to do well in the world. In short, with all our differences, we are each on the Canadian team.

We have handicaps and advantages. We should take a look at both. I enjoyed reading a speech made by W. E. Williams, a transplanted American, the other day. He is president and general manager of the Procter and Gamble Company of Canada, and he was giving some of his opinions. "The first thing you must have in your mind, "he told his audience, "is that Canada is different but not too different."

He is so right about that. We look much like Americans, drive the same automobiles, shop at similar stores. There are, however tremendous differences.

For example, this country is 4000 miles wide, three thousand high....and that means we have more land than the States. However, only 8% of our vast land mass is inhabited. How many Canadians realize that some 92% of our country is uninhabited? Not many. And our weather is pretty rough for some six months of the year, whereas a large part of the USA is bathed in warm sunshine the whole year round.

Mr. Williams, from his personal experience, told of the difficulties experienced in marketing products in Canada. The long freight hauls, the varying temperatures, and then the two official languages.

In Canada, we have 18 million people, speaking two official languages. In the USA they have 186 millions, with a single language.

Reading these things may suggest we haven't a ghost of a chance to keep up with the world. Mr. Williams suggested that "The greatest illusion since the Indian rope trick was the Canadian dollar at a premium to the U. S. dollar, since productivity of a country determines the value of its currency."

Yet Mr. Williams is here. His company is doing a thriving business. Canada is, he says, a good place to live and work.

Work is a key word. If we face our problems and work hard, so that our income matches our outgo Canada can continue to do well. That means that everybody on the Canadian team needs to pitch in and give at least as much as he expects to get.

VISITORS TO TOWN

Capt. and Mrs. W. X. Boucher and son, Rodney of Halifax, were recent visitors to Capt. Boucher's father, Simon Boucher and his brother Gerald Boucher.

Capt. Boucher is a veteran of World War II. He is still connected to the Canadian Army and in recent years has been on important assignments.

Friends here were happy to see Capt. and Mrs. Boucher.

Visiting Relatives

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Goyetche and children Brenda and Ronnie from Tilt Cove, Nfld., are vacationing at Pondville at the home of Mrs. Goyetche's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Marchand.

We wish them a very happy holiday.

MRS. ANGELE LeBLANC

POULAMOND—A well known and highly respected lady, Mrs. Anglele LeBlanc passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles McDonad, on July 26th., after a short illness. She was 101 years old and was the oldest resident of Isle Madame.

Although she had been confined to her bed for the past three years she shared in the family conversations and had all her senses up to the last week of her illness. In her younger years she was an active worker in the community and shared in the joys and sorrows of her neighbors. She was always ready to care for the sick and her many acts of kindness down through the years of her life will long be remembered and cherished.

She leaves to mourn her daughter, Mrs. Charles McDonald, (Eva Jane), with whom she resided and was lovingly cared for; three grand-daughters, Mrs. John Baxter, (Sophie), Sydney; Mrs. Henry Burke, (Hazel), Ontario; Mrs. Noel Burke, D'Escousse. Six grandsons—Valma and Herbert, Sydney; Leonard and Steve, Louisdale; Francis, Poulamond and Vernie, in Ontario.

The funeral took place from St. Hyacinth's Church with Requiem Mass celebrated by Monsignor A. Boudreau, P.P. Interment in the parish cemetery.

The pallbearers were the grandsons of the deceased.

MRS. T. BOUCHER

Mrs. Toussiant Boucher, a highly rspected resident of this town passed away at St. Anne's Hospital here a short time after being admitted. She was in her 79th year and had been in poor health for the past few years.

She is survived by three daughters: Mrs. Evangeline Richard (with whom she resided and was tenderly cared for); Mrs. Albert Babin and Mrs. Walter Meunier, West Arichat; one son, Freddie Boucher, Arichat; also one brother, Peter Benoit, in the United States.

The funeral which was largely attended, took place at the Assumption Church when Very Rev. A. P. Poirer, P.P., celebrated the the solemn high mass of requiem, assisted by Rev. Albert Doucet as as deacon and Rev. C. Girrior as sub-deacon.

The pallbeares were: Joseph and Elzear David, Alcide Marchand, Amable Richard, Leo Martell and Elmer Joyce.

We extend our sympathy to the bereaved family.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear husband Henry C. Edwards who passed away on July 15th 1958:—
He is gone and not forgotten
And as dawns another year,
In my lonely hours of thinking
Thoughts of him are always near
Days of sadness will come o'er me
Friends may think the wound has healed
But they little know the sorrow
That lies within the heart concealed.
Always remembered and sadly missed by loving wife

Boudreau of Petit de Grat acted as Secretary and Fred Thompson, Deputy Fire Marshall of Sydney was in attendance.

The Petit de Grat meetng, was given considerable publicity by C. J. F. X. and C. J. C. B. Radio and T. V., was a follow up of a meeting held at Arichat on June 13, 1962 to discuss fire protection for Isle Madame. The Arichat meeting resulted in the appointment of a five man committee, among other things, to hold regional meetings around Isle Madame to determine public opinion and to report back to a general meeting for the whole of Isle Madame which the committee was empowered to call.

