Still In The Swim

Any of you old-timers noticed the gradual, but steady changes in the physical world about you? You have? Good. I was hoping it wasn't just me.

You know what I mean. The hills on the golf course are steeper than last year. The lawn grows larger each year. The dining-room table grows a little farther from you each year. The weeds in the garden are a lot farther away when you stoop to pull them. You look up, instead of down, when you scold your children.

And there's one other change that is particularly evident at this time of year. The water in the lakes is ten degress colder than it was last year.

I noticed this when I went swimming this week with the Old Lady. It was rather a historic occasion. With both our kids otherwise occupied, it was the first time we'd been swimming alone, together, without kids, since our honeymoon.

You should have seen the performance. We sweltered in the sun until there was no alternative to a dip. We advanced with the utmost reluctance to the water's edge. We stood there for ten minutes, peering gingerly at it and each other.

Driven by nothing but sheer male pride, I finally stuck one foot in.

Twenty minutes later I was right up to the knobs on my knees. The old girl had barely wet the paint on her toe-nails. We'd be standing there yet shuddering, had not a couple of six-year-olds dashed past us,, splashing us from stem to gudgeon. And my gudgeon still hasn't recovered.

Now, how do you explain this? It was the same body of water my son had been swimming in since early May. He said it was great then. The weather has been hot since. But in mid-summer the temperature of the stuff was thirty degrees lower than in May. Something's wrong.

But I must admit, like all the other dopes, that "It's grand when you get ducked." There's nothing quite like a middle aged swim, with the old bursitis in the shoulder crunching at every stroke, the heart pounding alarmingly, the chest heaving wildly for air.

It does have its compensations, though, this swimming without kids. No one expects you to act as a human diving-tower. You don't have to race a couple of sturdy teenagers to the big rock. And your wife certainly won't compell you to see how far you can swim under water.

It's rather pleasant, really, swimming with the old lady. She dog-paddles about in the shallows with the four-year-olds. You wade out to the deep part right up to your waist, and hit out with a purposeful breast stroke for eight yards before taking a rest. After six minutes, you may return with dignity to the beach.

And there's no one dragging at your arm ten minutes later, demanding that you go back into that liquid refrigerator for another shock treatment... There's nobody bugging you for money for ice-cream or pop... There's nobody interrupting, with badly aimed beach balls, your aesthetic appreciation of the latest in bikinis. There are no squabbles to break up.

It's pretty nice, really, just sitting there in your folding chair, book on your knee, jug of iced mix handy, watching the human comedy. The beach boys holding in their stomachs so hard they can't breathe. The beach girls, sticking out their bosoms so hard they almost fall over backwards. Human hippos. Human giraffes, Human gorillas.

But surely something can be done about that water. If we can devise rockets to hit the moon, surely to goodness we can figure out some way of warming up our lakes so that people over forty don't turn from sophisticated citizens into gibbering cowards the minute they get near the water's edge.

ST. JOSEPH'S C. W. L. PETIT DE GRAT

The regular monthly meeting of the St. Joseph's Council C. W. League was held in the parish hall, Petit de Grat, at 2 p. m. on Sunday, Sept., 12th.

The meeting was opened with a prayer, led by the director, Rev. J. J. MacDonald.

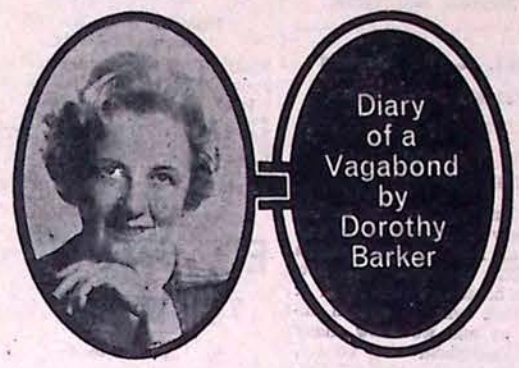

The ways and means convenor, Mrs. Amedee Boudreau, reported that the annual lobster supper held in the parish July 1st. had been a huge success. She also reported that the women had had a very busy summer. They catered to two wedding breakfasts, also to a supper served to forty members of the Socitie St. Pierre.

The C. W. L. members catered to a public supper served during the official opening of the new Credit Union building in Petit de Grat.

It was moved that a social evening be held in the parish hall on Sunday Sept. 19th. as a farewell to three girls from the parish, namely, Muriel Samson, Tena Boudreau and Jacqueline Landry who are leaving soon to enter the congregation of the Filles des Jesus.

It was also moved that a spiritual bouquet be made up and presented to Mr. Vernie Fougere, who is leaving to enter the seminary for his first year, to begin his studies for the holy priesthood.

The meeting was then adjourned with the recitation of a prayer to Our Lady of Good Council.

The Play's The Thing

From the time I was a little girl and lisped "Mary Had A Little Lamb" with a toothless grin, I have been fascinated by what is often termed "histrionics." This takes many forms and at times develops impossible conceits. Fortunately, more often, it is evident in the growing popularity of summer theatre, which has proved over the years, a healthy training ground for dramatic ability.

I became aware of the cast of Rothesay Playhouse quite early one sunny morning. Bells of the lovely little Roman Catholic Church, just around the corner from where I was staying, awakened me as they summoned members of the congregation to early Mass. Soon the far away skirl of pipes warming up for Rothsay's annual Highland Gathering coaxed robins into a symphony of song. Mingling with their throaty chirp was a tenor voice lustily belting out a love song from Bells Are Ringing. The congregation of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, cooperating with many others in the town, loan their hall for rehearsels without charge to the players.

The formation of B & B Productions hinged on the chance meeting of Storch Boone and Patrick Baldauff. Storch, with youthful enthusiasm, was inspired to form a summer theatrical group and invited Pat to join him. Both of them New Yorkers, with considerable theatrical experience in their background, they accepted the invitation of a prominent businessman to come to Rothsay and establish a summer theatre. Storch and Pat have limitless praise for Rothsay's citizens and express continual gratitude for the support the group has received from them.

The entire success story, and success it must be termed though the company is subsidized by patrons and still dreams of the day when their bank balance will be written in black rather than red, can be attributed to cooperation. From the day the dilapidated old movie house was reclaimed by these industrious thespians, the story of B & B Productions has been a combination of hard work, inspired acting and enthusiastic willingness on the part of every member of the company to work harmoniously together.

Popularity Grows

Forty plays, musicals or comedies have been produced since the first day Storch and Pat took one look at their surroundings and evaluated what could be done with the crumbling walls and abused seats in the auditorium to make it respectable enough for the first performance of "Harvey."

Storch told me of the difficult time the company had to find places to live that first year. "Residents opened their homes to us and since then have been contributing props, costume materials and their enthusiastic applause to encourage us," he said.

There are two Canadians in this year's group of players. The youthful producers, who by the way study with Lee Strasberg during the winter, earn extra money doing TV commercials or by taking part in off Broadway productions. The 30 young people, including actors, apprentices, technicians, scene and costume designers and a business manager love Canada and hate to leave when the season ends.

Evidently their enthusiasm has spread, for 400 applications were received to join the company this summer.

WILLIAM K. LATIMER

William K. Latimer, of Mulgrave, N. S., a retired C.N.R. Engineer, passed away on September 13th. at the Victoria General Hospital, Halifax.

Born at Cape La Ronde, 71 years ago, he was the son of the late William and Caroline Latimer.

During his early life he followed railroading and was employed in the west and in later years was employed by the CNR in this province and after his retirement took up residence in Mulgrave. He was a very industrious man and was always ready to lend a helping hand to his neighbours and friends. His cheerful disposition won for him a host of friends not only on Isle Madame, but wherever he took up residence and was highly regarded by fellow workers in the railroad, both in the east and west.

In recent years he carried on an excavating and landscaping business and his services were much in demand in the Strait area and throughout this county.