The Chairman called for a report from the Fire Committee. Mr. Doyle reported that the committee had met six or seven times and that the work that was done was divided up among the committee members. He reported that about 55 people from all over Isle Madame had signed up as members of a Fire Brigade, and that a meeting of the members had taken place at which Mr. George Boudreau, of Petit de Grat was elected Fire Chief and Mr. Ned LeBlanc of Airchat was elected Deputy Chief. He also reported that the trailor pump had been placed in operation with car wheels installed and that the Fire Chief had received 500 feet of hose from the Department of Lands and Forests. Mr. Ned LeBlanc reported that the Department's portable pump and 3,000 feet of hose is now available for fighting building fires. Mr. Doyle said that the local telephone exchange had been told who to contact in the event of a fire.

Much discussion took place on the question of whether to finance a fire department on a tax or voluntary basis. Various trucks and relative prices of adequate equipment were discussed. The possibility of obtaining the Department of Highways garage at D'Escousse, as a fire hall, was mentioned. Mr. George Boudreau stated that in his opinion a tanker truck with a 1000 to 1500 gallon gallon tank with ladders, hose and pump would be the best for this area. He estimated the cost of such a unit at about $6000.00.

It was moved by Paul Doyle and seconded by Barth LeBlanc and passed that this meeting set up an executive of a Fire Department for Isle Madame with the object that they shall proceed to raise money on a voluntary basis for the purpose of purchasing fire equipment for Isle Madame. A motion was then passd that the executive comprise a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary-Treasurer and two representatives of each of the areas of Isle Madame that is: Petit de Grat area, Arichat area, West Arichat area and the North Isle Madame area and that a nominating committee be appointed to bring in a slate of officers. The nominating committee comprising Very Rev. A. P. Poirier, Mr. Leon Landry, Mr. George Boudreau and Mr. Vincent Doiron, brought in a slate of officers which was approved as follows: President, Paul Doyle; Vice-President, George Boudreau; Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. Joseph C. LeBlanc, D'Escousse; Petit de Grat representatives: Mr. Wllie H. Boudreau and Mr. Clarence Landry; Arichat: Mr. Wilbert Stone and Mr. Lorenzo Boudreau; West Arichat: Mr. Wilfred Forgeron and Mr. Raymond LeBlanc; D'Escousse: Mr. Clancy Cordeau and Mr. Arthur Terrio.

It was moved by Mr. Leon Landry and seconded by Monsignor Boudreau that the President and Secretary-Treasurer be the signing officers and that the executive be empowered to spend not exceding $50.00.

Mr. Fred Thompson suggested that tenders be called for fire truck units from the various companies which make them and that figures obtained be given to the next general meeting. He also suggested that the executive bring in a constitution for approval.

A meeting of the executive will be called for the near future to map plans for fund raising campaign.

Vocalist Norma Locke joins the Art Hallman trio and the singing comedy team of Jack and Ellie Van Evera in the new summertime CBC radio program What's New? Heard Tuesdays and Thursdays on the Trans - Canada network, the show features songs and comedy routines geared to current Canadian activities and events.

At last the value of British comedian Jimmy Edwards in the field of education has been recognized. He is now professor Edwards, headmaster of Chiselbury School, a seat of 'lerning and culcher' for the sons of gentlefolk. The fiercely moustached comic plays his new role in "Whack - O", the BBC Transcription service series heard Saturday nights on the Trans - Canada network of CBC radio.

I can fight off that wild desire to get back into that classroom, and manage, somehow, to get through those two grueling months. I can only save my sanity if I stick closely to my program. And I intend to do just that. Provided, of course, that I can dispose of the dog and cat, sell my two children into slavery, and send my wife to visit her uncle in Ireland.

PETIT DE GRAT NOTES

Mrs. Lizzie Thibeau of Stephenville, Newfoundland was visiting relatives and friends here for a week. She accompanied her son James, who holds a position at the airport in Stephenville.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Dolimont spent a few days at the home of his parents in North Sydney.

Mrs. Albert Forgeron of West Arichat was visiting relatives here during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark A. Boudreau and children Colleen and Garnet of Arichat were visiting relatives here on Sunday.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. Delimore Boudreau, at St. Ann Hospital, a son. Congratulations.

We regret to learn that Miss Ann Benoit is a patient in St. Ann Hospital, Arichat.

Mrs. James MacDonald of Maine, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Landry over the week-end.

Mrs. Linus Landry has returned home from Halifax where she was a patient in hospital, having underwent an operation. We are glad to report that she is much improved in health.

Bernie Boudreau (teacher) in West Arichat school is attending summer courses in Halifax. He spent the past week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Boudreau.

The Petit de Grat Red Caps, of the Richmond County Baseball League defeated the L'Ardoise "Ramblers" 9-0 on the losers home diamond on Sunday afternoon. Vernon Boudreau was the winning pitcher.

On Monday 25 cadets from Isle Madame Squadron No. 678, left for two weeks training at Greenwood Air Force Base. The cadets motored to Sydney by bus then proceeded to Greenwood by plane.

The girl cadets of the squadron were taken on a tour of the Alexander Graham Bell Museum at Baddeck and other points of interest in that part of Cape Breton. The girls returned home reporting a very interesting trip and all are most thankful to their officers for having organized and financed such a trip.

Mrs. Dan MacDonald of Chicago and Mrs. Annie Chisholm of St. Andrew's, Antigonish County, were guests of Father John MacDonald during the week.