The late Mr. Latimer was a member of the King Solomon Masonic Lodge No. 58, A.F. & A. M., Kamsack, Saskatchewan. He was also a memebr of Friendship Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, Afton, N. S.

He is survived by his wife the former Mary Ferguson, of Cleveland, C. B.; one sister, Jean, (Mrs. Thomas Cooper), of Halifax and two brothers, Irving Latimer of Sydney and Edward Latimer of California, U. S. A.

He was predeceased by three sisters and one brother.

Funeral service was held from the Cleveland United Church at 2 p.m., September 16th with Rev. Ann Taylor (West Bay) and Rev. Jan Huntjens (Mulgrave) officiating. The funeral was largely attended which attested to the esteem held for the deceased.

Hymns sung were: "What A Friend we Have in Jesus", and "The Lord is my Shepherd". A solo: "Breathe on me Breath of God", was sung by Rev. Jan Huntjens.

Pallbearers were: Robert Morgan, Roderick Steele, Murdock Ferguson, John Ferguson, Ralph MacKichan and Gordon MacLean.

Interment was in the Grantville Cemetery. Funeral arrangements were under the direction of the MacDonald Funeral Service, of Port Hawkesbury.

The floral tributes were many and beautiful.

We extend our sincere sympathy to the bereaved wife, sister and brothers, in the passing of a beloved husband and brother and a friend whose memory we shall always cherish.

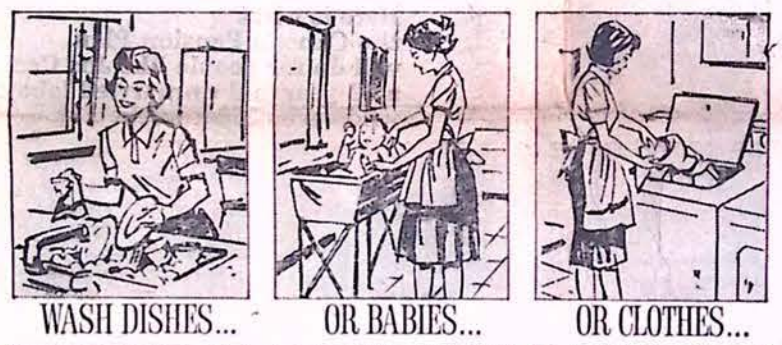

BURTON-GATES WED, TO RESIDE IN PORT CREDIT

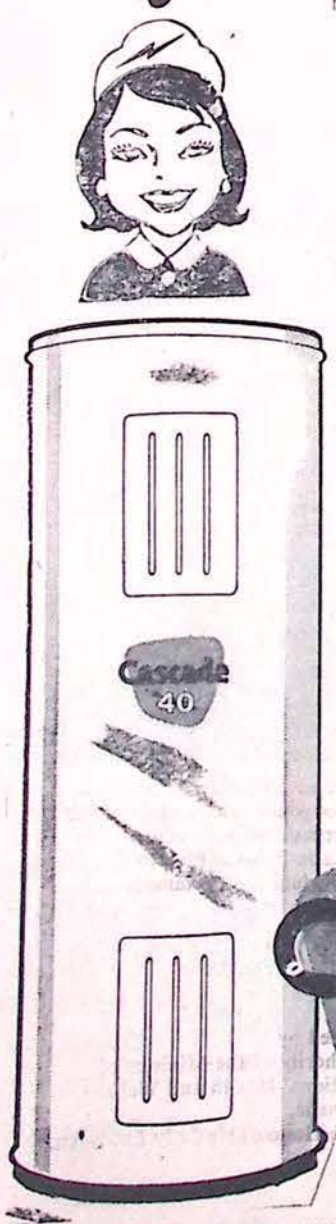

The wedding of Ruth Elaine Gates to Hilford Ralph Burton was solemnized on Saturday, September 4, in St. Andrew's United Church, Hepworth by Rev. J. R. Carbert. Mrs. James Walker, Hepworth, was the organist and accompanied the soloist Miss Georgia Hewitt of Uxbridge.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell E. Gates, Hepworth. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Hilford J. Burton, Port Credit.

The Record joins with the many friends of the young couple in wishing them every happiness throughout their wedded life.

A RECENT VISITOR FROM AMHERST

Not so long ago we had a visit from Henry MacLeod, a former resident of Point Tupper and a retired CNR employee, who now makes his home in Amherst, N. S. Henry's visit was of special interest to us and we know many residents throughout the county, especially at Arichat and St. Peter's will recall a horse race at the latter place over forty years ago, when Henry's "Sadie Chatham" and the late Dr. B. A. LeBlanc's "Darkey Hal", thrilled over a thousand fans in a race that has been a "flash back" in the ice racing annals of the county.

At that particular race Henry drove. "Sadie Chatham", while Charles P. Stone drove "Darkey Hal". Sadie Chatham was the winner in this race.

Fans from all over Isle Madame attended this race and were conveyed to St. Peter's on the S. S. Tussle, and the late Capt. Frank Young was the pilot to St. Peter's in a fog that was thicker than pea soup and with a heavy swell in Arichat Bay, that had more sick fans that happy ones, before they landed at St. Peter's canal.

It was nice seeing Henry and he appeared more than pleased that we remembered him and this historic race.

He spoke of our good friend Holly Tuttle, who now resides in Amherst, and was a passenger on the "Tussle", on that adventorous trip to St. Peter's. At that time Mr. Tuttle was manager of the local branch of the Royal Bank of Canada in Arichat.

Mrs. MacLeod accompanied her husband to Arichat and they had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Wilson of Longview, Wash., who had been visiting in Amherst during the summer.

The Canada Pension Plan and its benefits

Here is what the Canada Pension Plan will do for people like Joe Costello, a 52-year-old unmarried labourer who earns $50 a week.

If Joe continues to work full time until age 65 he can look forward to retiring with a monthly pension of $54.16 from the Canada Pension Plan and $75 from Old Age Security—a total of $129.16. That's almost 60% of what he was earning.

If he is ill or out of work for as long as two years, or if his earnings for a period of up to two years are below his regular wage, he will receive the same pension at age 65. This is because under the Plan a certain number of months of low or no earnings do not affect the amount of the pension.

If Joe wishes to continue working between 65 and 70 and earns higher wages than previously he can improve his pension. For example, if he works until age 69 and earns $3,600 a year, his pension will be $61.74 a month instead of $54.16.

If Joe becomes disabled after 1970, having contributed for at least 5 years, he will get a disability pension of $65.62 a month until he gets both his retirement and Old Age Security pensions at age 65.

All benefits under the Plan will maintain their value. The actual benefits payable will probably be higher than those given here since benefits will be adjusted to meet changes in living costs and in wage levels before they are paid and changes in living costs after they become payable.

What will the Plan cost you?

If you, like Joe Costello, are employed and have earnings of $2,600 spread evenly over the year, you will pay at the rate of 69¢ a week. Your employer will pay the same amount.

This advertisement is one of a series which relates some of the important benefits of the Canada Pension Plan to individual circumstances.

Issued by authority of the Minister of National Health and Welfare,
Canada,
The Honourable Judy LaMarsh.

CANADA CEMENT'S HUGE PLANT OPENED; INDUSTRIAL ESTATES HELPED TO BUILD

Canada's most modern cement plant which is now in operation at Brookfield, N. S. was officially opened by Premier Stanfield.

The $14 million industrial complex is the first cement manufacturing plant in the province. The Maritime Cement Company plant is the result of an agreement made between the Canada Cement Company, Ltd. and Industrial Estates Limited in June 1963.

Annual capacity is 5.6 million bags of cement which is being marketed under the brand name of "MARITIME". The company feels its output will meet the needs of the province for many years.

The new plant at Brookfield is one of the most compact and modern mills of its kind. It features the latest equipment for both cement manufacturing and the control of dust. Following modern industrial process trends, plant from raw material bins to operation of the heart of the cement storages is controlled from a central control room. Latest design X-ray equipment is used for chemical control.

Many of the buildings feature precast and prestressed concrete while most of the other structures are of conventional reinforced concrete. The construction of the plant called for some 60,000 cu. yds. of concrete and 6,300 tons of reinforcing steel The batching plant which was erected to supply concrete for all structures was provided and operated by Atlantic Building Materials Limited.

The plant is located in one of the most scenic and beautiful sections of Nova Scotia near Shortt's Lake. Maximum advantage has been taken of this outstanding location and the natural beauty of the surroundings has been retained to enhance the appearace of this industrial complex.

The provincial road joining Brookfield and the plant property is now being paved (in concrete) by the Department of Highways.

The operation of the plant requires approximately 25 million kilowatt hours of electrical energy each year. This power is supplied by the Nova Scotia Power and Light Co. Ltd. All equipment and supplies for the construction and the operation of the plant have been purchased locally wherever possible.

Over 750 men were employed during construction and approximately 100 permanent workers have been recruited locally.

What is concrete?

CONCRETE IS A GROWING ECONOMY
Banks and stores expand to serve their customers — and their new buildings are concrete. They are beautiful and functional structures, economical to build and to maintain. Left: The new Royal Bank Building in Dartmouth, N.S. Right: Simpson's Store in the Halifax Shopping Centre.

CONCRETE IS HIGHWAYS AND HOMES:
Be it for strength in overpasses or sheer beauty in a private screen wall, only concrete answers all needs with permanence and economy. Left: Railway overpass at Sydney, N.S. Right: Concrete block screen wall at a home in Truro, N.S.

CONCRETE IS POWER AND LEARNING:
A graceful library or a huge dam — concrete is their common denominator. Here, indeed, is eloquent evidence of the universal contribution of concrete to Nova Scotia's growth. Left: The Sissiboo Power Dam, an important source of hydroelectric power in Nova Scotia. Right: St. Mary's University Library Building, Halifax, N.S.

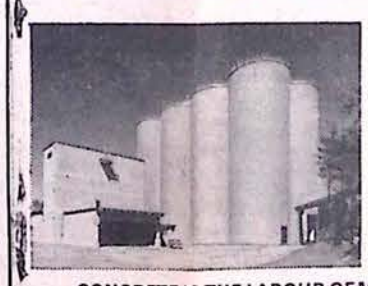

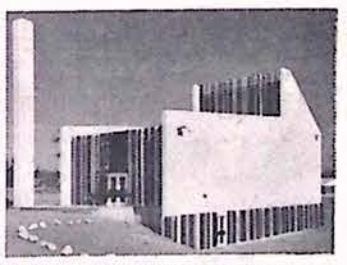

CONCRETE IS FUN AND BETTER LIVING:
From swimming pools to highrise modern apartments, versatile concrete helps people enjoy their leisure hours and makes everyday life easier and more pleasant. Left: Concrete swimming pool and patio area at the White Point Lodge in Queen's County, N.S. Right: The South Park Apartment Project in Halifax, features concrete construction.

CONCRETE IS ECONOMY FOR PUBLIC BUILDINGS:
Precast concrete slabs, panels, columns and girders mean fast, money-saving construction and beauty in the complete building. No other building material can meet so many requirements. Left: Precast concrete construction at Young Offenders Institute, Springhill, N.S. Right: Precast concrete wall panels on Cape Breton County Court House, Sydney, N.S.

CONCRETE IS THE LABOUR OF MAN AND THE WORSHIP OF GOD:
Solid silos speak of man's application to his daily tasks, and strikingly designed Houses of Worship are reminders of his spiritual needs and resources. Left: Concrete Storage Silos at the new Maritime Cement Plant, Brookfield, N.S. Right: Concrete Masonry wall with stucco finish, Seventh Day Adventist Church, Woodlawn, N.S.
